NOTE

Due to a greatly reduced appropriation from Convention for the printing of the Diocesan Journal, and in accordance with a motion of Convention, requiring the Secretary to keep the costs within the appropriation, a number of the customary reports have been omitted, many others have been edited and cut, and the addresses of both the Bishops are only printed in part.

Secretary.

LIST OF THE CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

In accordance with the provisions of Canon III, Section 9, of the Canons of the Diocese, I hereby certify that the following is a list of all the clergymen of the church canonically resident in this Diocese, and I do further certify that all included in said list are entitled to seats and votes in the Thirty-Eighth Annual Convention, save the names marked with a (†), the clergymen so indicated not having been "actually and canonically resident within the Diocese" for the space of six calendar months next before the meeting of the Convention, as provided in the Constitutions, Article VI, Section 20, or having been "exclusively engaged in secular work."

The clergymen, whose names are so indicated, are entitled to seats, but not to speak or vote in convention.

W. BERTRAND STEVENS,
Bishop of Los Angeles.

PART II.

THE CONVENTION

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION

First Day, February 1, 1933

The thirty-eighth annual convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles, at 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, February 1, 1933, the Bishop of the Diocese being the celebrant.

At the close of the service, Convention was called to order by the Bishop, who, upon being informed that a quorum was present, declared Convention ready for business. The Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., was unanimously elected secretary. He appointed as assistant secretaries the Rev. P. G. M. Austin, and subject to an amendment to the constitution permitting an additional assistant secretary, the Rev. W. E. Craig.

The Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, that we now hear the annual address of the Bishop of the Diocese and the annual address of the Suffragan Bishop, first expressing and recording our deep gratitude to Almighty God that He has restored our Bishop to health and strength since the last meeting of Convention, and thanking God also for the able and faithful assistance rendered by the Suffragan Bishop to our Bishop and Diocese in these difficult times.

The resolution was duly seconded and carried by a rising vote, unanimously.

The Rev. George Davidson, D.D., moved that the courtesy of the floor be granted to the Bishop of Wyoming who was present. Unanimously carried.

Convention then proceeded to hear the address of the Bishop of the Diocese. (Page 51.)

Convention next proceeded to hear the address of the Suffragan Bishop. (Page 56.)

The Chair announced the appointment of the following committees: Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes and Missions: Rev. Irving Spencer, Mr. A. C. Leigh and Mr. James McCandless. Committee on Credentials: The Secretary, Mr. C. J. O'Connor, Mr. Thomas Fleming, Jr. Committee on Finance: Mr. C. M. Gair, Mr. H. Ivor Thomas, Mr. W. F. Knight, Col. G. W. Gatchell and Mr. W. A. Holt.

Noon-day prayers were read by the Rev. G. C. Gardner, after which the report of the Committee on Dispatch of Business was read by the Rev. H. H. Kelley, and adopted.

The report of the Chairman of the General Church Program Committee was read by the Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D. Following this, Convention listened to address on the work of the Church by the Rt. Rev. E. N. Schmuck, Bishop of Wyoming, and the Rev. D. R. Covell, field secretary of the National Council.

Mr. R. M. Brady moved that Convention send a telegram of felicitation to the Diocese of Michigan, which was now in session celebrating its one hundredth anniversary. Carried, and the Secretary was instructed to send such greetings.

Upon motion, Convention adjourned to meet at 2 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Convention reassembled at 2 p.m. in the Cathedral House. The report of the Committee on Credentials was read, showing there were 44 parishes and 25 missions entitled to vote provided their assessments had been paid. This was followed by the first report of the Finance Committee presented by Mr. H. I. Thomas. He reported that Carpinteria and Santa Monica had met their assessments in full since the closing of the books and recommended that their delinquencies be removed and they be given seats in Convention. Moved and carried. He then said that 50 parishes and missions were delinquent in part, and that the Finance Committee recommended the arrears on 33 of them be remitted as follows: Alhambra, Beaumont-Banning, Chula Vista, Glendale, La Crescenta, Lancaster, Lompoc, Long Beach All Saints', and St. Luke's, Los Angeles, Good Shepherd (Venice), Grace Memorial, Redeemer, St. Athanasius', St. Mark's, St. Peter's, St. Philip's, St. Thomas', St. John's (West Los Angeles), Monrovia, National City, Pasadena, St. Barnabas' and St. Mark's, Redondo Beach, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, St. James' and St. Mark's, Santa Ana, Santa Barbara, Santa Maria, Sierra Madre, and Ventura. Upon motion of the Very Rev. Harry Beal, these recommendations were adopted, the delinquencies remitted and the above parishes and missions given a seat and vote. The delinquencies on the following parishes and missions the Finance Committee recommended as not being remitted: Beverly Hills, Colton, Escondido, Fullerton, Huntington Park, Inglewood, Los Angeles—St. Andrew's, St. Barnabas', St. John's (Wilmington), St. Mary of the Angels, St. Stephen's; Murrieta, Santa Paula, Torrance and Tujunga. After some discussion the report of the Finance Committee was adopted.

It was then moved by the Rev. A. H. Wurtele, D.D., that those parishes and missions whose delinquencies had not been remitted, be permitted to seat their delegates, and to permit them a voice in Convention, but not a vote. Unanimously carried.

The report of the Executive Council was then read by the Rev. P. G. M. Austin, acting for the Secretary. (Page 73.)

The report of the Standing Committee was read by the Rev. Ray O. Miller, the Secretary. (Page 72.)

The report of the Board of Missions was read by the Rev. P. A. Easley. (Page 73.)

The report of the Rural Dean of the Convocation of San Diego was read by the Rev. C. L. Barnes. The report of the Rural Dean of the Convocation of Santa Barbara was read by the Rev. G. F. Weld, D.D. The report of the Rural Dean of the San Bernardino Convocation was read by the Rev. William Cowans. The report of the Rural Dean of the Los Angeles Convocation was read by the Rev. E. T. Lewis.

The Treasurer of the Diocese read the following requests for appropriations for 1933:

Office expenses of Bishops.....	$1,500.00
Expense of corporation of Diocese.....	15.00
Expense of secretary of convention.....	100.00
Expense of treasurer of Diocese.....	100.00
Expense of registrar.....	25.00
Expense of sexton at convention, 1933.....	25.00
Expense of entertainment of clergy, 1933.....	60.00
Expense of committee on arrangements, 1933.....	25.00
Expense of printing journal.....	425.00
Expense of extra printing.....	125.00
Expense of master of ceremonies.....	15.00
Expense of Historiographer.....	25.00
Expense of pension fund committee.....	200.00
Expense of auditing committee.....	125.00

On motion referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. H. I. Thomas presented a tentative budget for the Diocesan Assessment totaling $23,404.00. This caused considerable discussion regarding financial conditions, but it was finally moved by Mr. A. W. Morgan, seconded by Dr. L. E. Learned, that it be adopted subject to adjustment by the Executive Council if necessary. Carried. Moved by the Rev. R. O. Miller that the Secretary be instructed to edit all reports and material for the diocesan journal so that the cost may be kept within the financial limits allowed for this purpose. Carried. Bishop Stevens asked that the matter of reducing his salary which he had requested in his annual address be referred to the Executive Council, with power to act. Carried.

The report of the Committee on Canons was presented by the Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D. (the complete revised canons appear on page 142). The second part, Canon VII, was explained by the Treasurer of the Diocese, who showed that the method would make very little difference in the amounts of assessments, and its proposer, the Rev. G. F. Weld, moved that it be withdrawn. Carried. The first part Article VIII Section of the Constitutions up for final ratification was adopted. Dr. Learned requested privilege to present first the Revised Canon XVIII regarding the Department of Missions, and after some discussions and a few verbal changes it was adopted.

Convention next considered the revised Canon XVII, and after some debate adopted the original Section 119, as suggested by the Executive Council, making ten members to be elected by Convention.

The hour for nominations having arrived it was moved to defer the report of the Committee on Canons and to proceed to the order of the day.

Nominations were then made as follows: Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese: Rt. Rev. W. B. Stevens, D.D., Rt. Rev. R. B. Gooden, D.D., Mr. M. A. Albee, Mr. G. W. H. Allen, Dr. J. E. Cowles, Mr. H. H. Duryee, Gen. G. W. Gatchell, Mr. W. N. Howard, Mr. R. H. Lindsay, Mr. A. W. Morgan, Mr. H. I. Thomas. Standing Committee: Rev. Geo. Davidson, D.D., Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., Rev. R. O. Miller, Rev. Irving Spencer, Messrs. A. W. Morgan, C. M. Gair, W. F. Knight, and Dr. J. E. Cowles. Executive Council: Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D., Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., Rev. Williams. Delegates to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific: Rev. P. G. M. Austin, Rev. R. H. Balcom, D.D., Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., Rev. William Cowans, Rev. F. L. Gibson, Rev. H. V. Harris, Rev. E. T. Lewis, Rev. Irving Spencer, Rev. G. F. Weld, D.D., Messrs. R. M. Brady, G. G. Entz, C. E. Hodgson, Ralph Isham, W. A. Montan, C. J. O'Connor, W. F. Pascoe, and Wilfred Smith. Representative on the Provincial Board of Social Service: Rev. J. C. Donnell, Rev. H. G. Gray, Rev. G. R. E. MacDonald, Rev. Douglas Stuart. Representative on the Provincial Board of Christian Education: Rev. H. V. Harris. Representative on the Provincial Board of Missions: Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D. Representative on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan: Mr. C. T. Hoag. Representative on the Board of the Home for the Aged: Mr. J. D. Hibbard. Registrar: The Rev. R. O. Miller.

The chair announced the following election officials: Judge of Elections: Mr. Earl S. Sharp. Tellers for the clerical vote: Rev. P. K. Kemp, Rev. H. B. Thelin, Rev. F. P. Foote, Messrs. R. J. Dell and A. H. Halsted. For the lay vote: Rev. Douglas Stuart, Rev. G. C. Gardner, Rev. H. B. Lee, Messrs. Thomas Fleming, Jr., E. T. Sams, and James McCandless. Alternate tellers: Rev. J. T. Fish, Rev. W. L. Currer, Messrs. Reeve Hobbie and Clifford Wilmurt.

The report of the Committee on Canons was again taken up, with the Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., presenting the proposed amendments. Section 120 of the Revised Canon XVII caused much discussion. Part of it was adopted, but when the question of the Finance Committee was debated it was moved to make it the order of the day Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Carried.

The report of the Board of Christian Education was presented by the chairman, the Rev. H. V. Harris. (Page 74.)

On motion, Convention adjourned to hold an evening session in the Cathedral at 8 p.m. and to reassemble for business, Thursday morning at 9:30.

EVENING SESSION

The evening session at 8 p.m. was a mass meeting under the auspices of the Social Service Commission, with music by the choir of St. James' Church, Los Angeles. Speakers were the Rev. Douglas Stuart, Bishop Schmuck and Mr. Reynold E. Blight.

Second Day, February 2, 1933

After morning prayer in the Cathedral, Convention was called to order by the Bishop. On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with and their authentication referred to the chair.

Convention proceeded to the taking of the first ballot. Since there was but one nominee for the office of Registrar, one for the Representative on the Provincial Board of Education, one for Representative on the Provincial Board of Missions, one for the Representative on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan, one for Representative on the Board of the Home for the Aged, four clergymen for the Standing Committee and four laymen for the Standing Committee, Convention moved to instruct the Secretary to cast one unanimous ballot for these gentlemen for these respective offices. This the Secretary proceeded to do, and the chair announced the following duly elected:

Registrar: Rev. Ray O. Miller. Representative on the Provincial Board of Education: Rev. H. V. Harris. Repre- sentative on the Provincial Board of Missions: Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D. Representative on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan: Mr. Chester B. Hoag. Representative on the Board of the Home for the Aged: Mr. John D. Hibbard. Members of the Standing Committee: clerical, Rev. George Davidson, D.D., Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., Rev. R. O. Miller, Rev. Irving Spencer; lay, Messrs. A. W. Morgan, C. M. Gair, W. F. Knight and Dr. J. E. Cowles.

During the casting of the ballots the report of the Bishop's School for Girls was read by Bishop Stevens (page 88). The report of the Harvard School was read by the Rev. P. G. M. Austin (page 88), and the report of the Bishop Johnson Memorial Chapel read by the Rev. E. T. Lewis (page 81).

The report of the Home for the Aged was presented by Mrs. W. A. Holt (page 87). The report of the Woman's Auxiliary was read by Miss R. L. Hibbard, retiring president, who then presented to Convention the new president, Miss Anne Patton, who made a short speech of welcome (page 82). The report of the Church Home for Children was presented by the Rev. George Davidson, D.D. (page 86).

The order of the day being a continuation of the report of the Committee on Canons, the Rev. Dr. Learned took the floor. Debate centered around the canonical difficulty of combining the Finance Committee of the Diocese and that of the Executive Council, and it was finally moved that that paragraph referring to the finance committee of the Council be amended to read as follows: "The Department of Finance shall be the Finance Committee of this Diocese as at present canonically constituted, and shall consist of five members." Carried.

The report of the Neighborhood Settlement was presented by Mrs. R. A. Woods (page 89). Courtesy of the floor was extended to Mr. Charles I. Moody to present a proposed expansion scheme for the diocesan paper, The Los Angeles Churchman.

The report of the Judge of Election was then received, showing the results of the first ballot:

Elected: Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese: Rt. Rev. W. B. Stevens, D.D., Rt. Rev. R. B. Gooden, D.D., Messrs. M. A. Albee, H. H. Duryee, A. W. Morgan and H. I. Thomas. Members of Executive Council: Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D., Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., Rev. R. O. Miller, Messrs. M. A. Albee, C. M. Gair and G. W. Gatchell. Delegates to the Synod: Rev. P. G. M. Austin, Rev. E. T. Lewis, Rev. G. F. Weld, D.D., Messrs. G. G. Entz, W. A. Monten and W. F. Pascoe. Members of Department of Christian Education: Rev. H. V. Harris, Messrs. G. G. Entz, J. P. Key, G. R. Miller and S. W. Williams. Representative on Provincial Board of Missions: Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D.

The chair declared the above-named men elected to their respective offices and Convention proceeded to the casting of the second ballot. During the balloting the report of the Bishop's Guild was read by Bishop Stevens (page 90). The report of the Episcopal City Mission Society was presented by the Rev. A. H. Dexter (page 83). The report of the Examining Chaplains was accepted by title (page 77). When the hour of noon arrived, noon-day prayers were read by the Rev. J. R. Rountree. After giving notices, Convention adjourned until 2 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Convention reassembled at 2 p.m. The report of the Social Service Commission was presented by the Rev. G. R. E. MacDonald, D.D. (page 75). The Rev. W. N. Pierson requested the privilege of the floor to present a resolution congratulating the Rev. George Davidson, D.D., on 20 years' service in St. John's Parish. Seconded by Dr. J. E. Cowles and unanimously carried. The report of the Historiographer was presented by the Rev. G. E. Swan, D.D. (page 79). The report of the Seaman's Church Institute was presented by the Rev. J. C. Donnell, after which the Rev. George Davidson, D.D., offered a resolution of appreciation for the services of the late George W. Parsons, first Treasurer of the Diocese and one of the founders of the Seaman's Church Institute. Unanimously carried. (Page 89.)

The report of the Judge of Elections on the second ballot was then received as follows:

Elected: Director of the Corporation of the Diocese: Mr. W. N. Howard. Member of the Executive Council: Rev. P. A. Easley. No elections on other offices.

The Rev. J. C. Donnell, the Rev. H. G. Gray and the Rev. Douglas Stuart requested that their names be withdrawn from the ballot for Representative on the Provincial Board of Social Service, and since there was but one candidate left, the Secretary was instructed to cast the unanimous ballot for the Rev. G. R. E. MacDonald, D.D., for this office, which he did and the chair declared him elected, together with the others on the ballot. Convention then proceeded to the casting of the third ballot.

A continuation of the report of the Committee on Canons was the order of the day and the Rev. Dr. Learned took the floor. After some discussion and a slight change in wording the proposed amendments on sections 122, 123, and Canons XIX, XXII, XXIII, and XXX were adopted. Also by unanimous consent Article IX, Section 28, was amended subject to ratification of next Convention permitting the appointment of one or more assistant secretaries. On motion, Convention then received the report of the Committee on Canons, as amended, as a whole (page 142).

The report of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan was presented by the Rev. T. C. Marshall (page 85). Special consent was given to the Suffragan Bishop to speak in the interest of the Church Divinity School of the Pacific regarding a financial drive for $35,000 as a 40th anniversary commemoration. Over $1,000 was pledged from the floor.

The report of the Judge of Elections on the third ballot was then received, showing no elections. There having been a number of withdrawals of the clergy on the ballots for members of the Executive Council and Delegates to the Synod, several other withdrawals left but one candidate in the clerical order for each of these positions. On motion, the Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for the Rev. H. H. Kelley as a Member of the Executive Council and one ballot for the Rev. William Cowans for Delegate to the Synod of the Pacific. Whereupon the chair declared these gentlemen elected to their respective positions. Convention proceeded to the casting of the fourth ballot. The chair announced that the Hon. F. C. Valentine, who had been for many years Chancellor of the Diocese, was unable to continue due to ill health and that he was appointing Mr. Merton A. Albee as Chancellor. The Rev. George Davidson, D.D., moved that Convention elect Judge Valentine "Chancellor Emeritus," which was unanimously carried.

The report of the Finance Committee on requests for special consideration in the matter of assessments for 1933 was read, and caused considerable discussion. Moved by the Rev. H. C. Smith, seconded by the Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., that these requests be not granted. Carried.

The report of the Judge of Elections on the fourth ballot was then made as follows:

Elected: Members of the Executive Council: Messrs. W. N. Howard and W. A. Monten. Delegate to the Synod: Mr. R. M. Brady. Members of the Board of Christian Education: Rev. T. R. Jones, P. K. Kemp and C. H. Parlour. The chair declared these gentlemen elected.

Nominations were then made for Alternate Delegates to the Synod: Rev. R. H. Balcom, D.D., Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., Rev. H. V. Harris and Rev. F. L. Gibson; Messrs. C. E. C. Hodgson, Ralph Isham, Wilfred Smith and C. J. O'Connor. There being no other nominations the chair declared the above named gentlemen elected.

A discussion of Assessments then followed, after which the following motion was made, seconded and carried:

"That the Diocesan Assessment and the Diocesan Missionary Assessments adopted by this Convention shall be reduced in a sufficient amount to meet the decreases in the parish and mission assessments requested from the Finance Committee."

The Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D., offered a resolution of thanks to St. Athanasius' Church for the loan of chairs, to the students of the Harvard School who acted as pages, to Mr. W. F. Ludlum for his personal interest and attention in furnishing amplifier equipment, to the newspapers of Los Angeles for friendly cooperation, to the choir of St. James', Los Angeles; and the Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., added as an amendment, to St. Paul's Cathedral for the use and privileges of the Cathedral buildings. Unanimously carried.

The report of the Corporation of the Diocese was presented by Mrs. H. I. Thomas, the Treasurer (page 92). The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was received by title.

The Rev. George Davidson, D.D., reported on the progress of the Canon Browne Memorial marker. He also offered a resolution of appreciation for the services of Mr. Mark Turnbull, long a member of the Finance Committee.

The report of the Auditing Committee was presented by Mr. H. E. Brett (page 114).

The Bishop announced the nomination of the following for Examining Chaplains: to succeed himself in filling out the unexpired term until 1936, Rev. John R. Atwill; to succeed himself for the term until 1937, Rev. W. N. Pierson. Under the new canon the following new chaplains were appointed with their terms to expire as follows: Rev. L. C. B. Hill, 1934; Rev. P. K. Kemp, 1935; Rev. H. C. Smith, 1936; and Rev. M. L. Kain, 1937. Convention ratified these nominations and declared them elected.

Moved by the Rev. C. E. Spaulding that letters of condolence be sent to the following clergymen who were unable to attend Convention: Canon Hibbard, Canon Hubbard, Canon Dotton, the Rev. F. J. Bate, Rev. W. J. Bedford-Jones, Rev. E. B. Mott, and Rev. A. H. Backus. Carried.

The report of the Church Extension Society was presented by Mr. H. A. Albee (page 80). He then placed in nomination the present members for Directors, who were reelected (page 4). The report of Jerusalem and the East Mission was received by title. The report of the City and County Mission Society of San Diego was received by title (page 84).

Moved that the reading of the minutes be dispensed with and their authentication referred to the chair.

After the singing of the Doxology, the Bishop pronounced the blessing, and on motion Convention adjourned, subject to the call of the Bishop.

Signed:

W. BERTRAND STEVENS,

Attest:

Chairman.

STEPHEN C. CLARK, JR., Secretary.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

To the Clergy and Laity to the 38th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles:

The loss by death of three Bishops is reported with deep sorrow:

THE RT. REV. CAMERON MANN, D.D.,
Second Bishop of Florida;

THE RT. REV. WILLIAM WALTER WEBB, D.D., LL.D., Sixth Bishop of Milwaukee; and

THE RT. REV. JOSEPH BLOUNT CHESIRE, D.D.,
Fifth Bishop of North Carolina.

Five faithful clergy of the Diocese have passed into the larger life during the year: The Rev. Walter T. Cleghorn, vicar of St. Philip's Church, Los Angeles; the Rev. Charles E. Deuel, D.D., Rector of Trinity Church, Santa Barbara; the Rev. Carleton M. Hitchcock, retired, but long associated with Christ Church, Ontario; the Rev. Vernon D. Ruggles, for many years the Superintendent of the Episcopal City Mission; the Rev. James I. H. Cameron, retired, of La Jolla. Also the following lay members of former Convention: Dr. J. Gordon Baird, General W. D. Beach, Major Wm. B. C. Collins, J. O. Dalrymple, Arthur S. Doolittle, Judge O. N. Hilton, F. H. Howell, David A. Jones, A. D. MacLeod, William M. McInnes, James H. Milburn, George W. Parsons, the first treasurer of the Diocese; David E. Spangler, Joseph N. Thomas, Mark Turnbull, Albert H. Voight, General Charles H. Whipple, Benjamin Bakewell Wright. The death of Mrs. Anthony H. Dexter and of Mrs. Erasmus J. H. Van Deerlin, means the loss of devoted helpmeets of two of our faithful clergy. In the death of these people the Church Militant has lost consecrated workers. In addition to these deaths, a number of our clergy have lost from their family circle those who are near and dear to them. We remember all of these faithful servants of Christ with gratitude and pray that they may go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service.

The economic curve seems to rise and fall with more or less well defined regularity over the years. Periods of prosperity and need seem to alternate and the low points appear every few decades. It would make an interesting subject for the thesis of some ambitious candidate for the doctorate, as to the effect of economic upheavals upon organized religion. It is my hope that the Committee of the State of the Church may have some facts to present to us later in the Convention. Their figures may not support my deductions but in the main, I believe they will. My own observations would lead me to assume that as far as the Diocese is concerned, the following facts are true: that the curve of church attendance has not fallen appreciably, that financial contributions have dropped to the lowest level in the twelve years of my experience here, and that confirmation classes are larger. Whether the aggregate number of confirmations for the year 1932 is in excess of that of previous years, I do not know, but I do know that a number of the classes that I have confirmed since last May have been the largest in the history of their respective parishes and missions. These are generalizations (with the exception of that concerning finances), which may be open to question. I have endeavored to verify my impressions by consulting a selected group of clergymen and laymen. Of our diocesan clergy I have conferred with the head of a large downtown parish, a medium-sized city parish, and an active mission. Of these three, two agree that attendance remains approximately as in previous years. The third finds a decrease in attendance which he explains by the absence of individuals who cannot pay their pledges. It is significant that in this case, it is the downtown parish where the disinclination to pay carfare may be a factor. It is conceivable that former attendants at downtown parishes are now attending neighborhood parishes. In this same parish it is worthy of notice that although attendance is smaller, there is a noticeable increase of men in the congregation. Out of the two who report no decrease in attendance, one feels that the personnel of his congregation is very much the same and that everyone has been able to pay his or her pledge. It is interesting that this is the parish of medium size made up of people in moderate circumstances. The third, though finding no decrease in attendance, has discovered that the personnel of the congregation has very much changed, that some of his old members are not able to pay their pledges and stay away, but that many new people who have not hitherto shown an interest in church or religion are attending with considerable regularity.

I have interviewed three others: a layman of this Diocese, a layman of a neighboring diocese and the rector of a parish on the Atlantic seaboard. Without committing themselves on the matter of church attendance, these three agree that there is an intensified interest in religion on the part of people in general. The local layman stated it is his opinion that many people who have not been active in church work are attending church services and desire to find an adequate philosophy of life. The clergyman from the East states that he finds a wistful religious interest on the part of people who hitherto had taken a "thumbs down" attitude on everything pertaining to organized Christianity, a change which has come about during the last eight or ten months. All of these opinions are verifiable in the fields in which those who have expressed them are working. How far they are applicable to other fields no one can say, but the following deductions would seem to be reasonable: (1) Decreased attendance due to financial problems should be met by the repeated assurances that the Church is interested in people as children of God and not as means of support for the institution. Perhaps in our eagerness to maintain ourselves as congregations and diocese we seem to be suggesting otherwise. (2) A new responsiveness on the part of people hitherto uninterested in the Church gives us an opportunity which we shall neglect at our peril. If there are those who are attending church services in search of the words of Eternal Life, it is tragedy if the clergy give them anything less. I recall several years ago a layman telling me of attending church on a Sunday when the whole world seemed tense with conflicting impulses, and of hearing as the sermon, a resumé of a parish entertainment. (3) As a result of our experiences we are surely justified in pledging ourselves anew to a conception of life which is based upon lack of anxiety for the morrow.

Our Missions

As I have said, nearly all of our Missions have had their difficulties. The Executive Council found itself under the necessity of making reductions in the Board of Missions appropriation to missionary stipends, and in one or two cases, of uniting fields. We have all been gratified by the fine spirit in which this action was received by the missionary clergy. Whether further economies will be necessary I do not know. I trust not, but if so, you may be sure that the Council will make them as sympathetically and constructively as possible. The missionary resources of the diocese are almost entirely the funds paid in by the various congregations on Missionary Assessments. The problem of maintaining our missionary work at its present level is largely one of arithmetic. Failure to pay assessments must mean ultimate withdrawal from certain fields or horizontal cuts in salaries. These questions are naturally related to the whole financial problem of the diocese.

Church Buildings

During the year there have been completed a fine new church building for St. Peter's Mission, Santa Maria; a beautiful and commodious parish house for St. Stephen's Mission, Beaumont-Banning; a new vicarage for St. Mary's Japanese Mission, Los Angeles; a new parish house for St. Andrew's Mission, Fullerton; and a new parish house for Trinity Mission, Ocean Beach. Christ Church, West Hollywood, lost its parish house through fire and the restoration has been so complete that it is in effect a new building. A notable fact about the completion of St. Peter's Church, Santa Maria, is that it was practically paid for before completion and the dedicatory service was the formal service of Consecration. In view of conditions, this amount of building is remarkable. A generous and large visioned layman and his wife are erecting a new church building for St. Barnabas' Mission, Pasadena. This gift will add enormously to the effectiveness of the Mission's work.

Our Educational Work

The schools are facing difficult days. With decreased enrollment, and in the case of the Harvard School a heavy indebtedness, the problems have been many and acute, but we feel confident that we can meet the situation and carry on with the fine traditions that we have always maintained. Our schools have always had a rather general support and patronage without very much effort. At the present time I am frank to say to you that we need the help of all the church people of the diocese in filling up our school enrollment.

After a number of years of valiant effort the Bishop's School for Younger Children at Glendora, the Glendora Foothills School has been abandoned. Mr. Downes gave himself self-sacrificingly and invested a large sum of money, but it seemed wise to him and to the Trustees not to maintain the school longer.

The Bishop Johnson Memorial Chapel at the University of California at Los Angeles has been functioning successfully under the leadership of the Rev. John A. Bryant. A considerable number of students and others usually taxing the capacity of the church, are present at all of the regular services, and the nucleus of a fine parish is in process of development.

New questions are arising in connection with schools of nursing. Our Bishop Johnson College of Nursing at the Hospital of the Good Samaritan has been obliged to consider some of these. The whole plan of nursing education is being revised. Many schools of nursing are being eliminated; standards of education are being raised and the trend is to place more and more of the responsibility on the college or university. Our school has reduced the size of its student body; it is requiring a year of college work in selected subjects and is encouraging the combined college and nursing course provided by special arrangement with Occidental College. Other plans are being considered which we hope ultimately will lead to a centralization of nursing education.

Our Institutions

The Hospital of the Good Samaritan has given a high quality of medical and surgical service under difficult conditions. We have discovered that a good many illnesses can be postponed and certain types which formerly seemed to require hospitalization are now cared for in the home. I doubt if there is a very general understanding of what the Hospital means to the diocese. We have given during the past year free work to the amount of nearly thirty thousand dollars in the hospital itself and over thirty-one thousand dollars in its allied departments. Clergy and their families have been cared for gratuitously or at considerable discounts; many lay people have been recipients of the Hospital's part pay and free bed endowments.

The Church Home for Children, the Home for the Aged, the Neighborhood Settlement and St. Barnabas' House have carried on their work with efficiency and no grave problems of administration. The Girls' Friendly Lodge has maintained its work, but with financial problems that can only be solved by the help of interested friends. The Seamen's Church Institute has had an especially good year and looking forward to increased usefulness. The work of the Bishop's Guild has changed somewhat in character, but it is the same useful organization as before. The Church Welfare Association, in view of the present emergencies, has extended the scope of its work to include relief. It is carrying on case work of high grade with a background of real Christian sympathy. The death of the late Chaplain, the Rev. Vernon D. Ruggles, has left a great gap in the work of our City Mission Society. It is through his remarkable leadership that the society has reached its present state of effective service and its extensive ministrations in a number of institutions. Considering every aspect of the situation it has seemed wise to request the Suffragan Bishop to take general oversight of the work of the society for the present, to which Bishop Gooden has agreed with the same willingness and understanding that he always shows. The Rev. Anthony H. Dexter will be the senior chaplain, and the Rev. W. E. Craig and others will carry on part-time services.

The problem of unemployment is of great concern to all of us. Most of the clergy have been of such assistance as has been possible to the people of their respective congregations. I feel the necessity, however, of a cooperative effort, and I am calling a conference on the morning of Friday, February 17th, at 9:30 o'clock, at the Cathedral House, for the clergy of Los Angeles and vicinity to consider ways and means of a larger usefulness on our part in the present emergency, and I am asking the Rural Deans of the other Convocations to arrange for similar conferences.

One plea in closing. It is important that we do not disregard or deny fundamental Christian principles in the exigencies of the hour. There is a tendency to disregard outside obligations and responsibilities in the interests of local problems. This is illustrated by the tendency of some parishes to neglect almost to the point of repudiation its extra-parochial duties. The same tendency exists in dioceses. The missionary principle must be just as true in days of stress as in times of prosperity. I ask your cordial support of our general Diocesan Missions. The parishes will find everyone concerned entirely sympathetic with local problems and no one will be asked to do the impossible. The General Church, I am sure, will be considerate of the difficulties of the Diocese. Let us therefore, in mutual understanding, loyalty and determination, endeavor to express our deep convictions that a live church must be a missionary church and that the obligation to win the world for Christ knows no times or seasons.

THE SUFFRAGAN BISHOP'S ADDRESS

To the Members of the Thirty-eighth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles:

May the power of wisdom and of a sound mind be given us for these tragic days by the only wise God our Saviour.

The year past has been one of progress in the three departments over which your Suffragan Bishop has general oversight. There is one apparent exception to this statement in the fact that amounts of money available for use have been smaller, but we do not count lack of money or its abundance as marks of going forward or backward in our work. Money is not the measure of the value of our work.

The responsibility for Christian education must always be the responsibility of the local parish and especially of its priest. Parishes may come together to inspire each other, to compare notes, to discover new ideas, to modernize their methods so that they may keep out of ruts, but the responsibility is after all local, and the priest's in particular. The day has long since passed, if there ever was such a day, when the priest could believe it was beneath his dignity to have anything to do with a system of Christian education in his parish, or thought that it was an evil, perhaps not even a necessary one. The day has long since passed when vestries could be blissfully indifferent to that vital function of the parish and treat it as if it were somebody's private hobby or plaything. The Master's Commission to us is to teach all nations to observe whatever He has commanded us.

Other agencies through which the teaching ministry of the Church is being carried on are: Adult Classes, Bible Classes, Study Classes, Teaching Missions, Teacher Training Classes, Mission Study Classes, Prayer Circles, Junior Church Services, Children's Eucharists, Correspondence Courses, especially among the so-called "isolated" and confirmation classes. Some of our ablest pastors and teachers have all-the-year confirmation classes.

Social Service in this diocese in its highest sense was grievously stricken by the sudden death of Father Vernon Douglas Ruggles on the evening of Thanksgiving Day. I will not add to the Bishop's tribute but make his my own. Suffice it to say that he was a man of God, an untiring worker, a faithful and joyous pastor and a priest trained in the best Anglo-Catholic tradition. He was a good executive and created a far-reaching society. He was beloved by his associates, and his widely-scattered flock counted it a good day when he had passed among them with the merry twinkle in his eye, his radiant smile, and his bluff and hearty greeting. He brought with him not only material assistance but fresh hope and renewed health. His place can never be filled.

The question is often asked: What is the Church doing to help the distress of people? It is generally asked somewhat scornfully with the implied answer, "Nothing." The fact is that community chests and all voluntary relief agencies could not exist without Christian people of all names, and it must be added in fairness, the cooperation of our Jewish co-religionists. Relief by taxation is grudgingly given. Our own communion has done a valiant piece of work in caring for her own and a fringe outside her own. The least our church can do is to care for the relief of her own in our own parishes. She cannot do much more because of lack of ability, not lack of the will to do. There is no parish in this diocese that has not done relief work for its own and for others, too, up to the limit of its resources.

I would suggest that every parish and mission in the diocese have a Social Service Committee organized in the way that will best serve the parish and rector, and under whatever name seems wisest. We are not concerned at all with uniformity of name and method, but we are greatly concerned about the plan itself and its usefulness in the Name of Christ.

However, when all this is said and done we have no reason "to point with pride" but rather every reason "to view with alarm." We have helped people to live from hand to mouth for a whole year. An emergency has been met, but they are just where they were a year ago, their morale a little lower, their courage a little weaker, their childrens' health a little more precarious, and their resentment a little fiercer. They have been patient beyond belief, hoping that the leaders and captains of industry and politicians would show the way out. Some have shown extraordinary ingenuity by cooperative self-help, but the cry for relief is more urgent than ever. If there were a danger spot on a highway we would soon cease to bring the ambulance to take away the injured; we would remove the danger and there would be no need of the ambulance. We must therefore "view with alarm" the huge quantity of relief work we are compelled to do for men and women whose self-respect will not tolerate that too long.

The Christianizing of the social order and the missionary work of the Church are intertwined. Without the latter, the former will stand very little chance. Herein lies one great reason for our General Church Program. The other reason is that the General Church Program means obedience to Christ Our Saviour. A church which disobeys its Master can hardly hope for success. The diocese pledged $28,000 to the National Council as its share of the General Church Program budget. It has kept that pledge. Measured by the quota assigned to the diocese, this gift seems small. Measured in terms of the value of the dollar five years ago, it is equal to $56,000. More than that, measured in terms of effort and sacrificial giving, it is more than we have ever done before.

The most stirring event this year was our Whitsunday offering. Every parish and mission in the diocese participated in this without exception, which is itself a record, and there was laid upon our altars in one day $6,300, to which was added an individual gift of $5,000—making $11,300 in all.

The contest is not between the Christian Church and partially-true world religions, but between the Church and the Prince of Darkness who would crush to death every vestige of any religion whatsoever. God forbid that we should be neutral in this matter. The side that makes the most sacrifices is the side that will win. Our missionary program this coming year will undoubtedly call for self-denial and sacrifice, unless we are ready to surrender to the darkness of this world which would liquidate God, the Church and all religion. The Cross is the symbol of sacrifice. The nails in it are not jewels but just nails. The missionary spirit will turn those nails into jewels which will glisten with a wondrous radiance, as we lift up that royal cross that the peoples may see it and be drawn unto Him. We hope the deliberations of this Convention will rise to spiritual heights as never before by planning not how little but how much we can do to bring Jesus the Saviour and God's children closer together.

PART III.

1932 REPORTS OF WORK

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE, DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

The Standing Committee held eleven meetings during the year.

At its first meeting it organized by electing the Rev. George Davidson, D.D., president, and the Rev. Ray O. Miller, secretary.

During the year the Committee has given its approval to the ordination and consecration of the following persons to be bishops: The Very Rev. John Williamson to be Bishop of the Diocese of Arkansas; The Rev. Benjamin Martin Washburn, D.D., to be Bishop-Coadjutor of the Diocese of Newark; The Very Rev. Ralph Ernest Urban to be Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey.

The following persons were recommended to the Bishop to be ordered priests: The Rev. Donald J. Campbell, Deacon; The Rev. Wesley A. Havermale, Deacon; The Rev. Jack Rountree, Deacon; The Rev. Herbert P. Chase, Deacon.

The following persons were recommended to the Bishop to be ordered deacons: Mr. Harold E. Hallett, Mr. Philip Marvin Styles, Mr. Frederick M. Crane, Mr. Walter M. McCracken.

The following persons were recommended to the Bishop to be admitted as candidates for Holy Orders: Mr. Everett Bossard, Mr. Randolph Crump Miller, Mr. Wallace de Ortega-Maxey, Mr. Alexander K. Campbell, Mr. Sidney A. Temple, Mr. Robert Burton Gooden, Jr., Mr. Reginald Heber Gooden.

Approval was given to the proposed deed to a certain strip of land for road purposes by the Vestry of St. Luke's of the Mountains, La Crescenta.

Adverse action was taken upon the request of Dr. Frank Dyer that the Standing Committee recommend him to Bishop Stewart as a candidate for Holy Orders.

A letter of sympathy was ordered sent to Mr. A. W. Morgan. A resolution taking cognizance of the election of Mr. Colin M. Gair to the National Council was spread upon the minutes.

RAY O. MILLER,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

During the first four months of the year the Council was under the capable and appreciated chairmanship of the Suffragan Bishop. At the May meeting the Council welcomed the Bishop of the Diocese to the Chair, with a motion of thanksgiving for his return following his long illness.

The amount to be paid on the General Church Program quota by the Diocese for 1932 was set at $28,000. The sum of $10,700 to pay arrearage on the 1931 General Church Program quota was raised.

The difficult economic situation was constantly before the Executive Council and, in view of possible danger to the financial stability of the Diocese, a special committee was appointed to make a survey with a view to possible retrenchment. A committee composed of members and non-members of the Council, under the chairmanship of the Rev. Ray O. Miller, devoted many months to this survey. Many voluntary salary and appropriation reductions were offered, and data was secured enabling necessary retrenchments to be made by the Executive Council during the year in an effort to balance budgets.

The serious financial condition of St. Philip's Mission, Los Angeles, particularly because of the illness and death of its veteran vicar, the Rev. Walter T. Cleghorn, was brought to the attention of the Executive Council by a committee from the Mission. The Rev. Arthur Reasoner was later appointed Acting Vicar and steady progress has been made on the solution of their problems.

Upon the recommendation of the General Church Program Fund Committee, the Treasurer was authorized to make apportionments on parishes and missions on the basis of $42,000 as a Diocesan quota.

The Council recommends to the Convention that the Diocesan Missionary Assessment for 1933 be set at $38,250.

HAROLD H. KELLEY.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Board of Missions met every month during 1932 with the exception of July and August. Appropriations were made for fifty-five missions served by thirty-nine missionaries and two lay workers, and the student work of the University Religious Conference at the University of California at Los Angeles. One combination of missions under one missionary, where two formerly served, was effected. Appropriations were withdrawn from another field on the retirement of the vicar. An apparent increase of three churches receiving appropriations over last year has resulted from adjustments made when the office of General Missionary became vacant in September.

Almost without exception the spirit of both the clergy and laity has been splendid under trying conditions, and we would express our great appreciation of the great group of parishes and missions that have given the entire amount of their diocesan missionary assessments and so made possible the carrying on of the work with but slight curtailment. The report of the Treasurer will show that all appropriations have been met, but that nothing has been repaid of the four thousand dollars borrowed under authorization of the Convention of 1932. Several missionaries have suffered great strain where their missions have been in arrears in meeting the pledges to their salaries.

At the end of April the Board received instructions from the Executive Council relating to various items of the budget, including a 5 per cent reduction in all appropriations to the salaries of missionaries. The instructions were carried out beginning with May first—this made an average lowering of missionary salaries of from $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 3 per cent.

As Convention was informed in last year's report, the Board halted expansion and began curtailments in the spring of 1931. Since that time expenditures have been reduced progressively, until at the end of 1932 they were at the rate of $7250.00 less than two years ago, and $5250.00 less than at the close of 1931. These rates of decrease represent 13 per cent this year, and 18 per cent over the two-year period.

The necessity of immediate further reduction in appropriations is evident, to the extent of 15 per cent; this would make average salary cuts of 10 per cent below those of 1930. This, however, would not bring salaries below the purchasing power of the stipends at the time the standard was raised in the Diocese. And salaries of rectors of parishes have been reduced by percentages equalling this; and in many cases the reductions have been much greater.

PHILIP A. EASLEY,
Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The work of the Board was assigned to four commissions with the Summer School Committee and the Rally Day Committee as elected in October, 1931. The four commissions were as follows: The Church School Commission, The Young Peoples' Organizations Commission, The College Work Commission, The Adult Education Commission.

The meetings of the Sunday School Institute held on Christian Education Day in Convention week were attended by a larger number than for several years.

The Annual Church School Rally for the Diocese was held on Sunday, May 1st, at 3 p.m., at St. Paul's Cathedral. About 1600 were present. The offering amounted to $7795.34.

The Rally Day for the schools in the San Diego Convocation was held Sunday, April 24th.

The Summer School was again held at Harvard School through June 26th to July 1st. There were 98 present full time, 74 part time, 36 clergy; a total of 208.

The Rev. Herbert V. Harris and his associates are still carrying on the work at the Junior College on Vermont Avenue and at the U.C.L.A. at Westwood. Rev. John C. Bryant is in direct charge of the work at Westwood and through the Stevens Club there, is doing a very constructive work.

We would again call to the attention of the clergy the Library of Plays and Pageants for presentation by the children of the Church Schools, which the Board has collected.

A special committee was appointed to gather information in regard to methods of getting the children back in the schools in the fall. This committee is now working on this and will send out a report of their findings when completed.

The Church School League under the direction of Deaconess Reardon has done some constructive work this year.

GEORGE G. ENTZ, Secretary.

Treasurer's Report: Balance on hand January 1, 1932, $440.93; Receipts, $150.80; Disbursements, $188.34; Balance on hand December 31, 1932, $403.39.

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

Your Commission has continued its happy relationship with the social and philanthropic organizations of the Diocese through visitation and the holding of joint meetings of representatives of these institutions and organizations with the Commission.

Through the personnel of the Commission there has been maintained an active contact with various agencies and associations of social workers, national, state, and county. A particularly helpful expression of this relationship during the year was the Social Service Course presented at the Diocesan Summer School when recognized authorities on various phases of community and social welfare, representative of agencies actually at work in the metropolitan area of Los Angeles, presented the principles as well as the practice in their respective fields of service.

Under the leadership of your Commission with the effective cooperation of the Rev. H. C. Smith, rector of All Saints', Riverside, the Episcopal Social Workers of the state held their annual meeting as an affiliated group with the California Conference of Social Work at Riverside in May.

The Commission, through a committee, has undertaken a study of the county jails within the bounds of the Diocese. From the survey so far it is apparent that there has been a great improvement in the buildings and physical equipment of our county jails.

There is abundant evidence that in many parishes much is already being done in a very fine way along the lines of practical social service. Particularly in this period of unemployment and consequent distress there has been a very general assumption of responsibility on the part of the Church for the rendering of assistance in every way possible to our own people who may be hard pressed, as well as cooperating in every helpful way with existing agencies in our several communities.

Splendid as are these evidences of the spirit of sharing in this emergency, it must be recognized that they are merely relieving the symptoms and do not begin to strike at the root of the disease. Existing conditions are the result of an unchristian social order, a social and economic system which emphasizes false values, making money of more value than men and assuming that human relationships are designed as a means of personal gain rather than, as Christ taught, for mutual service.

In conclusion your Commission desires to express its deep appreciation of the wise counsel and strong leadership of our Suffragan Bishop in all our undertakings.

G. R. E. MACDONALD, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM COMMITTEE

The General Church Program Committee reports a year of noteworthy success in the response of this Diocese in meeting in full the amount ($28,000.00) which we told the National Council in January of last year we expected to give for the general work of the Church in 1932. Every parish and mission contributed something; 26 overpaid their quota; 32 exactly paid their pledge. Nine made no pledge, but paid their quota; 25 paid from 50 to 99 per cent of their pledge. Only 4 Church Schools made no remittance. Thirteen congregations made no remittance.

The Committee held eight regular and two special meetings last year. Our secretary, Rev. William Ellwood Craig, attended the national meeting of diocesan executive secretaries of the General Church Program, held last February in Chicago. We sponsored the meeting held last March for the southern part of the Province of the Pacific led by Rev. Charles H. Collett, with Bishop Sanford presiding. We planned for the Whitsunday emergency offering and prepared and sent out 20,000 special envelopes.

To help with the Every Member Canvass last autumn we prepared and distributed a leaflet "What Is the National Council?" We arranged for the missionary edition of the Los Angeles Churchman and distributed 1,000 copies gratis. We sponsored meetings in three of the Convocations with Bishop Mitchell as special speaker. We distributed more printed matter, on request of the parishes and missions, this past year than for any of the previous three years.

To encourage monthly remittances from parish and mission treasurers, for the General Church Program and for Diocesan funds—a habit which we consider is of the utmost value and benefit to cultivate—we prepared a new form of monthly notice, which was approved by the Executive Council.

For 1933 the outlook is propitious. We discussed the full quota of $60,400 to be assigned to this Diocese on the basis of the vote of the last General Convention, and we recommended to our Executive Council that in view of the reduced budget of the National Council we prepare our schedule on the basis of $42,000. On this basis 48 parishes and missions have pledged the full amount assigned them. Five have pledged more than their assigned quota; 15 have made no pledge; 15 others have made no reply; 41 have made some pledge. Your General Church Program Committee is grateful to Our Lord for the devotion which this Diocese shows to His work in these difficult times, and we pray that the same Lord will sustain us and empower us this year in all we can do for Him.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRY BEAL,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The Registrar begs leave to report as follows: Confirmation lists received show that 1261 persons were confirmed during the year, an increase of 222 over 1931.

Lay Readers' Licenses were renewed for 64 men, and 5 new Licenses were issued, a decrease of 8. Twenty men have not sent their Licenses for renewal.

Diocesan Journals were received and filed in the Registrar's Office.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The first meeting for organization, held January 28th, continued the same organization as in the previous year.

The second meeting of the Board was held at St. Paul's Cathedral House, February 29, 1932, at 9:30 a.m. Minutes of November 30, 1931, were read and approved. Dean Beal reported that Rev. C. R. Barnes would give Deacon's examinations to Philip Styles at the General Seminary, New York City. Examination for Deacon's orders of Jack Robert Rountree (Class VI of Disciples Church) was held and completed.

March 1, 1932, Mr. Philip Styles completed examinations for Deacon's orders.

The third meeting was held at St. James' Church, South Pasadena, to discuss Candidate's examinations of Alexander Campbell. Examination to be held in August. The fourth meeting was held at St. Paul's Cathedral, June 22. The Board recommended Everett Bertram Bossard to be a candidate for Holy Orders, and that he be dispensed from the candidate's requirements of Latin and Greek. Board set time of Deacon's examinations of Fred M. Crane to be August, when Mr. Donald Campbell will try his Priest's examinations. The Board allowed Mr. John Lemuel Franklin Bouvee to take examinations for candidacy for Holy Orders in Bible, History, English and Psychology, the Board sending examination papers to the dean of the DuBois School for him to conduct the examinations.

August 5th: Mail communication from members of Board shows Rev. Donald J. Campbell to have completed all priest's examinations. Same mail report showed that Wallace de Ortega Maxey presented evidence of scholastic work to admit him as Candidate for Holy Orders. The Board recommended his dispensation from study of the Greek language. Fred M. Crane, Candidate, passed Deacon's examinations in Scripture, Doctrine, Liturgics, Constitution and Canons and Ministration, but incomplete in American Church History and Christian Missions.

August 25th: Received by mail examination papers of J. L. F. Bouvee for Candidacy. Tentative marks given awaiting decision of other chaplains.

September 7th: The fifth meeting of the Board was held at St. Paul's Cathedral House on Wednesday, September 7. The Board recommended Robert Burton Gooden, Jr., and Sidney Absalom Temple, Jr., as candidates for Holy Orders. Board recommended Alexander Kenneth Campbell to become a candidate for Holy Orders. The Board sent communication to Standing Committee asking that General Canon 2, Sec. V, Art. 1, be complied with. The Board decided that Mr. Fred M. Crane must take a new examination in American Church History and take again the examination in Christian Missions before advancement to Priest's orders. The final marks of Mr. Bouvee's papers were complete in Psychology and History, but incomplete in English Literature and English Bible. The Board authorized its chairman to offer $10 for 20 volumes from the library of the late Rev. John E. H. Wood. Motion passed that electives of archaeology, philosophy and French be accepted in lieu of requirements in Greek in the case of Rev. Mr. Wesley A. Havermale. Mr. Havermale completed his examinations for priest's orders.

November 6: Papers (by mail) of Rev. Philip Styles for Priest's examination were complete in Doctrine, Ethics, Liturgics, Polity, Ministration, Psychotherapy and Advertising.

December 15: (By mail.) Rev. Mr. Styles' special History paper for Priest's orders complete.

January 2, 1933: The Chaplain's Fund at the Bank of America shows a balance of $103.99, after withdrawing $5.00 mailing expenses. The expenses cover a three years' period. No more funds will be required by the Board at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

WALLACE PIERSON,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER

I have tried, with the assistance of Miss Lynn, to keep record during the past year of the events in the Diocese which we esteem of historic interest and value. But I am not satisfied with what we have been able to accomplish.

I am again constrained to emphasize the need and importance, indeed the necessity, of help from the clergy and laity of the Diocese.

Each report of mine has asked for this cooperation. I earnestly request that the office of Historiographer be taken more seriously. For instance, reports of parochial and other anniversaries might be sent to him and, if convenient, the courtesy of an invitation to attend such celebration might be extended to him. It is possible that he might contribute something of value from the archives of the Diocese, and even in an address stress the historic value of such occasions and their relation to the Diocese. Of course, the Historiographer will welcome all data which will enable him the better to fulfil his task.

In conclusion I wish to express my appreciation of this office and thank the Diocese for the privilege of serving it in this capacity.

GEORGE E. SWAN,
Historiographer.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PENSION FUND

The Committee collected and sent to New York during the year 1932, assessments amounting to $19,088.66.

The pensions in force as of January 23, 1933, total $23,500, which is divided among 16 clergymen, 18 widows and 9 orphans. The pensions from the General Clergy Relief Fund, General Convention of 1907 Account, and Los Angeles Diocesan Fund, total $4470.00, which is divided among 6 clergymen and 5 widows.

There are two parishes in this Diocese that have not paid anything into the pension fund during the year 1932, and unless some payment is made immediately it will affect the $1000 grant to the widow of any clergyman dying in service.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP JOHNSON MEMORIAL CHAPEL COMMITTEE

We are glad to report that the mortgage has been reduced to $3,700. The interest on the mortgage this year has been cared for by an interested friend; the flagstone in the court has been the gift of another friend, and the landscaping (except for the actual cost of plants and shrubs) the gift of two friends. It only remains now for us to collect the outstanding pledges due in 1933, 1934 and 1935, which are sufficient to cover the indebtedness.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

In spite of the difficulties of 1932 it has been an excellent year for the Woman's Auxiliary. While the financial returns were not quite as large as in former years we have grown in numbers, in interest and devotion. All our departments have functioned and several have shown marked growth. We now have 109 branches.

Our Social Service Department has done outstanding work in relief and character building. $1,410.15 was contributed by the branches towards the salary of the Field Worker; clothing given valued at $4,852.15; cash for relief, $344.00; contributions to diocesan institutions, $1,552.45 — a total of $8,158.75. Besides this, employment was found for thirty-seven individuals, and thirty families were helped at Thanksgiving and ninety-seven at Christmas.

The Supply Department sent supplies to seven mission stations—three in the Orient and four in this country—valued at $7,885.72. In Advent, two personal boxes were sent outside the diocese, and Christmas checks to twenty-six of our own diocesan missionaries—total, $1,363.59. Total for Supply Work, $9,249.31. The Altar Department has helped eighteen missions in the diocese and disbursed $835.78.

The Educational Department has done a fine piece of constructive work along many lines and reports over one thousand women enrolled in study classes and marked growth in the devotional life. The Church Periodical Club sent out 330 current periodicals to home and foreign addresses, besides hundreds of books, Christmas cards and odd magazines to libraries, schools and charitable institutions. Both the League for the Isolated and the Committee on Braille have done excellent work.

Monthly diocesan meetings have been held the second Tuesdays of the month in the Cathedral House. Five district meetings were held within the Los Angeles Convocation and equally successful ones in the other Convocations. During the Summer School a conference was held and two daily study classes, led by Miss Margaret Marston, National Educational Secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary. Our Educational Department had charge of the Book Table and sold $218 worth of books. A Quiet Day was held in Advent conducted by Dean Lane. Two missionaries have visited the diocese and spoken in all four Convocations—Miss Marguerite Bartberger of Alaska, and our own Deaconess Julia Clark of China.

Our aim for the year is to be of the greatest possible assistance to the Diocese and the National Church at this critical time. I bespeak for my successor the same cooperation and loyal support from the clergy that they have so graciously given me.

Respectfully submitted,

REBEKAH L. HIBBARD,
Diocesan President.

REPORT OF EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY

The Episcopal City Mission has had an abundance of sorrow and grief which came to its staff this past year. Especially does everyone feel very keenly the sudden loss of its superintendent in the death of Father Ruggles. He had built up a wonderful organization and placed a stamp of high quality on the work.

Along with these losses came a rather heavy cut in the finances from the Community Chest, but with it all the work is going on and being held up practically to its normal standard. The assistant chaplain, being left alone on the staff, was fortunate to have three priests offer their services occasionally, which helped out beyond measure. Besides the chaplain, we have at present one priest giving about ten days a month to visiting in the institutions, and another taking two services a month. The lay workers also have been very faithful, even interesting several new people who have been visiting the County Farm. Several have also offered the use of their cars, which has made possible the transportation of the workers.

The offerings have been about the same as usual, including an extra fifty dollars a month for the general work. They are not nearly adequate, however, to meet the needs of the heavy and increasing work.

Scattered throughout the County the Society is now ministering to the Rancho Los Amigos (County Farm) with 3000 patients; the Los Angeles General Hospital with about 1900 patients; Olive View Sanatorium with nearly 1000 patients; Sunland Sanatorium with about 60; Pauling's with 45; Fairview Sanatorium with 30; Wildwood Sanatorium at Newhall with 140; two camps at Lancaster; Baldwin Park, and other hospitals as we are called, to say nothing of the many individual cases the Chaplain is called upon to visit.

The Christmas work was far better than we had expected because of the very generous offerings of material help and comforts which were sent in by so many interested people and organizations.

The official acts and public and private services (private Communion being administered between six and seven a.m.) were as follows: public Communion services, 297; attendance, 6960; Communion, 2474. Other services, 38; attendance 1623. Private Communion, 1293. Baptisms, 21. Confirmations, 36. Marriages, 1. Burials, 19.

Superintendent's Special Account: Receipts, $5,659.80; Disbursements, $5,214.65. Total balance on hand, December 31, 1932, $445.15.

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

As a means of extending the services of the hospital to patients of moderate means, we have been making a very interesting experiment this year. A number of our bed endowments in which the hospital undertakes to render service to the extent of 6 per cent annually, are subject to no restrictions as to how the benefits of the endowment are to be applied. Instead of caring for only three or four persons annually on an endowed bed, the plan is to distribute the benefit by making a small reduction in rates to a large number of persons. For example, an endowment of $5,000.00 providing for $300.00 in service in one year, makes possible a reduction of $1.00 per day in the room rate for 300 days, or of $1.50 per day for 200 days. In addition to making this reduction in hospital charges, the doctor, the anesthetist, the laboratory, and the X-ray departments are asked to give a reduced rate, and all the charges are united into one item estimated for a definite number of days in any given case. If desired by the doctor the whole amount is collected by the Hospital; if preferred, the doctor may collect from the patient, but in that case the amount of the bill is understood by the Hospital and taken into account in fixing the rate. The plan is known as the Inclusive Plan. Practically all the cases so far under this plan have been referred by doctors of the Staff. Where a financial investigation has been made by the doctor's office, this is accepted largely as the basis of our rate fixing. All other cases are interviewed usually by the Secretary, and in all cases careful records are kept.

Fifty-two Inclusive Plan patients were admitted since March when the plan was first tried. The advantages of this plan are that patients receive care at a rate within their reach and yet feel that they are paying their way; doctors receive something for their services; and the hospital derives a small revenue to apply on the meeting of its fixed charges.

From the experience of these nine months we are convinced that this plan has permanent value and we would bring it to the attention of the clergy in charge of congregations who are confronted so often with the problem of finding medical care for persons unable to meet the usual hospital and medical fees.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH HOME FOR CHILDREN

The Church Home for Children is a Diocesan institution, under the direct supervision of the Bishop of the Diocese.

Unemployment and reduced incomes has made it impossible for parents and friends to pay as much as heretofore, and we keep the children. No child who has been in the Home has been turned away for lack of money.

In order to make our work more widely known our superintendent, Mrs. Euphrat, who is specially fitted for the work she is doing, is visiting branches of the Woman's Auxiliary and is meeting with cooperation.

Because of the lack of funds to provide food, clothing and meet other expenses for new children, we have been obliged to close some of the buildings.

The health of the children has been excellent. We try to keep the diet at a high standard.

School reports are gratifying. Because of special tutoring during the summer, the children are all in good standing.

GEORGE DAVIDSON,
President of the Board of Directors.

Statement of Treasurer: Receipts, $14,585.88. Disbursements—Maintenance, $13,270.90; general and administrative, $3,152.18; capital charges, $2,259.18; total disbursements, $18,682.26. Excess of disbursements over receipts, $4,096.38.

REPORT OF THE HOME FOR THE AGED

The Home for the Aged has been in operation for the past ten years. During that time it has cared for forty-four persons, nineteen of whom have passed to Life Eternal, and four have been transferred for various reasons.

The average yearly cost, for operating, which includes all taxes, assessments, interest on mortgage, all living expenses, salaries of employees, hospital expenses and burial for nineteen persons, has been $11,414.79 with this year just closed a little below the average. The taxes, assessments and interest alone over the ten year period amounted to $18,814.27.

During this time we have also paid off a mortgage of $28,600.00; albeit the management is still paying interest on some trust funds invested in this way in our own paper, these funds will be released and the interest diminished from time to time as other moneys are available. A total depreciation charge against the buildings has been made of $7,477.10, of which amount $1,246.18 or 2 per cent of the original cost of the buildings, is for this year.

During the year 1932 the Home has cared for twenty-eight persons. We have lost five by death—Mrs. Jett, Miss Thompson, Miss Rodman, Mr. Hodges and Miss Ure.

The Board of Directors of eleven, with one vacancy, have held seven regular and one special meeting during the year with an average attendance of eight; the Board of Managers of twenty-one have met every month with an average of fourteen. Our income for maintenance for the year was $11,715.10, which includes $5,112.05 interest from invested funds. Our operating expense was $9,643.85, which with interest (on trust funds invested in mortgage as explained above) of $572.81, plus taxes for the year of $945.84, makes a grand total of $11,162.50, leaving a balance on hand of $595.97.

A transfer of trust funds brought about by the death of the above-mentioned five members of the Family, together with a bequest from the Sessions Estate, increased our endowment by $24,655.11 for the year, making a total in our endowment of $104,179.05 as compared with $79,013.94 last year.

Taxes have been reduced from $1861.95 last year to $945.84 this year by the Supervisors reducing the assessed valuation of the property. They are still twice as much as formerly.

We are glad to report no debts, and all bills paid, including $4\frac{1}{4}$ per cent on trust funds paid to the Family, with the above balance of \$595.97 for a nest-egg for 1933.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHEL R. HOLT,
President, Board Managers.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

A report such as this, made in the middle of the school year, must include an account of the completion of our past year's work, as well as the accomplishments of the new year up to the present time.

The registration in 1931-32 was practically normal and it was possible to carry on without discontinuing or diminishing in any way the opportunities offered to our pupils.

At the twenty-third annual commencement in June, 1932, a graduating class of twenty-five (an unfortunately large number) went out, increasing the alumnae to more than 300.

The new year opened in September with a registration of 85 students—day pupils for the first time in years outnumbering the boarders. While a smaller enrollment brings with it financial anxiety and precludes the possibility of material additions or improvements for the time being, the school is conscious of a great gain in spiritual values.

The scholastic standing of the school, always high, is being maintained by an unusually earnest student body. Every member of the present senior class of twenty hopes to go on to college, at least one-fourth of them are registered in eastern institutions.

CAROLINE S. CUMMINS, Headmistress.

REPORT OF THE HARVARD SCHOOL

Harvard School continues into its thirty-third year in buildings atmosphered and hallowed by the activities and memories of several thousand students.

The drop in attendance from last year was only 30, and since Christmas 11 new students have registered, giving us now 151, proving that thoughtful parents, whatever economies are forced upon them, are determined to give their boys the very best in education.

As an independent school, Harvard has always stood ready to apply new and efficient principles and methods in education; courageous enough to discard plans found faulty. The newest and in some ways the most promising venture has been the lengthening of class periods, also of the school day, each teacher using the first 40 minutes of each hour for recitation and the remaining 20 minutes for the supervision of study, actually teaching boys how to efficiently study.

The scholarship record of Harvard School, established so firmly by my predecessor, Dr. Gooden, and his co-workers, continues high. The Christian influence is sane and sincere, with genuine respect for the religious attachments of the students.

HAROLD H. KELLEY, Headmaster.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD SETTLEMENT

One of the outstanding considerations among social workers during the present crisis in the economic life of the country is the question as to whether all other values should be subordinated to providing food and clothing through the channel of social agencies, whether public or private. It is interesting that in Los Angeles city the response to the Community Chest has been more fully in support of existing agencies and the variety of types of work which they do, rather than the straight emergency relief budget.

This particular problem challenges the Settlement more acutely than most other agencies because it is established in the most needy communities for the very definite purpose of contributing, not to relief, but to the fulfillment of life. The Neighborhood Settlement has been able to do very little in the way of emergency relief; that is to say, in giving food and clothing.

At every turn we are faced with an increase in numbers; where we started with twenty little girls in a particular group, we found ourselves soon surrounded with thirty-five. A fine group of mothers, numbering about fifty, has developed, meeting regularly an afternoon each week. The program of girls' activities has been greatly developed and strengthened through the leadership of a resident girls' work director.

We have been particularly fortunate during the past and current year in those who have come to help us, as volunteers, so far as our own budget is concerned.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S GUILD

The Guild membership has grown during the past year, in spite of "old man depression"! We now have 530 on the membership list.

Of course it has not been an easy year for the Bishop's Guild. Financially it was not possible from these 500 memberships of $1.00 a year, nor from the sale of second-hand articles to make $100 a month above expenses for the Bishop's fund. What to do about it, was the question. The answer was the undertaking of three major affairs. A lawn fete was given last June on the grounds of Bishop Steven's home. It was a huge undertaking and its perfection of detail was only achieved by devoted work on the part of about 100 persons. It was estimated that somewhere between 1200 and 1500 came on that beautiful afternoon and evening to enjoy the variety of things offered. The proceeds from the lawn fete after all expenses were paid amounted to $742.75.

The other large affairs were the two evenings at the Pasadena Community Playhouse when the Guild purchased the house for resale—the first being in March, the second in December. It required a concentrated effort of salesmanship to "sell" these two houses, but the results both times were profitable, and the house, seating over 800, was almost entirely filled with church people.

With the above mentioned activities the Guild was enabled to give the Bishop the promised yearly $1,200.00.

During the summer the truck owned by the Guild was sold to save a large repair bill and to save the cost of insurance. A young churchman, Mr. Bowen, is making collections in his own car, receiving a small salary and enough to cover gas, oil.

Several rummage sales have been held at different locations. At present the Guild is operating the Episcopal Clothing Bureau and Thrift Shop at 2160 E. 9th St., Los Angeles, and a Bishop's Guild Thrift Shop on Whittier Blvd., in Belvedere Gardens.

At the annual meeting held on January 16, Bishop Stevens appointed Mrs. William Carey Marble as chairman. Mrs. Marble served with efficiency as head of the Church Service League of St. James', South Pasadena, before moving to Los Angeles to live. Also at this time Mrs. Robert E. Pond resigned as vice-chairman, and the Bishop appointed Mrs. Lawrence to take her place.

Bishop Steven's Discretionary Fund report: Receipts, $1264.03. Disbursements, $1006.98. Cash on hand, Dec. 31, 1932, $257.05.

EDITH M. LAWRENCE, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY, 1932

Number of active branches, 22. Number of branches that have disbanded (these were all inactive last year), 6. Number of new branches, (St. Luke's, Monrovia; Trinity Church, Redlands; St. Thomas' Church, Hollywood), 3.

Total receipts of the corporation, $4547.04; total disbursements, $4310.54. Balance on hand Jan. 1, 1933, $236.50.

The Lenten Box work was done in cooperation with the Women's Auxiliary. A value of $314.50 was placed on the articles made by the branches of the Girls' Friendly Society.

The Johnson Conference was held in July at the Bishop's School in La Jolla. Twenty-nine young girls attended.

Heathcote Hall, the Girls' Friendly Society Lodge, has suffered financial reverses, but has been kept open and has offered homes to young women at reasonable rates.

The Diocese of Los Angeles is to have the great honor of being host to the National Girls' Friendly Society Council, which will hold its meetings on the campus of Occidental College in Los Angeles, July 3rd to 10th, 1933.

On September 1, 1932, it was thought advisable for all of the diocesan officers of the Society to resign to the Bishop in order that those who were most familiar with the Girl's Friendly Society work might serve on committees to plan the National Council. A new corps of officers was appointed by the Bishop.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE CORPORATION OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

H. IVOR THOMAS,
Treasurer.

MERTON A. ALBEE,
Secretary

Los Angeles, January 14, 1933.

I have examined the books and records of the Treasurer of the Corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the period from January 9, 1932, to January 14, 1933, from which the foregoing statements were correctly prepared. All of the recorded receipts were traced into the bank account and the expenditures were satisfactorily vouched. The bonds and other securities were produced for inspection.

WILFRED N. HOWARD,

H. IVOR THOMAS, Treasurer.

Los Angeles, January 14, 1933.

I have examined the books and records of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the period from January 9, 1932, to January 14, 1933, from which the foregoing statements were correctly prepared. All of the recorded receipts were traced into the bank account and the expenditures were satisfactorily vouched.

WILFRED N. HOWARD.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

To the Thirty-eighth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles:

The accounts, for the year past, of the Treasurers of the several funds of the Diocese have been audited, under its direction, by Mr. Wilfred N. Howard, public accountant.

Attached hereto and forming part of this report, is the report of the Accountant, dated January 31, 1933.

The Accountant's report comprises his statement addressed to the Auditing Committee, to which is attached his Exhibits I and II, respectively covering the receipts and disbursements of the Treasurer of the General Church Program, Mr. W. F. Knight, and the Treasurer of the Church Pension Fund, Mr. Colin M. Gair, and also certified copies of the Financial Reports of the Treasurer of the Diocese and of the Corporation of the Diocese, prepared by the Treasurer, Mr. H. Ivor Thomas, which will appear in their accustomed places in the Journal of the Convention.

Your Committee, with the Accountant, examined the bonds, and other investment securities of the Diocese, and found them as listed in the report of the Corporation of the Diocese. With the exception of certain bonds deposited with the bank to secure a loan of $5,000.00 to the Corporation of the Diocese these securities were kept in the safe deposit vaults of the Security-First National Bank, 707 South Spring Street, Los Angeles.

Your Committee regrets to note that a considerable number of the Diocesan investments are non-productive of income at the present time, as indicated in the above mentioned report.

The bonds of the Treasurer of the Diocese, Mr. H. Ivor Thomas, have been kept in force.

HENRY E. BRETT, Chairman

ROBERT H. LINDSAY

R. McCLELLAND BRADY

Los Angeles, January 31, 1933.

The Auditing Committee, Diocese of Los Angeles, Los Angeles, California.

I have made an examination of the books and accounts of the Diocese of Los Angeles, maintained by the Treasurers of the General Church Program and of the Church Pension Fund, for the periods indicated:

	Treasurer	Period
General Church Program	W. F. Knight	January 20, 1932 to January 23, 1933
Church Pension Fund	Colin M. Gair	January 17, 1932 to January 20, 1933 and have prepared therefrom statements of cash receipts and disbursements, Exhibit I and II respectively.

All cash recorded as received was traced into the banks. Cancelled checks and vouchers were examined in support of the disbursements and were found to be in order.

The books and accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese and the Corporation were examined and reported upon separately.

Yours very truly,

WILFRED N. HOWARD.

WALTER THOMAS CLEGHORN*Priest*

Walter Thomas Cleghorn, Vicar of St. Philip's (colored) Mission, Los Angeles, died May 24th, after several months' illness, in the Good Samaritan Hospital. He was born in St. Kitt's, British West Indies, in 1879; educated at Lady Micou and Oskaloosa Colleges. After several years teaching in the West Indies, he came to Arkansas and was ordained in 1908. He came to the Diocese of Los Angeles in 1910, and took charge of the newly organized colored work among his own people. From very small beginnings, he labored faithfully for 22 years, and not long before his death was able to see completed the present beautiful church building of St. Philip's.

CHARLES EPHRIAM DEUEL*Priest and Doctor*

Charles Ephriam Deuel, rector of Trinity Church, Santa Barbara, died suddenly on July 18th, after having taken the regular services in his parish the previous day. Born in Wisconsin April 11, 1864, he graduated from Trinity College, Hartford, and attended the General Theological Seminary, also Oxford University. He received degrees of M.A. from Trinity and D.D. from the University of Idaho. He was ordained deacon in 1890 by Bishop H. C. Potter, and priest in 1891 by Bishop Talbot. Serving the Church first in the missionary district of Wyoming, he was for ten years Dean of St. Michael's Cathedral, Boise, Idaho, then rector of the Church of the Atonement in Chicago. In 1914 he came to the Diocese as rector of Trinity Church, Santa Barbara, where he labored faithfully until his death. He built the new church and parish house, and then was forced to reconstruct after the terrible earthquake. Conscientious as a parish priest, he also was missionary-minded, and worked for the welfare of the Church as a whole.

JAMES INNES HAYES CAMERON*Priest*

James Innes Hayes Cameron, a retired priest of the Diocese, died at his home in La Jolla, January 7, 1933. Coming to the Diocese in 1904, after working in the Diocese of Connecticut, he went into quiet retirement owing to poor health. Known to but few in the Diocese, and never having held an active charge here, his record is not known as well as many; but his devout life and faithful services in earlier work stand as a record of his service in his Master's Kingdom.

CARLTON MERRIT HITCHCOCK*Priest*

Carleton Merrit Hitchcock, a retired priest of the Diocese, died at his home in Ontario, July 30th. He was born in Ionia, Michigan, in 1865; received his theological education at the Western Theological Seminary. He was ordained both deacon and priest by the late Bishop Grafton in 1898. After working in the diocese of Fond du Lac, he came west, and had charges in the dioceses of Olympia and Sacramento. In 1915 he came to the Diocese of Los Angeles, but being in frail health never had an active charge. He was frequently an assistant at Christ Church, Ontario, where he was making his home at the time of his death. Devoted to the Anglo-Catholic cause, he was an efficient and faithful laborer for the cause he loved so well.

VERNON DOUGLAS RUGGLES*Priest*

Vernon Douglas Ruggles, chaplain and superintendent of the Episcopal City Mission Society, was killed in an automobile accident, Thanksgiving night, November 24th. Born in Kentville, Nova Scotia, August 8, 1879, he graduated from Dalhousie College in 1901, and took his Master's degree from Columbia University in 1903. He attended the General Theological Seminary, graduating with the degree of B.D. in 1905. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Greer in 1904 and priest by Archbishop Worrell of Nova Scotia in 1905. He was in work in many churches in the vicinity of New York City before coming to Los Angeles in 1918. When he took over the City Mission work at that time, it was small in scope and poorly organized. By the time of his death he had one of the best organized and most efficient works of its kind in the Church. Loved not only by people in the Church, but throughout the county institutions, he is mourned by hosts of friends of all classes and conditions.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTIONS AND CANONS ADOPTED AT CONVENTION, 1933

Article VIII, Section 25, of the Constitutions, first proposed at the Convention of 1932, was finally adopted as follows, which shall be the new Section 25:

"The Bishop of this Diocese is ex officio President of the Convention. In the absence of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, shall preside. In case the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, shall be absent, or incapable of acting, Convention shall elect the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or a Presbyter of Convention, present at that Convention, to act as President pro tempore of that Convention."

Article IX, Section 28, of the Constitutions, was amended subject to ratification by the Convention of 1934 to read: "The Secretary shall appoint one or more Assistant Secretaries from among the members of the Convention."

Canon XVII was revised and rewritten as follows:

CANON XVII.

The Executive Council

119. This Council shall consist of the Bishops and seventeen other members. The Bishop, (the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop, if there be such), the Deans of the Convocations, the Treasurer of the Diocese, the Treasurer of the General Church Program, the Secretary of the Department of Missions, shall be members of this Council, ex officio. The remaining ten members shall be elected by ballot at each annual Convention, five clergymen, and five laymen.

The Bishop shall be the chairman, ex officio, (or in his absence the Bishop Coadjutor, or in the Coadjutor's absence the Suffragan Bishop).

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Council.

The Bishop shall have power to fill vacancies on the Council.

120. There shall be six departments of the Executive Council as follows: Finance, General Church Program, Diocesan Missions, City Missions, Christian Education and Social Service.

The membership of these Departments shall be constituted and determined by the Canons of this Diocese. Such membership need not be limited to the membership of this Council.

The Department of the General Church Program shall be elected by this Council and shall consist of not less than five members. The Treasurer of the General Church Program shall be appointed by the Bishop.

The Department of Finance shall be the Finance Committee of this Diocese, as at present canonically constituted, and shall consist of five members.

All budgets for the work of these Departments shall be submitted to the Executive Council for its approval. No assessment shall be laid upon the Parishes and Missions except as provided elsewhere by Canon.

121. As now.

122. The Executive Council is hereby authorized to undertake and supervise all ways and means to obtain funds for the maintenance of the missionary work of the Diocese and also of the Church outside the Diocese, and it is hereby declared to be the duty of this Council to devise means to awaken interest in the missionary work of the Diocese and the General Church, and to determine any quotas to be laid upon the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese for missionary purposes and to furnish a budget of such quotas; provided, that all assessments, included in such quotas as provided by Canon, shall be approved by the annual Convention before becoming operative.

It shall also be the duty of the Executive Council to appropriate to the several objects in the annual budget such funds as shall be received by the Treasurer of the Council.

In event of decreased receipts from the Parishes and Missions, this Council may reduce the appropriations for the missionary work, and the Departments of this Council, and other objects, accept such offers of voluntary reductions in other items of Diocesan expenditures as shall be made to it, and recommend to the Corporation of the Diocese such loans as shall be necessary, in order to balance the budget.

123. As now, changing the words "Board of Missions" in the fourth line to "Department of Missions" in order to conform to the new terminology.

Canon XVIII was revised and rewritten as follows:

CANON XVIII.

The Department of Diocesan Missions

127. At the first meeting of the Executive Council after each Annual Convention the Council shall elect four clergymen and four laymen who, with the Bishops, the Deans of Convocation, and one layman chosen from each Convocation, shall constitute the Department of Diocesan Missions, of which the Bishop shall be, ex officio, chairman.

A quorum of the Department shall consist of three Clergymen and three Laymen. The Executive Council shall have power to fill vacancies occurring in this Department.

128. The Department of Diocesan Missions shall meet as soon as possible after its election and elect a Secretary. The Treasurer of the Diocese shall be the Treasurer of this Department. Meetings shall be held monthly before the meeting of the Executive Council, and upon the call of the Bishop, or any three members.

129. It shall be the duty of the Department of Diocesan Missions to determine the stipends of the Missionaries appointed by the Bishop, so far as the income of the Department permits.

The Department shall make no permanent alterations in the appropriation to any mission station until the proposed change has been submitted to the Dean of the Convocation in which the work or mission station is located, and a report received from the Dean of the Convocation, which report shall receive due consideration by the Department in determining its action. Such action shall not be final unless approved by the Executive Council.

The Department may also appropriate funds for lands or buildings needed for missionary development.

130. Same, (except that Board of Missions was changed to Department of Diocesan Missions).

131. Change Board as above.

134. Paragraph 5. The first three lines of the second paragraph shall be omitted, and the words, "It shall meet upon the call of the Rural Dean" kept as the last sentence of paragraph one.

CANON XIX.

133. In the second paragraph, in lines three and six, the phrase "Board of Missions" was changed to read "Department of Diocesan Missions."

134. In second paragraph, in the last line, the phrase "Board of Missions" was changed to read "Department of Diocesan Missions."

CANON XXII.

The Department of Christian Education

141. ff. The phrase "Diocesan Board" was changed to "Department" wherever it occurs.

CANON XXIII.

145. In the third line the word "four" was changed to read "eight." The following lines were changed to read, "two to serve one year, two to serve two years, two to serve three years, two to serve four years."

CANON XXX.

The Social Service Department

156. ff. The word "Commission" was changed to "Department" throughout the Canon.

LIST OF THE CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

In accordance with the provisions of Canon III, Section 9, of the Canons of the Diocese, I hereby certify that the following is a list of all the clergymen of the church canonically resident in this Diocese, and I do further certify that all included in said list are entitled to seats and votes in the Thirty-ninth Annual Convention, save the names marked with a (†), the clergymen so indicated not having been "actually and canonically resident within the Diocese" for the space of six calendar months next before the meeting of the Convention, as provided in the Constitution, Article VI, Section 20, or having been "exclusively engaged in secular work".

The clergymen, whose names are so indicated, are entitled to seats, but not to speak or vote in Convention.

THE CONVENTION

PROCEEDINGS OF CONVENTION

First Day, January 31, 1934

The thirty-ninth annual convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles, at 9:30 A.M. on the above date, the Bishop of the Diocese being the celebrant.

At the close of the service, Convention was called to order by the Bishop, who, upon being informed a quorum was present, declared Convention ready for business. The Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., was re-elected secretary. He appointed as assistant secretaries the Rev. P. G. M. Austin and the Rev. W. E. Craig.

On motion, Convention proceeded to hear the address of the Bishop of the Diocese. (Page 46). Convention then proceeded to hear the address of the Suffragan Bishop. (Page 53).

The report of the Committee on Dispatch of Business was presented by the Rev. H. H. Kelley and adopted. The Chair announced the appointment of the Committees on Credentials, on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes and Missions, and on Finance. (Page 5).

The hour of noon having arrived a hymn was sung and prayers for missions offered by the Rev. A. R. Hill.

A motion was made extending to Dr. John W. Wood, the courtesy of a seat and voice in Convention. Bishop Stevens then introduced Dr. Wood to Convention, calling him one of the greatest laymen in the world. Dr. Wood brought the personal greetings of the Presiding Bishop, complimented the Diocese on its growth and strength, and then told of the problems of the National Council facing a deficit of $450,000 for 1933.

It was moved by the Rev. Alfred Fletcher that the Chair appoint a committee to frame appropriate resolutions regarding the deceased clergy for the Convention Journal. Carried, and those appointed were Canon Fletcher, Canon Learned, the Rev. Dr. Davidson, the Rev. W. E. Maison, and the Rev. W. L. H. Benton.

The Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., offered the following resolution which was adopted: "Resolved, that the message of the Presiding Bishop, urging the Church-wide endeavor for the extension of the Church's influence, receive the hearty support of the Convention and that the specific recommendations for carrying it out be referred to the Executive Council for the further development of method”.

After the customary announcements, Convention adjourned until 2 P.M.

Afternoon Session

Convention reassembled at 2 P.M. in the Cathedral House. The report of the Committee on Credentials was presented by Mr. C. J. O'Connor, showing 43 parishes and 27 missions entitled to vote, provided their assessments have been paid. This was followed by the first report of the Finance Committee, presented by Mr. H. Ivor Thomas. He announced that two parishes, St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles, and Upland, had paid their assessments in full since Convention opened, and also two missions, St. Mary's (Japanese) and St. Philip's (colored), Los Angeles. On motion, Convention removed their delinquencies and gave them seats in Convention. The following resolution was then offered by Canon Fletcher, seconded by Canon Learned: "That the lay delegates of the parishes and missions which have been delinquent for the year 1933 be recognized and given seats in Convention." Carried.

Canon Learned offered the following resolution: "That this Convention send, through its secretary, its greetings to Mrs. Joseph Horsfall Johnson, with its unanimous and heartfelt wishes for her continual life of beneficence and helpfulness." Carried.

The report of the Committee on the Admission of Parishes and Missions was presented by the Chairman, the Rev. Irving Spencer. On their recommendation, the following missions were admitted into union with Convention and their delegates seated: Calvary Mission, Los Angeles; St. Alban's (Bishop Johnson Memorial) Mission, Los Angeles; St. Anne's Mission, Lynwood; and St. Peter's Mission, Del Mar.

The report of the Committee on Canons was presented by the Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., the only recommendation being the ratification of an amendment to Article IX, Section 28, of the Constitutions, which had been passed by Convention of 1933, that it now read as follows: "The secretary shall appoint one or more assistant secretaries from among the members of the Convention." Carried.

The report of the treasurer of the Diocese was presented by Mr. H. Ivor Thomas, and received and placed on file. (Page 98).

The report of the Executive Council was presented by the Rev. H. H. Kelley. Moved by the Rev. R. O. Miller, and carried, that it be accepted without the financial recommendations. Carried. (Page 73).

The report of the Department of Missions was presented by the Rev. P. A. Easley. Considerable discussion was aroused over the matter of missionary finances and salaries. After explanation by Bishop Stevens, the following resolution was presented by the Rev. J. C. Donnell: "The missionary clergy of the Diocese of Los Angeles, in Conference assembled, heartily approve the missionary policy of the Church as presented by the Bishop, the Suffragan Bishop, and the Department of Missions. Upon hearing of this resolution, Convention adopted the report of the Department of Missions with its recommendations as to salaries, etc. (Page 75).

The hour for nominations having arrived, the Chair called for nominations which were made as follows: Standing Committee: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, A. G. H. Bode, George Davidson, J. C. Donnell, L. E. Learned, R. O. Miller, and Irving Spencer; Messrs. C. M. Gair, W. A. Holt, W. F. Knight, and A. W. Morgan. Executive Council: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, George Davidson, P. A. Easley, H. V. Harris, M. I. L. Kain, H. H. Kelley, L. E. Learned, R. O. Miller, H. C. Smith; Messrs. M. A. Albee, T. Fleming, Jr.; W. V. Chalmers-Francis, C. M. Gair, G. W. Gatchell, W. N. Howard, W. A. Montan, A. W. Morgan, and W. F. Pascoe. Department of Christian Education: Rev. Messrs. H. V. Harris, B. M. Hause, T. R. Jones, M. I. L. Kain, P. K. Kemp, C. T. Murphy, C. H. Parlour, E. B. Smith, B. A. Warren; Messrs. John William Bacon, G. G. Entz, J. P. Key, and G. R. Miller. Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese: Rt. Rev. W. B. Stevens, Rt. Rev. R. B. Gooden, Rev. R. O. Miller, and Messrs. M. A. Albee, R. M. Brady, H. H. Duryee, W. N. Howard, A. W. Morgan, and H. I. Thomas. Deputies to General Convention: Rev. Messrs. P. G. M. Austin, R. H. Balcom, Harry Beal, S. C. Clark, Jr.; George Davidson, J. C. Donnell, T. R. Jones, M. I. L. Kain, E. T. Lewis, R. O. Miller, Douglas Stuart; Messrs. M. A. Albee, R. M. Brady, E. M. Cope, H. H. Duryee, G. G. Entz, T. Fleming, Jr.; C. M. Gair, W. N. Howard, W. F. Knight, W. MacPherson, W. A. Montan, C. J. O'Connor, and H. I. Thomas. Delegates to the Provincial Synod: Rev. Messrs. P. G. M. Austin, R. H. Balcom, F. J. H. Bloy, William Cowans, J. C. Donnell, F. L. Gibson, S. R. Hammond, E. T. Lewis, H. C. Smith, Irving Spencer, and Douglas Stuart; Messrs. R. M. Brady, G. G. Entz, J. J. Hawkins, Harvey Marriott, W. A. Montan, C. J. O'Connor, W. F. Pascoe, S. S. Pomeroy, F. Read, Wilfred Smith, and S. W. Williams. Representatives on the Provincial Boards; Social Service: Rev. T. C. Marshall; Christian Education. Rev. H. V. Harris; Missions, Very Rev. Harry Beal. Representative on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan: Mr. C. T. Hoag. Representative on the Board of the Home for the Aged: Mr. John D. Hibbard. Registrar: Rev. R. O. Miller. Historiographer: Rev. C. T. Murphy.

The Chair appointed as Judge of Elections, Mr. Earl S. Sharp, and as Tellers, the Rev. Messrs. F. P. Foote, J. A. Bryant, G. C. Gardner, Douglas Stuart, and P. K. Kemp; Messrs. E. T. Sams, J. V. McCandless, S. W. Williams, T. Fleming, Jr.; R. J. Dell, and Jack Dole.

The report of the Finance Committee being the order of the day, it was presented by Mr. H. Ivor Thomas. Again much discussion was had, due to the fact that the Diocesan Assessment recommended called for several increases, and more than had been collected in 1933. After protracted argument, the following resolution was offered by the Rev. Ray O. Miller: "That the Diocesan Assessment for 1934 be the amounts already sent to the parishes and missions, plus the General Convention Assessment, and that a Whitsunday Offering be planned to make up any possible deficit." Carried; and the figure set was $22,610. (Page 117).

The Diocesan Missionary Assessment of $33,000, recommended by the Department of Missions, was then discussed, and, after some argument, adopted.

The report of the Standing Committee was presented by the secretary, the Rev. Ray O. Miller. (Page 72).

The report of the Field Department was presented by the Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D. (Page 78).

The report of the Department of Christian Education was presented by the Rev. H. V. Harris. (Page 76). The report of the Department of Social Service was presented by the Rev. T. C. Marshall. (Page 77). Mr. Marshall also presented the report of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan. (Page 85). The report of the Episcopal City Mission Society was accepted by title. (Page 84).

On motion, Convention adjourned until 9 A.M. the next morning, the first ballot being scheduled for 9:30 A.M.

Second Day, February 1, 1934

Convention was called to order at 9:35 A.M. in the Cathedral House following Morning Prayer in the Cathedral. Bishop Bartlett of North Dakota, the new secretary for Domestic Missions, being present, spoke briefly to Convention. On motion, a seat in Convention was accorded to him, to the Rev. E. S. Greenbaum, and to all other clergy visiting us.

The first ballot was called for. Since there were a number of offices for which only the necessary number of candidates had been nominated, the secretary was instructed in these cases to cast one unanimous ballot for the nominees. This he proceeded to do, and the Chair announced the following so elected: Lay Members of the Standing Committee: Messrs. C. M. Gair, W. A. Holt, W. F. Knight, and A. W. Morgan. Lay Members of the Department of Christian Education: Messrs. J. W. Bacon, G. G. Entz, J. P. Key, and G. R. Miller. Registrar: Rev. R. O. Miller. Historiographer: Rev. C. T. Murphy. Representatives on the Provincial Boards: Social Service: Rev. T. C. Marshall.

Christian Education: Rev. H. V. Harris; Missions: Very Rev. Harry Beal. Representative on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan: Mr. C. T. Hoag. Representative on the Board of the Home for the Aged: Mr. John D. Hibbard.

The Rev. E. S. Greenbaum, president of the Hebrew Christian Alliance and a priest of the Diocese of Montreal, addressed Convention on his work, while the balloting was proceeding. The first ballot closed at 10:05 A.M.

Rev. M. K. Crawford moved that a committee be appointed to draft resolutions of appreciation for the treasurer, Mr. H. Ivor Thomas. Considerable discussion was aroused over the matter of the salary of the treasurer, it being divided among several different accounts. Attention was called to Article 34 of Canon V, regarding the salary of the treasurer, and, on motion, such salary was set at $1,320 for 1934. Carried. The Rev. H. V. Harris requested that an exact report of the recommendations of the Finance Committee regarding assessments be read, and this was set as the order of the day for Thursday at 3 P.M.

The Rev. George Davidson, D.D., offered a resolution felicitating Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President of the United States, on his 52nd birthday, praying God for his continued well-being and in every undertaking for the well-being of the betterment of the people, and instructed the secretary to communicate the same to him. Adopted.

The report of the Woman's Auxiliary was presented by the president, Miss Anne Patton. (Page 82). The report of the Church Home for Children was presented by the Rev. George Davidson. (Page 87). The report of the Home for the Aged was presented by the Very Rev. Harry Beal. (Page 88). The report of the Harvard School was presented by the Rev. H. H. Kelley. (Page 89). The report of the Seaman's Church Institute was presented by the Rev. J. C. Donnell. (Page 90).

The report of the Judge of Elections was then received, showing the results of the first ballot. Elected: Members of the Standing Committee: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, George Davidson, L. E. Learned, and R. O. Miller. Members of the Executive Council: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, L. E. Learned, R. O. Miller, Messrs. M. A. Albee, T. Fleming, Jr., and C. M. Gair. Members of the Department of Christian Education: Rev. Messrs. H. V. Harris and T. R. Jones. Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese: Rt. Rev. W. B. Stevens, Rt. Rev. R. B. Gooden, Rev. R. O. Miller, Messrs. M. A. Albee, H. H. Duryee, W. N. Howard, and A. W. Morgan. Deputies to the General Convention: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, E. T. Lewis, R. O. Miller; Messrs. M. A. Albee, T. Fleming, Jr., and C. M. Gair. Delegates to Synod of the Province of the Pacific: Rev. Messrs. P. G. M. Austin, E. T. Lewis, and Mr. G. G. Entz. The Chair declared the above named elected and Convention proceeded to cast the second ballot.

The hour of noon having arrived, prayers for missions were said by the Rev. A. F. Randall. The report of Jerusalem and the East Mission was then presented by the Rev. A. F. Randall. (Page 111). The report of the Neighborhood Settlement was read by Bishop Stevens. (Page 90). The report of the Girls' Friendly Society was read by Bishop Gooden. (Page 92). The report of the Church Pension Fund was presented by Mr. C. M. Gair. (Page 81). This showed an alarming condition in the Diocese, due to the failure of certain parishes to meet their assessed premiums. Report was accepted but a discussion called for later.

Mr. Spencer Miller, Jr., a member of the National Department of Social Service, having come into Convention, was invited to address Convention, which he did brilliantly, showing the power and vitality of the Church through the present great crisis. He was accorded a seat in Convention, as was the Rev. John W. Suter, custodian of the Standard Prayer Book, and Archdeacon Jenkins of Arizona.

The Judge of Elections reported on the results of the second ballot as follows: Elected: Member of the Executive Council: Gen. G. W. Gatchell. No election in the Department of Christian Education, nor Deputies to General Convention. Delegates to the Province of the Pacific: Rev. William Cowans and Mr. W. A. Monten. The Chair declared the above elected and Convention proceeded to cast the third ballot. Following this, Convention adjourned until 2:15 P.M.

Afternoon Session

Convention reassembled at 2:15 P.M. The report of the Registrar was read by the Rev. R. O. Miller. (Page 79).

The Judge of Elections reported on the results of the third ballot as follows: Elected: No election for member of the Executive Council. Member of the Department of Christian Education: The Rev. C. H. Parlour. Delegate to the General Convention: The Rev. George Davidson. No election to the Synod. Convention proceeded to cast the fourth ballot.

The Bishop reappointed Mr. M. A. Albee as Chancellor of the Diocese. The report of the Church Extension Society was presented by the Rev. L. E. Learned. (Page 80). He moved that Convention nominate the officers of the Society. (Page 4). Carried. The report of the Corporation of the Diocese was presented by Mr. H. Ivor Thomas. (Page 94).

The Rev. Canon Fletcher presented the report of the Committee on Memorials, which is incorporated with the memorial pages. (Page 143).

The Judge of Elections reported on the results of the fourth ballot as follows: Elected: Member of the Executive Council:

Rev. George Davidson. No election on the Department of Christian Education nor the Deputies to General Convention. Delegate to the Synod: Rev. Irving Spencer.

There having been a number of withdrawals from various offices, in order to expedite the elections, motions were made that the secretary cast the unanimous ballot of Convention for Rev. P. A. Easley and Mr. W. N. Howard for Members of the Executive Council; for the Rev. P. K. Kemp for Member of the Department of Christian Education; for Mr. W. A. Monten for Deputy to the General Convention, and for Messrs. C. J. O'Connor and W. F. Pascoe for Delegates to the Synod. This the secretary proceeded to do, and the Chair declared the above named men elected. According to the revised rules of order, nominations were then made for Alternate Deputies to the General Convention as follows: Rev. Messrs. P. G. M. Austin, S. C. Clark, Jr.; R. H. Balcom, and M. I. L. Kain; Messrs. W. F. Knight, H. I. Thomas, R. M. Brady, and G. G. Entz. For Alternate Delegates to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific: Rev. Messrs. R. H. Balcom, H. C. Smith, F. L. Gibson, and Douglas Stuart; Messrs. R. M. Brady, S. W. Williams, Wilfred Smith, and J. J. Hawkins. There being no other nominations for these offices, the secretary cast a unanimous ballot for the above named for their respective offices, and the Chair declared them elected.

Dean Beal made an announcement concerning the Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion for Men and Boys.

The Rev. M. K. Crawford presented a resolution of appreciation for the work of Mr. H. Ivor Thomas as treasurer, following which Mr. Thomas addressed Convention and expressed his joy in doing the work.

The Diocesan missionary budget, which was the order of the day, was then presented in detail, and, after some discussion regarding the missionary policy in the Diocese, it was suggested the roll of parishes and missions be called, with a representative of each expressing the probability as to what his parish or mission might be expected to pay this coming year. This was done, with encouraging reports in the main.

The report of the Church Pension Fund Committee was the order of the day. The chairman, Mr. C. M. Gair, called attention to the condition of the fund in the Diocese, which showed some alarming arrearages and was jeopardizing the minimum guarantee and also the widow's bonus, in case of the death of a man in active service. After some discussion, it was moved by the Rev. J. C. Donnell, and carried, "that the question of making provision for the Pension Fund treasurer to meet the obligations of those parishes in arrears to the Church Pension Fund, be referred to the Executive Council with power to act."

A vote of thanks was tendered by Convention to Mr. W. F. Ludlum, a member of the Cathedral, for again so finely arranging the public address system for use in Convention.

The report of the Rural Dean of San Diego was presented by the Rev. C. L. Barnes. The report of the Rural Dean of Los Angeles was presented by the Rev. E. T. Lewis. The report of the Rural Dean of San Bernardino was presented by the Rev. William Cowans.

The report of the Auditing Committee was presented by Mr. H. E. Brett and accepted. (Page 117). The reports of the Department of Christian Education (Page 76) and of the Board of Examining Chaplains (Page 79) were accepted by Title.

A resolution of appreciation and gratitude was extended to Bishop Stevens, by a rising vote, for his capable, courteous, and excellent presiding over Convention.

The reports of the Commission on Architecture (Page 82) and of the Bishop Johnson Memorial Chapel (Page 81) were accepted by Title.

A resolution was offered by the Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D., seconded by the Rev. T. R. Jones, felicitating the Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D., for the completion of a notable twenty-five years' ministry in All Saints' Church, Pasadena. Carried.

The Rev. G. E. Rafter presented a resolution asking that the addresses of the Bishops, or such portions as seemed advisable, be printed to be read to the congregations. Referred to the Finance Committee.

The Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., moved that a vote of thanks be extended to St. Paul's Cathedral for the excellent accommodations and care afforded the Convention, and to all the Cathedral staff for their labor and care. Carried.

Mr. H. E. Brett moved that the reading of the minutes be dispensed with and their authentication be referred to the Chair. Carried.

After the singing of the "Gloria in Excelsis," the Bishop pronounced the Blessing, and, on motion, Convention adjourned, subject to the call of the Bishop.

Chairman.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS (Abridged)

We record with sorrow the deaths of the Rt. Rev. Hugh Latimer Burleson, D.D., Fourth Missionary Bishop of South Dakota, and Assistant to the Presiding Bishop; the Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, D.D., Fifth Bishop of North Carolina; the Rt. Rev. Junius Moore Horner, D.D., First Bishop of Western North Carolina; the Rt. Rev. William Walter Webb, D.D., Sixth Bishop of Milwaukee; the Rt. Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, D.D., Retired Missionary of Honolulu, and formerly Rector of St. Paul's Church, San Diego; and the Rt. Rev. Edward Campion Acheson, D.D., Sixth Bishop of Connecticut.

We have lost by death six of our faithful clergy; The Rev. Ellis Bishop, formerly Rector of St. James' Church, La Jolla; the Rev. William Cochran, retired and formerly in the Imperial Valley; the Rev. William Bedford-Jones, retired and formerly Rector of St. James' Church, La Jolla; the Rev. George E. Swan, D.D., retired and formerly Rector of St. Luke's Church, Monrovia, and Vicar of the Church of the Ascension, Tujunga; the Rev. George F. Weld, D.D., Rural Dean of the Convocation of Santa Barbara and Rector of All Saints' Church, Montecito; the Rev. Milton C. Dotten, Ph.D., Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral and formerly President of the Standing Committee; the Rev. William Bollard, though not canonically connected with this Diocese, a resident here for many years. All of these clergymen had been helpful in many ways in the life and work of the Diocese. Mrs. Robertson, wife of the Rev. David E. D. Robertson; Mrs. Browne, widow of the late Canon J. D. H. Browne, and Mrs. Swift, widow of the late Rev. Thomas P. Swift, have also entered into the larger life during the year. Several of our other clergy have suffered bereavements in the death of members of their immediate families. The death of the Hon. Frederick C. Valentine has removed from our Diocesan life one whose distinguished service as Chancellor extended over a long period of years. He succeeded the late Henry T. Lee as Chancellor and served under our late Bishop Johnson and for a number of years with the present Bishop. Dr. Josiah Evans Cowles, the last surviving incorporator of the Diocese, whose death occurred in June, was a member of the Standing Committee and many other Diocesan organizations. Other former members of the Convention who have passed away during the year are: Mr. Walter Birch; Mr. Stanley A. Clarke; Mr. J. H. Cole; Mr. Arthur T. Cowley; Mr. William Crook; Mr. F. C. Dezendorf; Mr. Thomas E. Draper; Mr. W. H. Dunn; Mr. George Edgar; Mr. Lyman Farwell; Mr. E. O. Gerberding; Dr. Verne Goodrich; Mr. Dennis Howarth; Mr. Tracy Keedy; Mr. W. Spencer Mason; Mr. J. M. McDuell; Mr. Alfred Newmann; Mr. Silas Setchel; Mr. Robert Shepherd; Mr. John William Smith, Mr. Volney A. Spalding; Mr. John R. Sumner; Mr. George J. Webster; Mr. Horace A. Yeoman.

Changes Are Taking Place

Probably no convention since those preceding the World War has faced such radical and far-reaching possibilities of change as this. The emphasis has shifted from economic predictions and monetary adjustments to the more fundamental questions of social organization and progress. And in the discussions of these questions there is a definitely pessimistic note. Prof. Carleton J. H. Hayes of Columbia assures us that the old faiths and assumptions are gone, including the will to maintain peace. Cautious and conservative observers in Europe and the Pacific area assure us that we cannot escape war. Some predict it within a year; others within five years or a decade. The prophets of armed conflict are not extremists, certainly. The very people who, a year or two ago, were definite almost to the point of vehemence in their assurances that no major nation desired or could afford a war are now casually assuring us that it is inevitable. In 1931, the armament expenditures of the United States were $707,425,000; of Russia, $645,000,000; of France, $466,966,000; of Great Britain, $465,255,000; of Japan, $236,861,500; and of China, $94,291,650. It would be silly to say that this is all the result of fear or of the martial instincts of the human mind. Its roots go much deeper than that; first of all, to the dissatisfaction created by well-intentioned efforts to crown "the war to end war," with a perfect adjustment of national boundaries and prerogatives; and, second, to the age-long desire for food, land, and an equitable distribution of the world's goods.

Along with this international scene is the persistent picture of internal uncertainty and actual or threatened revolution in every corner of the globe. It is a mad world in which one sees the old established nations facing uncertainty and bloodshed, and Turkey, the former blacksheep of the family of nations, enjoying extraordinary serenity and minding its own business in a fashion that others might well emulate. The picture includes dying democracies, megalomaniac dictatorships, reversions to primitive cruelties and unparalleled corruption in high places.

Another element is the search for the way out. There is no uniformity in the methods that are being tried, but underlying them all there is an assumption that pure democracy is dead. It is the era of the strong man, the age of decisive action, whose watchword, born of fear and need, is "action." In our distressed world anything seems better than inactivity and the political leader who chooses watchful waiting as his policy is doomed to innocuous desuetude. Leaders have made their places in the changeable affections of their people by their decisiveness and their determination to go ahead with a program, if necessary, alone. We cannot face the future without contemplating the disastrous results of a universal disregard of democratic principles. My fear is of a generation which may be committed to ideals of dictatorship and of a governmental control, by and for the few. With full recognition of the benefits that have come from the strong man of history one must face the fact that his influence has not always been favorable to the kind of development for which we, as Christians, stand.

Many Cures Against the Christian Spirit

The danger in the present situation lies in the obvious fact that so many of the proposed correctives are fundamentally opposed to the spirit of Jesus Christ. Wars, bloodshed, revolutions, dictatorships, all find their support among the hungry, the greedy, and the ambitious proponents of a new social order to be based on a revamped but obvious materialism. All of us want a new world order, but there is nothing in the present experiments that can offer much hope to the Christian either in Sovietism with its poisonous antagonism to religion or in Hitlerism with its proposed neat little Aryan Protestant Club.

The remedy, or at least one remedy, will be found in a new assertion of Christian principles by the Church, that is supposed to believe and to teach them. Individually and corporately, we must take a definite step for peace. This, I venture to believe, can best be done by an appeal to the example of our Lord and to common sense rather than by wholesale statements and promises as to what we would or would not do under certain hypothetical conditions. It isn't as simple as we try to make it. There are defensive, protective, humanitarian factors in life which no man with an elementary knowledge of sociology dares to disregard. At the same time we can say with deep conviction that we believe that war is a barbarous way to settle intentional disputes.

We must take a determined stand for the rights of the individual and assert that no political system, old or new, is Christian if the rights of individuals are disregarded. We must preach justice, fair play, and brotherhood, with the words of Jesus in our mouths and His example in our hearts.

In other words, we must be a fellowship of conviction and the tragedy has been that we have too often been a church either of petty dogmatism or of defeatism. It is the latter weakness that threatens us now. Credulously and childishly, we worry when someone who knows nothing of the life of organized religion tells us it is a spent force. We fret and fume when we find ourselves in debt and our faith, which ought to overcome the world, loses lustre. That is highly unfortunate when we ought to be trumpeting a note of optimism and courage to a bewildered world.

If we may assume this is true of the Diocese of Los Angeles, we must correct it. We cannot allow our concern about material things to kill our spirit, and one way of preventing that is to face material problems fearlessly and do our utmost to solve them.

The Church Should Lead Courageously

Can we not inject into our deliberations at this convention ■ triumphant courage and realize that a discouraged church cannot lead a discouraged world? Are you willing to adopt a program for 1934 that will provide for the liquidation of our Diocesan and parish indebtedness and the payment of missionary obligations in full? Are you willing to adopt a plan that will provide 1,600 candidates for confirmation during the year? Are you willing to work for a 10 per cent increase in the number of children in your church schools and thus reduce the appalling company of the spiritually illiterate? Are you willing to work with new ardor and enthusiasm for the cause of Christ the King? It is only by some such vision that we can be compelling and effective. I realize that the doing of the things I have suggested would not in themselves be momentous, but they would be symbols of that new courage which the Church, the Diocese, and the world need. God calls us to be consecrated and "he who disregards this disregards not man but the God who gave you His Holy Spirit."

Since writing the foregoing pages, the plan of the Presiding Bishop for a "Church-wide Endeavor" has been presented to me. It is a clear call to a new understanding of the purpose of God. The plan itself is to be adapted to the needs and desires of each Diocese that adopts it.

All this may be expressed through parochial missions or crusades and study classes and through such practical aims as I have suggested in the setting of a quota of confirmation candidate and new school school pupils.

Missions of the Diocese

Thus far we have not been obliged to remove a single missionary from the field. We have made equal percentage cuts in the amounts appropriated to the various missions by our Department of Missions. We can make no promise for the coming year. At the end of the fiscal year fourteen of our parishes have paid nothing on their Diocesan missionary assessments; thirteen have paid nothing on either missionary or Diocesan missionary assessments; eighteen have paid nothing on their Diocesan assessments; fifty-nine have defaulted on one or both. Twenty-five missions have defaulted on their share of the vicar's salary. In the church, as elsewhere, we hope for a revival of business activity that will meet the present financial difficulty. Failing that, it will be necessary to close some of the missions that show the fewest signs of life and promise for the future.

A matter that has been of considerable concern to me has been the inability of missions to meet the indebtedness on their property.

New Church Buildings

During the year new church buildings have been completed for St. Barnabas' Colored Mission, Pasadena, and St. Anne's Mission, Lynwood. The congregations of St. Francis' Mission, East Hollywood, and St. Martin's Mission, Watts, have secured buildings which have been remodelled into commodious and comfortable chapels. The fine old frame church at Hueneme has been moved to Fillmore where it has been put in perfect condition to afford a splendid house of worship for the vigorous mission in that city. As is only too well known, the earthquake created some very acute problems in the devastated area. The Church of the Holy Faith, in Inglewood, had to be raised and rebuilt almost from the ground up. This was made possible by a gift from one woman. St. Luke's Church, Long Beach, also, had to be entirely torn down. The Vestry is planning to start reconstruction immediately. All Saints' Church, Long Beach, suffered serious damages to its walls, all of which had to be reconstructed. The Mission at Compton was turned around on its foundation. Other parishes and missions have suffered minor damages. To meet the situation, an appeal was made throughout the Diocese and province, and the Rev. Perry G. M. Austin volunteered to go East where he had unusual success in raising money. The sum secured from various sources amounted to $22,841.24 which, with local help, will be sufficient to insure the ultimate reconstruction of all the ruined and damaged buildings. I would like to express my thanks to the Rev. Mr. Austin and the Rev. Mr. Covell, and many of the clergy, for their help during the dark days of the earthquake period. A devoted layman and his wife have left a bequest which will enable St. Paul's Cathedral to have a beautiful and commodious chapel which will fill a need of which the parish and the Diocese have long been conscious. Incidentally, the Diocese should be continually grateful to St. Paul's Cathedral for the use of its property. Scarcely a day passes that some Diocesan organization does not meet in the buildings of St. Paul's. The Diocese makes no appropriation for this purpose and no adjustment of assessments. We should, therefore, feel exceedingly grateful to the Dean and Vestry.

Schools and Institutions

The Harvard School for Boys still faces serious financial problems in connection with its property which have been met temporarily. Its work continues on its usual high level and the enrollment continues to be good when one considers the depletion of private schools everywhere. The Bishop's School, at La Jolla, has, with a somewhat decreased enrollment, carried on successfully during the year with no special problems. The Episcopal City Mission Society of Los Angeles is adopting a reorganization plan which will include the use of the Church of the Epiphany, Los Angeles, as headquarters, and the appointment of the Rev. W. E. Craig as Warden. The Rev. Anthony

H. Dexter will continue, as before, as Chaplain. Bishop Gooden has carried administrative responsibility with great devotion. This new arrangement will relieve him of some of that direct responsibility. The Hospital of the Good Samaritan has shown an increase in activity during the past year. The number of patients has been consistently larger and we are able to meet the interest on our indebtedness and to carry on with efficiency. The Church Home for Children and the Home for the Aged, the Neighborhood Settlement, St. Barnabas' House, the Seamen's Church Institute, have all been administered with real effectiveness and have provided services of a high standard in their respective fields. The Girls' Friendly Society shows an increased use of its facilities, but it has been unable to meet the interest on its notes. Those who were kind enough to buy these notes in more prosperous days will, I hope, feel that it does not mean that they will be in default permanently. The credit of the Church must be maintained and we feel sure that the time will come when the notes can be put again on a paying basis. The Bishop's Guild has found its clothing bureau of less service than heretofore and will carry on its work on a very much reduced basis, still hoping that it may receive the support of the Diocese in its collection of discarded clothing and household articles.

Are We Getting Anywhere?

One last thought: Is all this endless round of activity getting us anywhere? Are we free agents with the power to direct and control the contradictory and debasing tendencies of human life? Probably the controversy between freedom and necessity will still go on. Dr. Arthur Compton of the University of Chicago, by his observation of the unpredictable behavior of the infinitesimal centres of matter seems to support the assumption of freedom. It is fair to say that all scientists do not as yet agree with him. But certainly it is true that they, like us who accept the freedom of the will, will go on acting as if they were free. For all practical purposes our experience justifies our belief that we are not mere children playing with ideas and activities that have no effect on the current of history. We are conscious of the need of a common ethical ideal to harness that restless undirected energy that threatens to destroy our western civilization which we believe we have in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Albert Schweitzer has emphasized this need and has pointed out the fact that the lack of any universally accepted principles of thought and action is the great danger to the occidental world. We are under the necessity, therefore, of proclaiming anew the revelation of God in Christ as a revelation for all the purposes of life. It is intended for all men. Jesus has something of importance to pay to everybody and our task is to try, with all humility, to make men listen.

THE SUFFRAGAN BISHOP'S ADDRESS

(Abridged)

Childhood and youth furnish the great opportunity. Every parish and mission in this Diocese is equipped in some degree to seize this opportunity, but they have never seriously tried to do so. It is not a question yet of spending more money or elaborating systems, but of using the means we already have for the Christian education of our childhood and youth. We have nearly twelve thousand children enrolled in the Church Schools of the Diocese with teachers and officers sufficient to instruct and to inspire, but we have equipment to take care of three times as many, while at the same time there are millions of children in the country who receive no religious instruction whatever. We are too satisfied with things as they are and we are still weighted down with a tradition that Church School is of secondary importance.

There are many ways whereby we may extend the teaching influence of the Church. We would urge parish and mission authorities to consider the establishment of branch Sunday Schools. Small beginnings may be made by the use of homes of parishioners, by the renting of vacant houses or stores. The details are simple enough once the vision is caught and the principle adopted.

Clergy and lay people in all our churches have worked and given constantly to feed the hungry and furnish clothing and shelter to those in need. They have co-operated heartily with all relief agencies. Indeed, it would be fair to say that without the Church there would be no volunteer relief agencies. The Churches together are the very fiber of Community Chest and similar agencies and they co-operate with them at the expense of their own parish budgets as every priest knows. It is a completely Christian thing to do and we would not do less. Christ would not know us if we did less.

Changes Must Be Christian

The whole country, considered socially, is in the turmoil which profound changes must cause until these changes have become the settled convictions of tomorrow. The seemingly radical opinions of today become the commonplaces of tomorrow. The prophet is execrated today, tomorrow we decorate his tomb. Whether these profound changes are to lead probably no one really knows, but we may confidently trust that God will not desert his people who are struggling towards a better social order. Washington Gladden's well-known hymn of brotherhood and service speaks of "hope that sends a shining ray far down the future's broadening way." Mere newness in a social order will be of no avail. It must be a newness which the Prayer Book calls

"newness of life," or as the Pastoral of the House of Bishops says, it must fulfill "the demands of Christ." We believe that with this spirit out of the present turmoil some accepted principles of the old social order will disappear and others more nearly in accord with the "demands of Christ" will take their place. The future age will look back wonderingly at a day that considered child labor necessary, long hours of work and low pay an inexorable law, unemployment a normal thing, insecurity of a job perfectly natural, a practical death sentence upon all men and women over 40 just part of life, poverty and slums something we must have, wealth controlled and manipulated by a few a necessity of business and profits the grand goal of all effort. The Church as a "voice crying in the Wilderness" has long spoken against the abuses of the old social order. Her Scriptures and her prayer book are eloquent in this regard and at last through the sweet uses of advertisity a broken and wounded world is giving heed. The recent Pastoral of the House of Bishops places the Church once more on record against unrighteousness and oppression and it should be the glad privilege of every Christian priest and congregation to think, act, and pray, until we have a social and economic order wherein dwelleth righteousness.

G. C. P. Quota Paid

It should be a matter of great rejoicing that the Diocese was able to pay in full the General Church Program pledge of $21,000.00. This has not been easy of accomplishment. To us it seems like a miracle, and we can only say, "it is the Lord's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes." From one point of view, $21,000.00 is a very large sum of money as it undoubtedly represents the gifts of a comparatively small number of our Church people and it breathes the sweet savor of much devotion and sacrifice. From another point of view, it is a very small sum of money as it represents only eighty cents a year from each communicant for the spread of the Gospel all over the world. Eighty cents a year is six and two-thirds cents a month, or one and two-thirds cents a week. This includes the children's Lenten offering, so it is obvious how small the gifts of the communicants of the Diocese are to the General Church Program. It is as if clergy and people were to hear the Master say, "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," and they say, "Yea, Lord, we will go but only to the extent of one and two-third cents a week." The mere statement of this fact shows that the Church is not in earnest about the missionary program. The Woman's Auxiliary is in earnest. Certain individuals have a burning zeal for missions. This is not enough. The whole power of a united Church is needed if we are to make an effective impact against world paganism.

I should like to see this Diocese and the Church all over this land on some set day reconsecrate itself to the task of spreading the Gospel everywhere so that men come to know God and Jesus Christ Whom He has sent. "I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me." We must lift Him up all over the world. "Christ for the world we sing." In that act lies the very heart of missions.

Part III.

1933 REPORTS OF WORK

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE

The newly elected Standing Committee for the Diocese of Los Angeles met in the Bishop's office Wednesday, February 22, 1933. It organized by electing the following officers: President, the Rev. George Davidson, D.D.; secretary, the Rev. Ray O. Miller. Present: The Rev. George Davidson, D.D., the Rev. Irving Spencer, Dr. Josiah E. Cowles, Mr. A. W. Morgan, and Mr. Colin M. Gair.

During the year the committee held nine meetings.

Elections to the Episcopate were approved as follows: The Rt. Rev. Frank Wittington Creighton, S.T.D., to be Suffragan Bishop of Long Island; the Rev. A. W. Noel Porter to be Bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento; the Rev. Robert Emmet Gribben to be Bishop of the Diocese of Western North Carolina.

Approval was given that the following Deacons be ordered Priests: The Rev. Frederick M. Crane, the Rev. John DeForest Pettus.

Approval was given to the following candidates for Holy Orders to be ordered Deacon: Mr. Henry Frank Softley, Mr. George W. Barrett, Mr. Robert M. Key.

Approval was given to the following Postulants to become candidates for Holy Orders: Mr. Henry Frank Softley, Mr. Lester V. Wiley, Elmer Frank Gorman.

The application of the Rev. Frank Jones to be reinstated as Deacon by the Bishop of Erie and the recommendation of our Bishop to that end, were approved.

The application of the Rev. P. Kenneth Branon to be received into communion and the ministry of this Church was left to the judgment of the Bishop.

Notice was received and filed of the deposition from the ministry of this Church of the Rev. Clifford Quentin Johnson, Deacon.

Approval was given to shorten the period of candidacy to the Priesthood in the case of the Rev. Philip Marvin Styles, the Rev. John DeForest Pettus, and the Rev. George W. Barrett.

Various business matters were considered. The Bishop was advised to have the Chancellor make an offer of sale, for cash, to the Rev. D. C. Knox, of the old St. Luke's Church property.

The proposed new loan of St. Stephen's Church, Hollywood, was approved. The removal of the Mission building from Hueneme to Fillmore and the reconveyance of the Hueneme real property to the Beryl Lumber Co., in consonance with a rever-sionary clause in the deed, was approved.

The Standing Committee suffered the loss by death of Dr. Josiah E. Cowles. Dr. Cowles was one of the men who had served longest on the Committee, and his fine spirit and discriminating judgment were of great assistance. The secretary was instructed to convey the sympathy of the Standing Committee to Mrs. Cowles.

The vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Cowles was filled at the September meeting by the election of Mr. William A. Holt. Mr. Holt accepted his election and is already showing great interest in the affairs of the Church in line with the functions of the Standing Committee.

Respectfully submitted for the Standing Committee.

—RAY O. MILLER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council met eleven times since the last Convention of the Diocese, with an average attendance of thirteen and for an average of nearly two hours per meeting.

Reports were received regularly from: the treasurer of the Diocese, the Department of Diocesan Missions, the General Church Program Fund treasurer, the Field Department, the Department of Christian Education, the Department of Christian Social Service, the Episcopal City Mission Society, and the San Diego County and City Mission Society, and appropriate action taken.

Notes successively of special anniversaries, promotions, and of bereavements within the personnel of the Diocese, were spread on the minutes and appropriate letters ordered sent.

With the revised organization of the Council and the increased authority and responsibility provided by the Convention of 1933, the business for the year was chiefly financial.

At the organization meeting on February 14th, the treasurer reported a prospective deficit of approximately $10,000.00 in the Diocesan Fund, the Executive Council Fund, and the Diocesan Missions Fund, and the Council suggested reductions of $1,700.00, $1,000.00, and $2,700.00, respectively, requesting the Field Department to raise $5,000.00 in a special Whitsunday offering substantially to cover the remainder of the deficit. This was successfully done with the aid of the Suffragan Bishop, and he and the Field Department were sincerely thanked.

A detailed analysis of the Department of Missions, made by a special committee thereof, was presented by its secretary and recommendations made for changes of procedure and for retrenchment. This was adopted, except for a section involving changes in canons.

Budgets for the year were adopted as follows:

Diocese	$22,990.00
Executive Council (including $1,500 each to the Seamen's Church Institute and the Episcopal City Mission Society)	4,210.00
Diocesan Missions	25,650.00

Assessments for Diocesan Missions were ordered spread on a basis of $33,000.00 instead of the former $36,500.00.

The working quota for the General Church Program was set at $42,000.00, the actual pledge to be the total of the pledges made by the parishes and missions.

The Bishop's request for a reduction of 10 per cent in his salary was accepted with regret, to be made up at any time the receipts of the Diocese warrant.

The Bishop reported on the March 10th earthquake damage, church reconstruction and emergency funds being imperative, and was authorized to appeal throughout the Diocese therefor.

The sums of $540.00, being two-thirds of the 1932 assessment to the Synod, and designated as for the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, and $200.00 as the 1933 assessment for the Synod, were ordered paid.

The Institutions of the Diocese were reminded that permission must be secured from the Bishop and from the Executive Council before appealing among congregations for funds.

Approval was given to plans of the Department of Christian Social Service for closer voluntary co-ordination of the Social Welfare Institutions of the Diocese.

The Council voted to decline to endorse and to urge caution in the use of commercial methods of church financing.

The secretary, at the end of the year, was authorized to prepare a monthly statement on the activities of the Executive Council for publication in The Los Angeles Churchman.

The Suffragan Bishop was thanked for his tireless work in securing payments to complete the General Church Program.

The Finance Committee was asked to submit to the Convention a budget in the light of the income for the last two years in relation to the expenditures.

The Council recommends to the Convention that the Diocesan Assessment for 1934 be set at $22,610.00, and the Diocesan Missionary Assessment at $33,000.00.

Respectfully submitted,

—HAROLD H. KELLEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DIOCESAN MISSIONS

In the report of this Department to last Convention, it was stated that there was evident necessity of immediate further reduction in appropriations to the salaries of diocesan missionaries. At the first meeting of the Department for 1933 we received instructions from the Executive Council to restrict appropriations of moneys from the Diocesan Missionary Assessment to the sum of $25,650.00. The necessary reduction of salaries to bring about this lowered budget was put into effect in March.

Three years ago, the report of the Board of Missions contained these words:

“Appropriations are not doles, but underwritings. In all but the most exceptional cases increases in self support should occur in every mission every year until entire self support is reached.”

This year the Department has endeavored to shape its regulations in accordance with this idea as completely as possible. A Survey Committee made long and thorough study of our missionary work. And in the Autumn it made the following recommendations, which were adopted:

1. That a normal mission be defined.
2. That missions be grouped into three classes:
 - a. Those which seem strong enough and whose future looks bright enough to warrant becoming parishes without further delay.
 - b. Those which are not yet sufficiently developed to become parishes, but which will probably reach that stage in the future.
 - c. Those which probably will never become parishes, but must carry on either under a vicar, or under a lay reader with occasional services under a priest.

That a committee of the Department classify the missions at least once a year, taking into account changed conditions.

3. That an arbitrary percentage of reductions in appropriations be made on all missions each year beginning with January 1, 1935, of 15 per cent on Class A Missions, 10 per cent on Class B Missions, and 5 per cent on Class C Missions; but beginning with January 1, 1934, reductions be made of one-half of the rate of the reductions to be instituted in 1935.
4. That all missions having their own houses of worship and having been in existence for a period of one year, and are receiving aid from the Department of Diocesan Missions, shall be required to come into union with convention.

5. That a special committee shall make a study of the every-member canvass in the various missions, and of the giving towards self support, to the Diocese and to the General Church in each mission.
6. That the Department assume general control over the affairs of all missions receiving appropriations; that an annual audit of the accounts of each mission treasurer be required to be submitted to the Department; and that each mission be required to submit a budget for the ensuing year in October of each year.
7. That the Bishop and the Suffragan Bishop arrange a day's conference with all missionaries during Convention week, and separately with the missionaries in each Convocation at their discretion.

Later it was enacted that where a mission becomes delinquent for three months on its assessments the amount due each month shall be deducted from the appropriation to the mission and applied to its assessments; and any amounts remaining unpaid at the end of the year shall be deducted from the last month's appropriation.

The Department does not claim to have shaped a perfect plan, but believes that it has taken steps in the right direction.

The Department of Diocesan Missions has sustained a great loss in the death of the Rev. Dr. Weld, the late rural dean of the Convocation of Santa Barbara. His devotion to the cause of church extension and his unflagging zeal in the direction of such work in his Convocation were powerful forces in stimulating the missionary work of this Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

—PHILIP A. EASLEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The work of the Department was assigned to four commissions as for the previous year. (The Commissions on the Church School; Young People's Organizations; College Work, and Adult Education.) Also, the Summer School Committee and the Rally Day Committee.

The annual Church School Rally for the Diocese was held on Sunday, May 14, 1933, at St. Paul's Cathedral with about 1,600 present. Rev. Canon E. B. Smith was the preacher. There was reported $5,432.51 for the Lenten offering.

As for many years past, the Summer School was again held at Harvard School from Sunday, June 25, to Friday, June 30. There were present 103 for the full time and 171 for part time, a total of 274.

The Library of Plays and Pageants, which the Department has, was used more this year than before. These are available to any who have need of this help.

In the early part of the year, the Church Drama League was formed and is now in a position to be of assistance to any organization of the Diocese which contemplates giving plays or pageants.

The Department, through a special committee, Rev. T. R. Jones, chairman, sent out a questionnaire to all the schools in the Diocese and has tabulated the information thus gained for reference.

The Department would suggest to those Parishes in a position to do so, to start Branch Sunday Schools so as to reach as many of the children as possible. Several of these schools have been started and are doing a very fine and much needed work.

Also, your Department would very much like to see established in every home, Children's Prayer Corners.

—GEORGE ENTZ, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICE

We regret very much to report the retirement from the chairmanship and from active work in the Department of Rev. G. R. E. MacDonald, D.D., on account of ill health. His leadership and his presence at the meetings will be very much missed.

As the result of meetings held in November, December, and January, a simple form of organization has been effected, known as "The Episcopal Welfare Federation", whose objects, as stated in the Constitution, are as follows:

1. To promote closer co-operation among social service institutions of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles;
2. To assist in maintaining, developing, and standardizing social service work in the Diocese;
3. To assist in securing interest and support on the part of the Diocese and the general public.

"Any existing social service institution of the Diocese may become a member of this federation by a vote of the institution's governing body and the appointment of two representatives." The Bishop and the Bishop Suffragan are ex-officio members, as also the chairman of the Social Service Department. The Department has also one elected representative.

Such a federation will, we believe, stimulate the work of our various social agencies, improve the standards of our work and strengthen the position of our welfare work in the community, besides accomplishing certain practical results which are of common interest, such as representing the institutions in the adjustment of taxes, presenting their budgets to the Community Chest, and spreading information by literature and speakers among the churches and in various communities.

Among the many social problems that demand the attention of the church, two or three stand out as of immediate urgency:

1. The repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment leaves a chaotic condition of mind and morals.
2. The movement for better motion pictures is one which closely concerns every community and church. An opportunity to do effective service is offered in the formation of "Better Films Councils".
3. Attention is called to the leaflet sent to the Clergy recently from the National Department of Social Service, entitled "The Parish House and the New Leisure".

We bespeak of a more wide reading and study of social problems, the formation of social service groups in our parishes, faithful constant preaching of the social gospel, and the use of social service prayers in all of the services of the church. For ultimately progress in the program of social betterment must come from the attitudes and ideals not of the few, or on the clergy only, but of the whole people.

—THOMAS C. MARSHALL, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM

The Department of the General Church Program has held nine regular and three special meetings this past year. The Rev. David R. Covell was present at five of these meetings and has assisted us in clarifying and formulating plans for doing more effective field department work in this Diocese.

We sponsored the Whitsunday Offering for Diocesan Fund and Diocesan Missionary Fund.

Quotas for the General Church Program for 1934, based on the Diocesan quota of $42,000.00, have been sent out. The following materials have been supplied:

- 4,000 Whitsunday Offering letters.
- 19,800 Whitsunday Offering envelopes.
- 25,000 Pledge Cards for Every-Member Canvass.
- 18,000 pieces National Council leaflets.
- 1,400 copies Los Angeles Churchman. (G.C.P. special number.)

We are very happy to report that our Diocesan pledge to the National Council for 1933 has been paid in full ($21,000.00), and that there have been very marked increase and effectiveness shown in practically all of our parishes and missions in holding an every-member canvass.

Respectfully submitted,

—HARRY BEAL, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

The registrar, acting under authority of the Bishop, has renewed the licenses of sixty-two Lay Readers for the year 1934. Twenty-four of those formerly licensed have not as yet applied for renewal.

Confirmation reports received indicate that one thousand four hundred and eighty-one persons receiving the Laying on of Hands during the past year.

All Diocesan journals sent to the Diocese of Los Angeles have been properly filed.

—RAY O. MILLER, Registrar.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The first meeting of the Board for organization was held February 3, the Bishop having appointed Rev. Messrs. M. I. L. Kain, Philip K. Kemp, Leslie B. Hill, and Henry C. Smith as new members of the Board.

On February 11, the Board approved the sermons of Rev. Philip Styles, he thus completing requirements for Priest's Orders.

The second meeting of the Board was called on March 28 at St. Paul's Cathedral. At the request of the Bishop the Board will make preparations to examine candidates for the position or order of Deaconesses. A committee of the Board was appointed to talk with postulants planning to become candidates for Holy Orders.

The third meeting of the Board was held May 26-27, for examination of candidates. Rev. Fred M. Crane, Deacon, was examined for Priest's Orders, in part. The Board accepted credentials of Rev. Henry Softley, a former Presbyterian minister, and recommended him to the Bishop as candidate (Class 6) for Holy Orders.

The fourth meeting of the Board was held June 6-7. Section 2 of the Board examined Robert M. Key for Deacon's Orders. He completed his Deacon's examination.

The fifth meeting of the Board was held June 28-29, to examine Mr. George West Barrett, (Class 1 candidate) for Deacon's Orders. Mr. Barrett completed the examination.

The sixth meeting of the Board was held September 6 at St. Paul's Cathedral House. The Rev. Henry Softley was examined for Deacon's Orders, and Rev. Fred M. Crane, Deacon, examined for Priest's Orders. Both completed their examinations.

October 10. Secretary received reports from the readers of examinations of Dr. Florence Olive Austin and Miss Edith A. Tyler, candidates to become Deaconesses, (Canon 24). Reports showed their examinations incomplete.

January 2, 1934. Chaplain's fund at the Bank of America shows balance of $95.00. No further funds will be required by the Board at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

—WALLACE N. PIERSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CHURCH PENSION FUND

The committee collected and sent to New York during the year 1933 assessments amounting to $21,312.06.

The pensions in force in this Diocese as of January 20, 1934, total $25,550.00, which is divided among 17 clergymen, 25 widows, and 9 orphans. A part of this amount is paid from the General Clergy Relief Fund, General Convention of 1907 Account, and Los Angeles Diocesan Fund.

At present the Fund is paying out pensions throughout the Church at the rate of over $1,100,000.00 a year, which is at the rate of approximately $3,000.00 for every day of the year. Since it started operations, it has paid out over $10,000,000.00 in pensions.

The last report of the treasurer of the Fund shows total assets of $29,094,064.72. The trustees assure us that the investments are considered to be in a satisfactory condition. You will shortly receive notice to send in the proper salary basis beginning January 1, 1934. This request is being made as assessments must be paid on the basis of actual salary instead of the stipend formerly paid. Permission to pay on the old amount was a temporary provision and is not considered to be in accordance with sound actuarial practice.

Attached is a list of those parishes, missions, and ecclesiastical organizations who have not paid in full for 1933. Each parish must pay at least six months of the previous year's assessment or the trustees will not be in position to pay the $1,000.00 allowance to the widow of a clergyman dying in service nor will any increases in pensions be made beyond the minimum of $600.00 a year to any clergyman wishing to retire at the pension age in this Diocese. This is a very serious matter and we ask the thoughtful consideration of the parishes whose names appear on this list:

Beaumont, Burbank, Eagle Rock, Fallbrook, Fullerton, Glendora, Hemet, Huntington Park, Lancaster, Long Beach (St. Luke's), Los Angeles—Calvary, City Missions Society, Grace Memorial, Harvard School, St. Francis, St. Matthias, Trinity; Oceanside, Palms, Redondo Beach, Seamen's Institute, Torrance, Tujunga, Wilmington.

Respectfully submitted,

—C. M. GAIR.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Commission on Church Architecture met on October 5, 1934, at which time the Rector of St. Luke's Parish, Long Beach, presented Mr. Winsor Soule, architect of the proposed new church to replace that destroyed by the earthquake of March 10th, and together they exhibited the plans and discussed construction. The plans were approved with an expression of appreciation to the Rector and the architect.

Some help was given also by the Bishop and by the chairman to certain missions.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

During the year 1933, the Woman's Auxiliary has held monthly meetings in the Cathedral House, also the Convocation of Los Angeles has held five district meetings. We feel that these district meetings have been of great value. In the other Convocations the vice-presidents have likewise held meetings, which have done much to stimulate the work.

We had the great pleasure early in the year of hearing Mrs. Harper Sibley speak at one of our Diocesan meetings, another of our programs dealt with Church Literature for the Blind. This was arranged by our vice-president in the Santa Barbara Convocation, Mrs. George Weld. I feel, in fact, that our monthly meetings have not only been well worth while but varied.

Mrs. Lawrence Laslett, our Diocesan educational secretary, held a class at Summer School on Training Leaders.

This year we had the great privilege of having Bishop Stevens conduct the Advent Quiet Day, and greatly appreciated his giving us the time from his crowded life.

Our different departments have shown unfailing devotion to the work. In the Social Service Department, Mrs. John L. Ridell has taken over many of the cases left unfinished by the Church Welfare Association worker, who left in September, as well as continuing her own very valuable department. We were all sorry to lose Miss Cooper, who had done such valiant service. Her work in Long Beach after the earthquake will long be remembered. The Social Service Department visited, during the year, 780 church families; at Christmas forty families were cared for; $1,339.00 was given through the Auxiliary for relief work, and was used particularly after the earthquake and at Thanksgiving and Christmas. $1,377.54 was contributed to the Church Welfare during the year; of this, $500.00 was raised at the garden party given by Mrs. Isaac Milbank. The total of cash which passed through the Auxiliary treasurer for Social Service was $3,754.55; (this includes the money sent to the institutions but does not include the immense amount of material furnished, such as clothing and bedding).

The Supply Department sent, last Lent, 74 boxes and bales valued at $6,196.08 to the following places: Alaska, the Philippines, China, and to our Indians in northern California. At Advent, two personal boxes were sent to missionaries in the United States, a suit of clothes was sent to an Indian Catechist in South Dakota, and 36 Christmas checks were sent to missionaries in our own Diocese. The total value for the year of the supply work was $7,593.39.

The Church Schools of the Diocese provided Christmas gifts for over 700 children and adults, as well as for 106 lepers.

The Altar Department has helped 15 Missions in the Diocese.

The Church Periodical Club has done splendid work in keeping up the supply of books and magazines sent to institutions and individuals; especially has it done excellent work among the isolated and in reaching children through a Church School correspondence course. The subscriptions to magazines for the clergy have increased this last year.

Since the last Triennial in Denver in 1931, the United Thank Offering has raised $10,971.72.

The United Thank Offering for the year was.....	$ 4,893.51
Money toward the General Church Program.....	781.47
Money toward Advance Work.....	35.00
Money toward Specials.....	2,304.67
Total in Current Account for year.....	10,311.48

Balance in Savings Account, Jan. 1, 1934.....	712.52
Total balance, Jan. 1, 1934.....	1,491.26

We have added four new branches during the year and one branch has come back to us that was disbanded for a time, so we have now in the Diocese 115 branches of the Woman's Auxiliary. We are entering the New Year with hope and with confidence in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

—ANNE W. PATTON, Diocesan President.

REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY

There has been nothing outstanding in the work of the Society this past year, although, in spite of the small staff of Chaplains, the ministrations to our people and to others in the various institutions have not been curtailed. We are now visiting the Los Angeles General Hospital, Rancho Los Amigos, Olive View Sanatorium, U. S. Veterans' Hospital at San Fernando, Pauling's, Fairview and Sunland Sanatoria, Conkling's Sanatorium at Roscoe, the Veterans' Hospital at Sawtelle, with occasional visits at the County Jail and other hospitals, and two or three visits to Wildwood Sanatorium at Newhall, and the two Sanatoria at Lancaster. Besides these, there are always many outside calls. The new General Hospital is now open and is a tremendous piece of work in itself alone.

This last year we had ten baptisms, eighteen confirmations with one received from the Roman Communion, twenty-two burials, and two marriages.

The services for the past year were as follows: Holy Eucharists, 249; attendance, 5,587; communions, 1,943; other services, 27; attendance. 1,316; private communions, 1,587.

The Auxiliary has done good work this past year under the leadership of Mrs. Edwin J. Jones. She has had the assistance of many faithful women who have helped to carry on the work and the visiting in the institutions.

The great pressing need, especially now that the new General Hospital is open, is another full-time priest with a car, or two part-time priests.

Respectfully submitted,

—ANTHONY H. DEXTER, Chaplain.

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

The most important change in the life of the hospital for many years is the retirement of Mrs. Horatio Walker from the superintendency. Mrs. Walker was an administrator of outstanding ability, and in her twenty-one years of service brought the institution to the high place which is accorded to it today in the hospital world.

Mrs. Walker has been succeeded by Mrs. E. R. Chapman, a graduate of our own College of Nursing and who has served since her graduation in various administrative positions in the hospital.

Total figures for the year 1933 show almost exactly the same volume of work done by the hospital as in the year 1932.

In 1932, 4,537 patients were admitted; in 1933, 4,522, a difference of only 15. The daily average number of patients in 1932 was 151.2; the daily average in 1933 was 154.2, a difference of only 3. The number of surgical operations in 1932 was 3,948; in 1933, 3,873, a difference of 75.

The report in January, 1933, showed a steady and almost alarming decline in the business of the hospital—a decrease in the number of admissions of 2,220 as compared with 1929, and of 90.5 in the daily census. The figures presented this year encourages us to think that so far as depression and the hospital are concerned, we have touched bottom. An analysis of the statistics confirms this hope.

The year has marked a crisis in the history of the School of Nursing. In response to advices from the authorities in the field of nursing education that the profession of nursing was being overcrowded, no classes have been admitted to the school since September, 1931, with the exception of a few transfer students in 1932, and a group of seven in February, 1933. In fact, the suspension of the school altogether has been seriously considered. Now, after thorough discussion, the Board of Directors of the Hospital have definitely decided to continue the school. A small group will be admitted in February, and a second group in September, which will probably be a much larger one. We feel that until some definite plan for nursing education is provided by the community either through the establishment of a central school of nursing or a school of nursing at one of the universities, there is an important work for our College of Nursing to do. In fact, there are many who feel that there will always be a place for the type of nursing education which can best be given in an institution that has a limited number of students and is conducted under the influence of the Church.

It is important now to counteract any feeling of uncertainty in the community as to the continuance of our school. The Director of the school will be very glad to confer with any young woman looking forward to the profession of nursing as a career. The requirements for admission are eight college recommended units from high school and one year pre-nursing course made up of specified subjects.

REPORT OF THE HOME FOR THE AGED

During the year, the Home has cared for its full quota, 28 members. We have lost six by death: Mrs. Mary Campbell Capers, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Hazlett, Mr. Frederick Bruce Johnson, Mrs. Elizabeth Ellen Johnston, Mrs. Addie P. Jones, Mr. Stephen Poyntz Owsley. One member withdrew from the Home.

The Board of Directors has held six regular and one special meeting, with an average attendance of nine.

Our income for maintenance for the year was $13,217.04, of which amount interest on invested funds was $4,849.63. Our operating expenses were: Cash disbursements, $9,933.26, plus a depreciation charge of $1,246.18, making a total of $11,179.44. (A total depreciation charge of $8,723.28, of which $1,246.18 is for 1933, or 2 per cent of the original cost of the building has now been made.)

We have received by bequests, $7,787.22 (Hannah Ude—$5,760.00; Annie Wilson, $1,027.22; Houghteling Estate, $1,000), which, together with transfer of Trust Funds to endowment through the deaths of the members mentioned, has increased our Endowment Fund by $40,534.20 for the year. The reserve to care for losses in trust funds invested has been increased by $5.00, making a total in these funds of $144,218.25, as compared with $103,697.05 of last year.

Our taxes have been increased. Last year we paid $945.84; this year we must pay $1,230.92.

We are happy to report all bills paid, including 4.38 per cent on trust funds paid to the members of our family for the year, and a balance on hand in the maintenance fund of $2,037.60 working surplus.

—CATHERYN E. DAVIS, Secretary-Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S SCHOOL

The Bishop's School entered its twenty-fifth year in September. During that time it has experienced prosperity and growth—new buildings, increased grounds, improved equipment—made possible by the presence of many pupils.

I am glad to report to the Convention this year, however, that out of the so-called depression I think that we are constructing something in La Jolla very much worth while for the school and for the community. Although we have had fewer enrollments than in former times, we have not fallen below 85 out of a possible total of 120 house and day pupils, and we have been able to carry on all our traditions comfortably.

Our faculty has not changed. There has been ample opportunity to try new methods in the class room and for students to experience new freedoms. So the spirit of the school remains excellent, the scholarship good, and our courage strong to face whatever the future holds.

—CAROLINE S. CUMMINS, Headmistress.

REPORT OF THE HARVARD SCHOOL

On June 14, 1933, Harvard closed its thirty-third year by graduating thirty-three seniors and issuing certificates to four junior college students who had completed our first two-year course. Four of the class have continued in junior college work with us, and most of the others are doing well elsewhere in colleges and universities.

The school opened for its thirty-fourth year last September with 129 students, slightly less than for the preceding year, yet with a greater proportion in residence.

The military work, directed by an active officer of the United States Army continues on a high plane.

Our teachers are Christian gentlemen; their personal influence over the boys makes for high-principled conduct, and the beautiful Chapel, with its daily services, exerts a spiritual influence over the boys probably greater than what is immediately apparent.

During the year Bishop Gooden confirmed a class of seven students and another class is soon to be presented. While the majority of the boys are of our own faith, many other communions are represented, and the school and the students have a proper respect for each other's convictions.

On the material side, we are thankful to report that our buildings suffered no structural damage from the earthquake. Shaken chimneys were promptly repaired. This rattling good test of the sturdiness of our fabric, particularly as we see the sad plight of our public schools yet unrepaired, challenges us also to greater efficiency in our academic labors. We are here to serve.

The continued help we can and do expect from our sponsors in education, the Diocese of Los Angeles, is spiritual and personal. Work for us; send us your sons; tell your friends near and far about us; above all, pray for us.

God has blessed Harvard School in the past. It is dedicated to Him and by His Grace we labor on.

Respectfully submitted,

—HAROLD H. KELLEY, Headmaster.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD SETTLEMENT

Life at the Settlement has been closely bound up the past year with the fortunes of the economic depression, which it is not wholly out of place to classify as "fortunes of war", connoting much the same helplessness for the individual caught in the cataclysm. It has meant for the Settlement staff a considerable service in helping people to adjust to the continually changing administration of the County Welfare Bureau. During last winter there were much greater uncertainties and exigencies as to food supplies than at present. We felt justified, therefore, in entering the field of emergency relief by a special service in the purchase and sale, at cost, of milk, and of its distribution. The Settlement provided transportation, equipment, and a portion of the requisite service. The Golden State Company lent four containers, and with the co-operation of the women of the neighborhood we were able to dispense forty gallons of whole milk a day for a period of six months. Over and above what we could squeeze out of the budget for carrying on this enterprise, the cost was $25.00, which an interested friend provided.

During the past six months, the relief service of the County Welfare has become somewhat stabilized and clarified so that individual family heads are not so mystified as to the necessary procedure to secure some sort of food supply.

The next most significant aspect of the year has been an increase in the House registration, nearly doubling the membership of three years ago. The depression has brought people into the Neighborhood because of cheap rents. Be it said, the housing is, for the most part, much below any reasonable housing standard.

Paralleling this increase in numbers to be served has been the necessary cut in budget from the Community Chest and the need of more direction for our group program, especially for the larger number of younger boys and girls. With fewer resources of their own, the neighbors look to the settlement for more that will be both a diverting and a worth while use of leisure time. Health and moral problems both are more urgent with an attendant need for some form of case work to supplement the over-taxed specialized agencies for dealing with such problems.

We have been grateful for such volunteer service as has come to us, but it is still inadequate for our needs.

—ELEANOR H. WOODS, Head Worker.

REPORT OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

During the year 1932, the Seamen's Church Institute housed 12,095 men. During the months of October, November, and December, 1933, we lodged 12,900 men; and for the entire year of 1933 we put 21,610 men to sleep in clean and comfortable beds. The above figures show the tremendous load which has been ours. We have cared for all the seamen in San Pedro who desired any service from us. In addition, we have housed, since the middle of October last, all of the transient men in San Pedro who have been cared for by the Federal government.

We report with sorrow the death of three of our directors during the past year: Dr. Josiah Cowles, Mr. Lyman Farwell, and Dean Weld.

We acknowledge with sincerest thanks the splendid service which the Women's Crew is rendering the Institute, under the able leadership of Mrs. Willoughby Rodman.

REPORT OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

For the past three years, we had looked forward with great enthusiasm to the meeting of the National Council of the Girls' Friendly Society which was to have been held in our Diocese in July of the past year, but we were to be disappointed as early in the spring the Board of Directors met in New York City and, after careful thought, decided that it would be unwise to hold a meeting so far in the West. We, in the Diocese of Los Angeles felt that great harm would result if all our plans were given up, so we held a Provincial, or Western, Conference, carrying on a number of the original plans, such as the use of Occidental College, the presentation of the pageant, "Dawn in the West", etc. Delegates attended from the Dioceses of Olympia, Oregon; California, Arizona, Ohio, Nebraska, and New York, as well as many from our own Diocese. Those attending went away feeling that great good had been accomplished, that they were all drawn a little closer to their Master, and that as leaders we should point the way to the abundant life which is found only in Jesus Christ.

Our Diocese was fortunate in having Miss Frances Arnold, National field secretary, with us during the months of May, June, and July, working up enthusiasm for the Conference. Miss Helen Wright came West from the National office to conduct classes in program planning, both at the Conference and at the Harvard Summer School.

Four new branches were organized during the past year. They were: The Beta Chapter of the Bishop's Branch; St. Matthias', Los Angeles; All Saints', Highland Park; and St. James-by-the-Sea, La Jolla. Two branches were disbanded during the year and four became inactive, leaving twenty-one active branches.

The total receipts of the corporation for the year ending December 31, 1933, were $2,405.34; the disbursements, $2,364.13, leaving a balance on hand of $41.21.

The valuation of the Lenten sewing done by the branches in co-operation with the Woman's Auxiliary was $284.00.

Conditions at Heathcote Hall, the G.F.S. Lodge, have improved during the past year. Where a year or so ago there were twelve vacancies, today we find an average of five or six.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S GUILD

The year just past has proven the loyalty and devotion of several hundred members of this Guild. Some, of course, have had to drop out, and some have died, but the membership of the Guild has remained slightly under the five hundred mark; nevertheless, because of the addition of twenty new members.

The Guild has made every effort to fill its yearly pledge of one hundred dollars a month to the Bishop for his Discretionary Fund.

Two large events were given for the above purpose: the lawn fete last June at the home of Bishop and Mrs. Stevens, and the evening of resale of the Pasadena Community Playhouse in the Fall.

One shop was closed in the Fall, and it has lately become expedient to close the Clothing Bureau and Thrift Shop, except for sales one day a week.

Let us continue to hold up the hands of our Bishop by supplying him with this necessary fund which is an essential part of his equipment for Diocesan needs.

Respectfully submitted,

—MARGARET E. MOORE, Chairman.

H. IVOR THOMAS,
Treasurer.

Los Angeles, January 13, 1934.

I have examined the books and records of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the period from January 14, 1933, to January 13, 1934, from which the foregoing statements were correctly prepared. All of the recorded receipts were traced into the bank account and the expenditures were satisfactorily vouched.

WILFRED N. HOWARD.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

To the Thirty-ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Los Angeles:

Your Auditing Committee respectfully reports:

That the accounts, for the past year, of the treasurers of the several funds of the Diocese have been audited, under its direction, by Mr. Wilfred N. Howard, public accountant.

The accountant's report, dated January 29, 1934, is attached hereto and forms a part of this report.

The accountant's report comprises his statement addressed to the Auditing Committee, to which is attached his Exhibits I and II, respectively covering the receipts and disbursements of the treasurer of the General Church Program, Mr. W. F. Knight; and of the treasurer of the Church Pension Fund, Mr. Colin M. Gair; and also certified copies of the financial reports of the treasurer of the Diocese and of the Corporation of the Diocese, prepared by the treasurer, Mr. H. Ivor Thomas, which will appear in their accustomed places in the Journal of the Convention.

Your committee, with the accountant, examined the bonds and other investment securities of the Diocese, and found them as listed in the report of the Corporation of the Diocese. These securities were kept in the safe deposit vaults of the Security-First National Bank, 707 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, with the exception of certain bonds which have been deposited with the bank as collateral for a loan of $7,000.00 to the Corporation of the Diocese.

The bonds of the treasurer of the Diocese, Mr. H. Ivor Thomas, have been kept in force.

—HENRY E. BRETT, Chairman.
ROBT. H. LINDSEY.
R. McCLELLAND BRADY.

WILLIAM COCHRAN*Priest*

William Cochran, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died February 2, 1933, at the age of 75. Born in Parma, Michigan, March 18, 1858, he attended Chicago Theological Seminary. He came into our Church, being ordained Deacon in 1903, and Priest in 1904, both by Bishop Tuttle. His ministry was first in Missouri, later in the Diocese of Springfield. He came to the Diocese of Los Angeles in 1913 where he served in the Imperial Valley stations during their pioneer period for three years. Ill health forcing him to retire, he had lived a quiet life since then.

GEORGE FRANCIS WELD*Priest and Doctor*

George Francis Weld, Rector of All Saints' Parish, Montecito; Vicar of St. Andrew's Mission, Carpinteria; and Rural Dean of the Convocation of Santa Barbara, died at his home in Santa Barbara, November 21st after a short illness. He was born in Boston, Massachusetts, April 22, 1866; educated at the Roxbury Latin School, Nobles' Classical School, Harvard University, and the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge. He was ordained both Deacon and Priest in 1900 by Bishop Lawrence. He was Rector of St. John the Evangelist's Church, Hingham, Massachusetts, before coming to this Diocese in 1913. He spent his entire time in this Diocese as Rector of All Saints', Montecito, and Rural Dean of Santa Barbara. He was unsparing in his work for the Church, particularly in his Convocation, also in the Province where he was Vice-President of the Council. He was also deputy from the Diocese to the General Convention a number of times. In 1924, the Church Divinity School of the Pacific gave him a degree of Doctor of Divinity in recognition of his distinguished work in the Province. He was much interested in Christian healing, having published a book, "The Meaning of Christian Healing". He was also much in demand as a lecturer on this subject. Of a sweet and unselfish nature, he was known by many and loved by all.

WILLIAM JOHN WYCLIFFE BEDFORD-JONES*Priest*

William J. W. Bedford-Jones, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died April 3rd in La Jolla. Born in Cork, Ireland, April 11, 1861, he came to the United States at an early age, and attended Hobart College and the DeLancey Divinity School. He was ordained Deacon in 1890, and Priest in 1892, both by Bishop Coxe. His ministry was first in New York State, then in Illinois, Ohio, and Michigan. He came to the Diocese of Los Angeles in 1914, serving for three years as Rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Los Angeles, and, in 1917, going to La Jolla as Rector of St. James-by-the-Sea, and also Chaplain of the Bishop's School for Girls. He served for fourteen years in St. James' parish, retiring at the end of that period. During that time he made it into one of the strong parishes of the Diocese, and also did notable work for the Diocese as a whole.

MILTON CHURCH DOTTON*Priest and Doctor*

Milton Church Dotton, a retired Priest of the Diocese and Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, died at his home in Pasadena, December 11th, at the age of 85. Born in Eastport, Maine, October 12, 1848, he attended Flushing Institute, received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Heidelberg University, Germany, in 1873. He then attended the General Theological Seminary and was ordained Deacon in 1876, and Priest in 1880. His early work was in New York City and Detroit. He came to Southern California in 1892, before the organization of the Diocese, and was for twenty-five years Rector of All Saints' Church, Riverside. Upon the formation of the Diocese, he was for a number of years the first secretary. He served the Diocese in many capacities, and from 1916 until 1924 was president of the Standing Committee. In 1932 he was made a Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral. He retired from his only parish in the Diocese in 1918, and since then had lived quietly in Pasadena. A fine scholar, a clear thinker, and a much loved pastor, he was one of the early builders of the Kingdom in this section of the country.

ELLIS BISHOP

Priest

Ellis Bishop, a retired Priest of the Diocese, died February 8, 1933, at his home in Rancho Santa Fe. He was born in New Brunswick, N. J., March 7, 1872, and was educated at Rutgers College and Berkeley Divinity School. Ordained Deacon in 1897 and Priest in 1898, he served the Church in New York City, Utah, Massachusetts, and Connecticut, before coming to Los Angeles in 1916. He was Priest in charge of St. James'-by-the-Sea Church, La Jolla, for two years, following which poor health caused his retirement. He was, however, always of great value to the Church with occasional services, and in his latter years had built a small Chapel on the Rancho Santa Fe where he held frequent services.

GEORGE EDWARD SWAN

Priest and Doctor

George Edward Swan, Doctor of Divinity, Historiographer of the Diocese, and Rector Emeritus of St. Luke's Church, Monrovia, died after a short illness August 16th. Born in Chelmsford, England, October 12, 1854, he came to this country, being graduated from Seabury Divinity School in 1880. He was ordained both Deacon and Priest in 1880 by Bishop Whipple. His early ministry was in Minnesota and Indiana. He came West in 1895, where he was rector of St. Mark's Parish, Berkeley; Dean of Trinity Pro-Cathedral, Sacramento; Archdeacon of Sacramento, and Rector of the Church of the Incarnation, Santa Rosa. He came to this Diocese in 1911, and served as Rector of St. Mark's Church, Upland; Missionary at Grace Mission, Glendora; then, after a short retirement due to illness, he took over the then weak parish of St. Luke's, Monrovia, and, building a new Church, made it into one of the strongest parishes of the Diocese. In his latter years, he had charge of the Mission of the Ascension, Tujunga. In 1928, his Seminary, Seabury, gave him the degree of Doctor of Divinity in recognition of his distinguished services. He was elected Historiographer of the Diocese in 1927, which position he held until his death. He was noted particularly as a builder, a moulder of parishes, and, above all else, a fine scholar and gentlemanly character.

A RESOLUTION

In view of the fact that six of the canonical clergy of the Diocese, and two prominent lay delegates of the Convention, as well as others, have during the past year departed this life and have entered into the rest of Paradise:

The Rev. Ellis Bishop, formerly rector of St. James' Church, La Jolla; the Rev. William Cochran, formerly missionary in Imperial Valley; the Rev. Wm. Bedford-Jones, retired, formerly rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Los Angeles, and of St. James' Church, La Jolla; the Rev. George E. Swan, D.D., retired, historiographer of the Diocese and former rector of St. Luke's Church, Monrovia; the Rev. George F. Weld, D.D., rector of All Saints' Church, Montecito, Dean of Convocation, notable in missionary effort and in many activities on Diocesan Boards; the Rev. Milton C. Dotten, Ph.D., Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, retired, late rector of All Saints' Church, Riverside, and one of few remaining founders of the Diocese, for many years president of the Standing Committee, first secretary of the Convention of the Diocese; The Honorable Judge Frederick C. Valentine, Chancellor of the Diocese, who, by his wise counsel, freely given, contributed greatly to its progress; Josiah Evans Cowles, M.D., also one of the original founders of the Diocese, for many years member of the Standing Committee and lay deputy to the General Convention, senior warden of St. John's Church, Los Angeles:

Resolved, that we place on record in the Journal of the Convention our sincere sorrow and sense of loss at the removal of these gentlemen, recognizing, in the case of many of them, the signal service they have rendered in the cause of Christ and His Church, and in the establishment of this Diocese; and that the secretary of the Convention be requested to advise, where possible, the several members of their families of this resolution which has been spread upon the minutes of the Convention.

—ALFRED FLETCHER.
GEORGE DAVIDSON.
W. E. MAISON.
LESLIE E. LEARNED.
W. L. H. BENTON.

LIST OF THE CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE OF LOS ANGELES

In accordance with the provisions of Canon III, Section 9, of the Canons of the Diocese, I hereby certify that the following is a list of all the clergymen of the church canonically resident in this Diocese, and I do further certify that all included in said list are entitled to seats and votes in the Fortieth Annual Convention, save the names marked with a (†), the clergymen so indicated not having been "actually and canonically resident within the Diocese" for the space of six calendar months next before the meeting of the Convention, as provided in the Constitution, Article VI, Section 20, or having been "exclusively engaged in secular work".

The clergymen, whose names are so indicated, are entitled to seats, but not to speak or vote in Convention.

—W. BERTRAND STEVENS,
Bishop of Los Angeles.

THE CONVENTION

PROCEEDINGS OF CONVENTION

First Day, January 30, 1935

The fortieth annual convention of the Church in the Diocese of Los Angeles opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles, at 9:30 a. m. on the above date, the Bishop of the Diocese being the celebrant.

At the close of the service, Convention was called to order by the Bishop, who upon being informed a quorum was present, declared Convention ready for business. The Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., was re-elected secretary. He appointed as assistants the Rev. P. G. M. Austin and the Rev. W. E. Craig.

On motion Convention proceeded to hear the address of the Bishop of the Diocese. (Page 52.) Convention then proceeded to hear the address of the Suffragan Bishop. (Page 61.)

The Chair announced the appointment of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes and Missions, and also the Committee on the Dispatch of Business. (Pages 5 and 6.) The Rev. W. N. Pierson presented a resolution of congratulation to the President of the United States on the occasion of his birthday. The resolution was adopted and the Secretary instructed to send a night letter to him.

The Rev. Douglas Stuart, chairman of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business, reported, recommending the presentation of reports of Institutions and Organizations for the balance of the forenoon session, noon recess from 12:30 to 2 p. m., and in the afternoon session following of the regular order of business. Adopted.

The report of the Woman's Auxiliary was then presented by its President, Miss Anne Patton. (Page 94.) Following her report, Miss Patton introduced Miss Esther Brown, Auxiliary Field Secretary for Work among the Colored People. Miss Brown made a brief address to Convention. At the conclusion of these addresses the Rev. C. H. Parlour moved that a rising vote of thanks be given the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese in appreciation of the wonderful service and constructive work they have rendered during the past year. Seconded and carried.

The hour of noon having arrived, following a hymn, noon day prayers for missions were read by the Rev. G. C. Gardner.

The report of the Home for the Aged was given by the President of the Board, Mrs. W. A. Holt. (Page 105.)

The report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes and Missions was presented by its chairman, the Rev. Irving Spencer, stating that proper credentials had been received from St. Michael's Mission, Eastmont, Los Angeles, and St. Martin's Mission, Watts, Los Angeles, and recommending their admission into union with Convention as missions. On motion the report was accepted, and these missions received into union with Convention, and their delegates seated.

The Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D., moved that the Chair be requested to appoint three special committees referring to three matters mentioned in the Bishop's address, namely a Committee on the Fortieth Anniversary of the Diocese; a Committee on the Fortieth Anniversary of the Consecration of the First Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson; and a Committee on the Bishop's Pence. Dean Beal also spoke briefly on the fact of this year being the occasion of the seventieth anniversary of the beginning of regular services of the Church in this section. The motion was adopted, and the Chair instructed to appoint the Committees. (Pages 6 and 7.)

The report of the Committee on Credentials was presented by Mr. C. J. O'Connor, showing that 46 parishes and 29 missions had presented proper certificates of Lay Delegates, and were entitled to seats and votes providing their assessments have been paid. The report also called attention to the fact that the section of Canon 4, requiring these certificates to be in the hands of the Secretary seven days prior to Convention was constantly being violated, and asked for instructions in the future. The matter was referred to the Committee on Canons for later report.

A telegram from Bishop Cook, the President of the National Council was read sending greetings to Convention and urging Convention to underwrite the "emergency" budget, as early reports from the dioceses are disappointing.

The report of the Church Home for Children was presented by the President of the Board, the Rev. George Davidson, D.D., LL.D. He moved that certain portions of the report be printed in the Diocesan Journal. Carried. (Page 104.)

After the customary announcements, Convention adjourned until 2 p. m.

Afternoon Session

Convention reassembled at 2 p. m. in the Cathedral House. The report of the Committee on Canons was presented by the Chairman, the Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D. He moved that the various amendments to the canons of the general Church adopted at the recent General Convention be approved. Seconded by the Rev. C. T. Murphy, and adopted. The Committee moved that section 14, of Canon 4, relating to the certificates of lay delegates, be amended in the third line, changing the words "at least one week" to "at least one day." Seconded and carried.

The Secretary called attention to the fact that the supply of printed copies of the Constitutions and Canons was almost exhausted, and also that no revised copy had been printed since 1926. The Treasurer of the Diocese moved that the Secretary be instructed to have printed a sufficient number of copies of the Constitutions and Canons revised up to date. Seconded and carried.

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese on Delinquent Parishes and Missions was presented showing 43 parishes and missions delinquent all or in part. He recommended that three parishes, Santa Barbara, Monrovia and Upland, having paid their assessments in full since the closing of the books, have their delinquencies removed and their delegates be given seats, Moved and carried.

Considerable discussion was raised over the remitting of the delinquencies of the others, and a motion to remit all, was lost in a vote by orders. As a result of the discussion the Treasurer recommended in his report that the delinquencies on the following 23 parishes and missions be remitted: Alhambra; Beaumont-Banning; Beverly Hills; Chula Vista; Escondido; Glendale; Los Angeles; Amanda Chapel; Good Shepherd, Venice; St. Athanasius; St. John's Wilmington; St. Matthew's; St. Thomas'; St. Stephen's; Trinity; Orange; Redondo Beach; San Bernardino; All Saints', San Diego; Sierra Madre; Tujunga; Ventura; St. Luke's, Long Beach; and Pomona. This recommendation was adopted, and the delinquencies on the above mentioned parishes and missions were remitted, and their delegates seated. The Treasurer then recommended that the delinquencies on the following 17 parishes and missions be not remitted: Glendora; Huntington Park; Inglewood; La Crescenta; Lancaster; Lompoc, All Saints', Long Beach; Los Angeles, St. Andrew's; St. Barnabas'; St. John's (West Los Angeles); St. Mary of the Angels; St. Peter's, Palms; St. Mark's, Pasadena; St. Andrew's and St. Mark's, San Diego; and Santa Paula. On motion the report of the Finance Committee was adopted.

The hour for nominations having arrived, the Chair called for nominations which were made as follows: Standing Committee: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, George Davidson, L. E. Learned, R. O. Miller, W. N. Pierson and Irving Spencer; Messrs. C. M. Gair, W. A. Holt, W. F. Knight and A. W. Morgan. Executive Council: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, George Davidson, D. H. Dow, P. A. Easley, H. V. Harris, L. E. Learned, R. O. Miller and C. H. Parlour; Messrs. M. A. Albee, Thomas Fleming, Jr., G. W. Gatchell, W. N. Howard, W. A. Monten, L. W. Morgan and C. J. O'Connor. Department of Christian Education: Rev. Messrs. J. R. Atwill, F. L. Gibson, H. V. Harris, T. R. Jones, M. L. Kain, P. K. Kemp. C. T. Murphy, C. H. Parlour, W. A. Pierson and B. A. Warren; Messrs. J. W. Bacon, G. G. Entz, J. P. Key, G. R. Miller, W. L. Van Schaick and S. W. Williams. Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese: Rt. Rev. W. B. Stevens, Rt. Rev. R. B. Gooden, Rev. Messrs. L. E. Learned and R. O. Miller; Messrs. M. A. Albee, H. H. Duryee, W. N. Howard, A. M. Morgan, H. I. Thomas and Curtis Williams. Delegates to the Provincial Synod: Rev. Messrs. P. G. M. Austin, S. C. Clark, Jr., William Cowans, F. L. Gibson, H. G. Gray, E. T. Lewis, W. E. Maison, E. B. Smith and Irving Spencer; Messrs. M. A. Albee, G. G. Entz, J. J. Hawkins, J. P. Key, Spencer Miller, Sr., C. J. O'Connor, W. F. Pascoe and S. W. Williams. Representative on the Provincial Boards, Religious Education: Rev. H. V. Harris; Social Service: Rev. T. C. Marshall; Missions: Very Rev. Harry Beal. Registrar: Rev. Ray O. Miller Representative on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan: Mr. C. T. Hoag. Representative on the Board of the Home for the Aged: Mr. John D. Hibbard.

The Chair appointed as Judge of Elections, Mr. Earl S. Sharp, and as Tellers: the Rev. Messrs. Dow, Crawford, Martyr, Moss, E. B. Smith and Eric Bloy; Messrs. R. E. Blight, R. J. Dell, W. G. Farnsdale, C. M. Swinnerton, Thomas Fleming, Jr., and Francis Reed.

The report of the Standing Committee was presented by its Secretary, the Rev. Ray O. Miller. (Page 81.) The report of the Executive Council was presented by its Secretary, the Rev. P. A. Easley. (Page 82.) The report of the General Church Program Committee was presented by its Chairman, the Very Rev. Harry Beal, D.D. (Page 87.) The financial report of the General Church Program Committee was presented by its Treasurer, Mr. W. F. Knight. (Page 130.) The report of the Jerusalem and East Mission being printed was accepted by title. (Page 130.)

A supplemental report of the Committee on Canons was presented by its Chairman, the Rev. L. E. Learned. It recommended an amendment to Canon IV, Section 15, to strike out the last sentence, and to substitute as follows: "All arrears which have not been remitted in accordance with the above procedure shall be carried forward as a charge against the delinquent Parish or Mission, and the penalty of forfeiture of seat or seats in Convention shall continue in force until all such arrears shall have been paid." Since such an amendment would require unanimous consent, and some objection was voiced, it was moved to refer it back to the Committee on Canons for recommendation next year. Carried.

An amendment to Canon XI, Section 90, permitting a rotating vestry was unanimously carried. (Page 8.)

Bishop Gooden was then given the courtesy of the floor, and he spoke on the financial problems of the General Church, giving especial credit to the budget committee of the last General Convention of which Dean Beal was a member. He emphasized the fact that the minimum budget was absolute bed rock, and said the Diocese must meet it. Our delegates in General Convention promised to make every effort to get the Diocese to adopt a budget of $21,250, which is 25 per cent more than paid during the past year, and he greatly hoped in the interest of holding the line that Convention would adopt such a sum and wire the National Council of its decision. Such a motion was made by the Rev. E. T. Lewis, and followed by a considerable debate in which many parishes promised to give more and to work for this sum. The motion was duly seconded and carried.

The report of the Neighborhood Settlement was presented by its Headworker, Mrs. Robert A. Woods. (Page 108.)

The Rev. C. H. Parlour recommended that Convention take some action on pressing social problems such as liquor control, etc., and on motion a special committee was appointed to report with such a resolution later in Convention. The Chair appointed the following Committee: The Suffragan Bishop, chairman; Rev. Messrs. Parlour, T. C. Marshall, Mrs. R. A. Woods, Messrs. W. A. Monten, C. P. Mee, J. W. Bacon and J. C. Patrick.

A motion by the Rev. P. G. M. Austin regarding the use of funds from the duplex envelopes was referred to the Committee on Dispatch of Business to be made a special order of the day.

The Rev. William Cowans moved that the salary of the Treasurer of the Diocese for the year 1935 be the same amount as paid in 1934, namely, $1,320, and that the full amount be paid from the Diocesan Fund. Carried.

The report of the Department of Missions was presented by its Secretary, the Rev. T. R. Jones. (Page 82.)

The report of the Bishop's Guild was presented by its Chairman, Mrs. Levering Moore. (Page 111.)

After customary announcements Convention adjourned until 9:30 the following day.

Second Day, January 31, 1935

Convention was called to order at 9:30 a. m. in the Cathedral House, following Morning Prayer in the Cathedral. On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with. A motion of granting the courtesy of Convention and a seat to the following visitors was adopted: Archdeacon W. H. Hawken of San Joaquin; Dr. Octavius Applegate of the Diocese of New York; Rev. H. M. Peck of Nevada; Rev. G. E. Wharton of Arizona, and Rev. C. E. Harrison of Kansas.

The first ballot was called for. Since there was a number of offices for which only the necessary number of candidates had been nominated, the Secretary was instructed in these cases to cast one unanimous ballot for these nominees. This he proceeded to do, and the Chair announced the following so elected: Lay Members of the Standing Committee: Messrs. C. M. Gair, W. A. Holt, W. F. Knight and A. W. Morgan; Registrar: Rev. Ray O. Miller. Representative on the Board of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan: Mr. C. T. Hoag. Representative on the Board of the Home for the Aged: Mr. John D. Hibbard. Representatives on the Provincial Boards: Christian Education: Rev. H. V. Harris; Social Service: Rev. T. C. Marshall; Missions: Very Rev. Harry Beal.

Dean Barnes asked the privilege of seating a delegate, Mr. A. G. Reader, who had just arrived. Carried. Rev. H. V. Harris moved that a special Committee be appointed to act on various recommendations in the Bishop's address. Carried, and the following was appointed: Rev. Messrs. Harris, Beal, Warren, and Messrs. H. L. Kellogg, C. T. Hovey and Lionel Van Deerlin.

The Rev. L. C. B. Hill moved that the Chancellor of the Diocese, the Treasurer of the Diocese, and the Treasurer of the General Church Program Committee be ex-officio of the Diocesan Convention. As this would require a change in the Canons it was referred to the Committee on Canons to report next year.

The Rev. L. E. Learned, as Chairman of the Committee on Canons, called particular attention to Section 96, of Canon XI, stating that the Senior Warden is appointed by the rector, not elected by the Vestry. He said he knew of cases where this was either not known or disregarded.

The reports of the Rural Deans were next presented. The Rev. C. L. Barnes for the Convocation of San Diego, the Rev. E. T. Lewis for the Convocation of Los Angeles, the Rev. William Cowans for the Convocation of San Bernardino, and the Rev. S. R. Hammond for the Convocation of Santa Barbara. Dean Beal moved that "Convention express to the Rural Deans the hearty appreciation of the Diocese for their leadership and care so generously given in fostering the missionary work of the Church in their several Convocations, especially in these difficult times. Carried.

The order of the day was a discussion of the motion of the

The report of the Committee on Evangelism of the General Convention was made by the Rev. George Davidson. He followed this report with a resolution "that is it the sense of this Convention that a Department of Evangelism be established as a continuing or standing committee from year to year; that the Bishop appoint a committee of seven consisting of four clergy and three laymen, and the task of this committee shall be (1) to keep before the congregations the strong and continuous presentation of the claims of our Lord on the lives of all men; and (2) to make a special effort to rouse the laity of the Church in city, town, village and rural centres to their obligations as professed Christians, to fulfill their baptismal vows with regular attendance at the Church's services, and willingness to take active part in the work of their several congregations." Carried. The Chair appointed a Committee. (Page 7.)

The report of the Seaman's Church Institute was presented by its Superintendent, the Rev. J. C. Donnell. (Page 109.) The report of the Episcopal City Mission Society was presented by its Warden, the Rev. W. E. Craig. (Page 96.) The report of St. Barnabas' House was presented also by Mr. Craig. (Page 98.) The report of the Bishop Johnson Memorial Chapel was presented by the Rev. E. T. Lewis. (Page 92.) The report of the Church Pension Fund was presented by its Chairman, Mr. C. M. Gair. (Page 91.)

The report of the Judge of Elections was now received, showing the results of the first ballot. Elected: Members of the Standing Committee: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, George Davidson, L. E. Learned and Ray O. Miller. Members of the Executive Council: Rev. Messrs. Harry Beal, George Davidson, L. E. Learned and R. O. Miller; Messrs. M. A. Albee, Thomas Fleming, Jr., G. W. Gatchell and W. A. Monten. Members of the Department of Christian Education: Rev. Messrs. H. V. Harris and T. R. Jones; Messrs. G. G. Entz and G. R. Miller. Directors of the Corporation: Rt. Rev. W. B. Stevens, Rt. Rev. R. B. Gooden, Rev. Messrs. R. O. Miller and L. E. Learned, Messrs. M. A. Albee, W. N. Howard and H. I. Thomas. Delegates to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific: Rev. Messrs.

P. G. M. Austin, E. T. Lewis and William Cowans; Messrs. M. A. Albee, G. G. Entz and W. A. Monten. The Chair declared the above named elected and Convention proceeded to cast the second ballot.

The report of the Registrar was presented by the Rev. Ray O. Miller. (Page 88.)

The hour of noon having arrived prayers for missions were read by the Rev. W. A. Wilkins.

The Rev. H. C. Smith spoke briefly on the new Discipleship leaflets being issued by the Forward Movement Committee, and the clergy were urged to order them for use during Lent.

The Rev. D. H. Dow raised the question as to whether the missionary work of the Diocese might not be furthered through the use of Associate Missions and presented the following resolution, "That the Bishop appoint a commission to study the matter of Diocesan Associate Missions, and to report to the next Convention." Carried. The Bishop appointed the Committee. (Page 7.)

The report of the Board of Examining Chaplains was presented by its Chairman, the Very Rev. Harry Beal. (Page 88.) The Bishop then reappointed as Examining Chaplains, the Very Rev. Harry Beal and the Rev. P. K. Kemp, to serve for four years. Convention ratified the appointment.

The report of the Department of Social Service was presented by its Chairman, the Rev. T. C. Marshall. (Page 85.)

The Judge of Elections reported on the second ballot as follows: No elections for Members of the Executive Council. Elected to the Department of Christian Education: Messrs. John W. Bacon and G. S. Williams. No election for Delegates to the Provincial Synod. Convention proceeded to the casting of the Third Ballot.

After the customary announcements, Convention adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

Afternoon Session

Convention reassembled at 2 p. m. and the Judge of Elections reported on the Third Ballot as follows: Member of the Executive Council: Elected, Mr. W. N. Howard. Member of the Department of Christian Education: Elected, Rev. C. H. Parlour. No election for Delegates to the Provincial Synod. Convention proceeded to the casting of the Fourth Ballot.

The report of the Hospital of the Good Samaritan was presented by the Superintendent, Mrs. Chapman, and the Secretary, the Rev. T. C. Marshall. (Page 100.)

Announcement was made of the Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion for men, and the Rev. George Davidson moved that the offering at this service, and also at special services near the date in the various parishes be devoted to this cause. Carried. Following this a further discussion of the Diocese's obligation to the General Church Program was held, and several parishes announced they would add materially to their gifts.

The Judge of Elections reported on the Fourth Ballot as follows: No election for Member of the Executive Council. Member of the Department of Christian Education: Elected, Rev. M. L. Kain. Delegate to the Provincial Synod: Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr. A motion was made that rather than take a fifth ballot, the Secretary be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for the Rev. P. A. Easley as Member of the Executive Council, and for Mr. S. W. Williams as Delegate to the Provincial Synod, these gentlemen having been highest on their ballots. The motion being unanimously carried, the Secretary cast the ballot, and the Chair announced the above named elected to those respective offices.

Nominations for Alternate Delegates to the Synod of the Province of the Pacific were now called for, and the following were nominated: Rev. Messrs. Franklin L. Gibson, Harry G. Gray, Irving Spencer and Ernest B. Smith; Messrs. C. J. O'Connor, J. P. Key, Spencer Miller, Sr., and Judge J. J. Hawkins. There being no further nominations, the Secretary was asked to cast a unanimous ballot which he did, and the Chair declared the above named elected.

The Rev. C. H. Parlour presented the report of the special Committee on Social Service and Moral Questions, as follows:

Indecent Publications

1. Whereas the magazine stands of America are flooded with obscene and indecent literature which is producing a devastating effect upon the moral life of our children; and,

2. Whereas this business for the most part thrives upon the exploitation of the tender sex life of our youth and is maintained and controlled only for a profit motive on the part of soul-less and ethically irresponsible syndicates; and,

3. Whereas much of this printed matter is without any label warning of the rankest kind of mental poison, therefore be it resolved that:

1. This convention go on record as strongly condemning this base traffic. We appeal to the Christian people in our several communities, and particularly to parents to nurture and guard their children away from this insidious danger and to use the interest and persuasion to curb the sale of such publications in their several communities even to the extent of the boycott where such extremes are necessary, and

2. Be it further resolved, that this Convention urge upon the district and prosecuting attorneys to use all available means immediately to suppress all illegal distribution and sale of such publications.

The Liquor Traffic

Whereas, the liquor traffic in the State of California, is in a deplorable and chaotic condition, causing widespread misery and harm to human life; and,

Whereas, the promises of the Repealist have not been kept whereby the traffic might be controlled and regulated; therefore, be it resolved:

1. That this convention commends every effort being made by responsible groups to arouse public opinion to the gross evils of the traffic as now conducted:

2. That we commend every legislation designed to take private profits out of the liquor traffic as an effective means of controlling same;

3. That we urge upon parents, guardians, Church Schools, and others charged with training and nurture of children to use constantly and systematically the power of education to help our growing boys and girls to safeguard themselves from the dangers of the liquor traffic.

Moving Pictures

Resolved, this convention approves the efforts of League of Decency and other groups seeking to improve the character of motion pictures and to eliminate the all too frequent obscenity and incitement to crime and indecency; and urges the speedy enactment of laws which shall prevent the use of bloc booking and blind booking and all other devices of distributors which forces the exhibition by theatres of bad pictures as the price of getting good pictures and commends the use of the boycott against offending theatres, and pictures, including the productions of actors and actresses who notoriously offend against the laws of decency and morality.

The report was adopted with many expressions of commendation, and it was moved to have it printed for general circulation, and if possible be read to the congregations.

The report of the Everyman's Offering was presented by Mr. Thomas Fleming, Jr. (Page 93.)

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocese was presented and accepted. (Page 117.)

The report of the Finance Committee was presented by Mr. H. I. Thomas. This read, $22,964.00 for the Diocesan Assessment and $36,505 for the Diocesan Missionary Assessment.

After some discussion and minor adjustments the report was adopted, and assessments ordered spread. (Pages 137 and 138.)

The report of the Corporation of the Diocese was presented by the Secretary, Mr. M. A. Albee. (Page 113.)

The Bishop announced the reappointment of Mr. Albee as Chancellor of the Diocese. Convention approved.

The report of the Historiographer was presented by the Rev. C. T. Murphy. (Page 88.) Mr. Murphy then offered the following resolution: "That the Bishop appoint a Committee of the Registrar of the Diocese, the Dean of the Cathedral, the Historiographer and such others as he may desire, to consider the collection, care and proper housing of the books and historic records belonging to or deposited with the Diocese. Adopted.

Mr. W. A. Monten moved that the Bishop appoint a commission of such members as he deems adequate to study the treatment of delinquent parishes and missions in Convention, and the principle of setting assessments, and to make report thereof to the next Convention. Carried. (Page 7.)

The Suffragan Bishop presented the report of the Bishop's School for Girls. (Page 106.) The Suffragan Bishop next presented the report of the Harvard School for Boys. (Page 107.) The report of the Girls' Friendly Society was read by the Secretary, and accepted. (Page 111.) The Secretary of the Church Extension Society, Mr. M. A. Albee presented a verbal report of that Society, and then placed in nomination the present Directors of the Society for re-election. Convention approved, and the seven gentlemen were re-elected. (Pages 4 and 90.)

The report of the Auditing Committee was presented by its Chairman, Mr. Henry E. Brett. (Page 136.) In calling upon Mr. Brett the Bishop drew attention to his long term of service, and Mr. Brett responded saying that he had attended 31 of the 36 Conventions of the Diocese and had only missed one since his first attendance. Convention gave a rising vote of thanks and appreciation to Mr. Brett for his long and faithful service.

The report of the special committee on the Bishop's Address was presented by the Rev. H. V. Harris as follows: "This Committee wishes to approve very enthusiastically the program suggested in the Bishop's annual address with its statesmanlike plan for the forward movement in the Diocese. Especially the Committee reports on the matter of Diocesan and Parish indebtedness. We recommend that this proposal be referred to the Executive Council with the recommendation that this Council set in motion as soon as possible a plan by which the gross indebtedness of the Diocese, and the Corporation Sole, and the Parishes be better financed, with a common plan for orderly reduction, with a further plan for corporate carrying of the indebtedness. We suggest that the Executive Council set up at once a special committee augmented by members outside the Council with the request that complete plans be presented to the next Convention.

We are laying special emphasis upon this point as the Committee feels that there is one of the central reasons for the financial problems of the Diocese and Parishes, and that these problems including gifts for missions would be much relieved and gifts increased if this matter can be adjusted." The report was accepted and referred to the Executive Council.

The Very Rev. Harry Beal presented the following resolution of condolence, "Resolved, that the affectionate greetings and wishes of Convention be sent to our absent and ill brethren, in particular to Chaplain Hubbard with congratulations on his attainment of ninety years. Also to the Rev. Messrs. F. J. Bate, G. E. Cornell, I. Holgate, R. H. Balcom, C. H. Hibbard, R. S. Chase, G. E. MacDougall, W. L. H. Benton, C. E. Spalding, E. B. Mott and B. M. Hause." Adopted and the Secretary was asked to write them letters expressing this sentiment.

The Rev. C. A. Parlour offered a resolution asking the Secretary to write letters of greeting to two members from the Diocese now at work in New York City, the Rev. C. R. Barnes and the Rev. H. H. Kelley. Adopted.

The Rev. S. C. Clark, Jr., moved that resolutions of thanks be extended to St. Paul's Cathedral, Dean Beal and the Vestry, and to all who had labored so thoughtfully to accommodate the Convention. Dean Beal amended the motion to include thanks to St. Athanasius Parish for the loan of sixty chairs. The amendment and motion were carried.

After the singing of the "Gloria in Excelsis" the Bishop pronounced the benediction and Convention adjourned, on motion, subject to the call of the Bishop.

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

Convention, 1935

NECROLOGY

The following Bishops of the Church have entered into life eternal since the last Convention:

The Right Reverend Edward Campion Acheson, D.D., Sixth Bishop of Connecticut;

The Right Reverend William Frederick Faber, D.D., Third Bishop of Montana;

The Right Reverend James Dow Morrison, D.D., LL.D., First Bishop of Duluth;

The Right Reverend Walter Henry Overs, S.T.D., Ph.D., Fifth Bishop of Liberia;

The Right Reverend Henry Bond Restarick, D.D., First American Missionary Bishop of Honolulu, and formerly Rector of St. Paul's Church, San Diego.

The Right Reverend Boyd Vincent, D.D., Second Bishop of Southern Ohio.

The Rev. John K. Burleson, D.D., Vicar of Trinity Church, Escondido;

The Rev. George R. E. MacDonald, D.D., Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Alhambra;

The Rev. Timon E. Owens, formerly Rector of the Church of the Ascension, Los Angeles, and although in the practice of law in late years, a faithful supply priest and locum tenens;

The Rev. Allan L. Burleson, Vicar of All Saints' Church, Oxnard;

The Rev. Harold K. Stanley, Vicar of St. Bartholomew's Mission, El Sereno.

Other deaths recorded with sorrow are those of Sister Emily Caroline, parish worker at St. Matthias' Church, Los Angeles; Sister Mary Josephine, for many years parish worker at St. John's Church, Los Angeles, and the following former delegates to the Convention who have died during the year.

William R. Albee, Albert M. Colegrove, Peter T. Carter, George Leslie Stephens, Albert G. Stoltz, Arthur W. Swain, Alexander Stewart Thompson, Walter S. Entz, W. H. Fillmore, L. F. Foster, Alec B. Francis, Henry L. Graham, Gordon Grenville Whyte, Edward Chester Widner, John N. Huehn, William A. Lum, Thomas Henry Page, Herbert Edmund Preston.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them."

Clerical Changes

The following clerical changes have been made during the year:

Resignations: The Rev. Harry B. Lee from Beaumont-

Banning; the Rev. W. L. H. Benton from La Crescenta; the Rev. J. Lindsay Patton from San Bernardino; the Rev. W. B. Belliss from the County and City Mission Society, San Diego; the Rev. Anthony H. Dexter from the Episcopal City Mission, Los Angeles; the Rev. F. Murray Clayton from Wilmington; the Rev. Harold H. Kelley from the Harvard School; the Rev. W. A. Thomas from Needles, and the Rev. Richard Gushee from Ontario.

Appointments: The Rev. M. G. Tennyson to Alhambra; the Rev. R. Dunham Taylor to Beaumont-Banning; the Rev. Robert MacL. Key to Brawley; the Rev. J. Gaynor Banks to Chula Vista; the Rev. Harry B. Lee to Escondido; the Rev. William E. Craig to the Episcopal City Mission, Los Angeles; the Rev. M. K. P. Brannan to the Curacy of St. John's Church Los Angeles; the Rev. John DeForrest Pettus to the Rectorship of All Saints' Church, Montecito; the Rev. Ralph J. Rohr to Christ Church, Ontario; the Rev. H. Randolph Moore to St. Philip's Church, Los Angeles; the Rev. W. A. Thomas to San Bernardino.

Deacons: Thomas R. Marshall, R. Dunham Taylor, Reginald Heber Gooden, Sturgis M. Riddle, Lester V. Wiley, David W. C. Graham.

Priests; George West Barret, Henry F. Softley, Robert MacL. Key.

Transfers have been issued to the following: the Rev. J. Lindsay Patton to the Diocese of California; the Rev. Harold H. Kelley to the Diocese of New York; the Rev. Philip M. Styles to the Diocese of New York.

The following have been accepted from other dioceses: the Rev. H. Randolph Moore from the Diocese of Atlanta; the Rev. Arthur T. Reasoner from the Diocese of Bethlehem; the Rev. M. G. Tennyson from the Missionary District of Eastern Oregon; the Rev. William A. Thomas from the Missionary District of Arizona.

One of the resignations deserves special comment that of the Rev. Richard H. Gushee, who for forty years has been rector of Christ Church, Ontario, a record in this diocese and one rarely equalled in the whole Anglican Communion. Next to Canon Fletcher who was received into the Diocese of California in 1886, Father Gushee is the oldest priest in point of canonical residence in Southern California. We are proud to register our appreciation of this long term of service and happy to know that Father Gushee will continue his work under the title of Rector Emeritus and will maintain his residence at the rectory.

Parish Equipment

There has been less building than usual during the year. St. Columba's Chapel at the Cathedral has been erected as a gift from and memorial to Mr. and Mrs. Melmon L. Fletcher, two of the most devoted lay people it has been my privilege to know. It will be a needed and useful addition both for the diocese and the cathedral parish. The new St. Luke's Church, Long Beach, was completed and dedicated during the past summer. We congratulate the rector and people of Long Beach on this fine achievement. Both the Cathedral Chapel and St. Luke's are notable in their architecture and are fine additions to the many creditable churches in the diocese. Grace Church, Glendora, has erected a new parish house and All Saints' Church, Montecito, a new rectory. The Church of the Redeemer, Los Angeles has acquired, with the assistance of Mr. George Campbell, a house to serve as rectory. The Mission of the Holy Apostles, Los Angeles, has built a commodious and substantial chapel.

Institutions

The Hospital of the Good Samaritan has rendered a larger measure of service this year than has before been possible during the last six years. The Bishop's School for Girls has maintained itself on a reduced enrollment with no serious financial problems, and the completion of the new library, the gift of Mr. Wheeler J. Bailey, has added greatly to the effectiveness of the school's equipment. The Harvard School, following the resignation of the Rev. Harold H. Kelley, has been in charge of Bishop Gooden who has generously and loyally assumed the additional duties involved. It has been a wonderful thing for the School because it would have been next to impossible to secure another capable person to step in at short notice. The property situation is still a bewildering and acute one. The final outcome, we hope, will be favorable but we cannot be sure. We rejoice that the Diocese has been able to provide a Superintendent for the great Seamen's Church Institute of New York, in the person of Mr. Kelley. Our own Seamen's Church Institute has had to face new conditions and problems due to the assumption by the Government of all feeding and housing for seamen at San Pedro. The Church Home for Children, the Home for the Aged and the Neighborhood Settlement have carried on excellent work during the year, made somewhat more difficult by increased taxes. The City Mission Society and St. Barnabas' House have had an excellent year, and the Rev. W. E. Craig's appointment as Warden has proved to be a wise one. New features of the work are the administration of the Clothing Bureau (long maintained by the Bishop's Guild) and the use of a number of our faithful parish clergy as chaplains of the Society. The Girls' Friendly Society Lodge shows greatly increased activity. Its interest on outstanding notes cannot be met but the value of the property is such that note holders will ultimately be reimbursed in full, we believe. The Bishop's Guild has had a most useful year under the chairmanship of Mrs. Levering Moore.

In connection with our institutional work we are to give special attention in Los Angeles to problems of Child Welfare, Family Welfare, Health and Character Building. These are fundamental social questions which church leaders in other urban areas may do well to consider. In Los Angeles there will be a series of four dinner meetings to hear experts on these topics.

Our Program

For several years we have deliberately held in abeyance plans for the extension of our Diocesan work. We have felt that parochial needs and emergencies were so great that it would be unstatesmanlike to focus attention upon Diocesan financial interests. It now seems the opportune time to present a program that will give us reasonable objectives during the next three or four years.

Diocesan Anniversary

The first part of this program is to be a celebration to mark the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the Diocese. The preliminary Convention was held on the 3rd and 4th of December in 1895. It was at that Convention that Bishop Johnson was elected. I am happy to announce to you that the Presiding Bishop has accepted an invitation to be present to help us to observe this anniversary. The plans will include a great diocesan service in St. Paul's Cathedral on the evening of December 1st, a noon-day service on Tuesday, December 3rd, and a great dinner on the evening of Monday, December 2.

1935 also marks the eightieth anniversary of the first service of our church in Los Angeles and the seventieth of the founding of the Cathedral Parish, also the fifth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Gooden as well as the thirtieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. It is also the fifteenth anniversary of my own consecration and the twenty-fifth anniversary of my ordination to the diaconate. It has seemed wise not to plan for any special observance of these anniversaries, but if the diocese is agreeable we shall have them as a part of the general anniversary celebration.

During the course of this Convention the appropriate committees will be appointed.

Anniversary of Bishop Johnson's Consecration

For 1936 I propose a general observance on St. Matthias' Day, or the Sunday nearest to St. Matthias' Day, of the 40th anniversary of the Consecration of the First Bishop of the Diocese. The Right Reverend Joseph Horsfall Johnson was consecrated at Christ Church, Detroit, on St. Matthias' Day, February 24th, 1896. Not only is the anniversary of the first Bishop important, but our great admiration and affection for Bishop Johnson would give it special significance. I ask for a special committee to consider the observance of this anniversary with special reference not only to its observance but also to some special way of marking it. The Memorial at Westwood should be completed some time by the erection of a commodious church. There is also grave need for increasing the Episcopate Endowment. Our present assessment method of supporting the diocese puts too great a strain on the parishes and missions. One or both of these needs should be placed before the diocese as a real opportunity of expressing our love and admiration of that great Christian gentleman who for thirty-two years guided the destinies of the diocese.

Diocesan Indebtedness

The next part of our plan is the elimination of all diocesan indebtedness. This includes five thousand dollars by the Department of Missions and over fifty thousand dollars incurred by various congregations in the name of the Bishop of the Diocese as corporation sole. This will entail a great deal of work, with the assumption of more initiative on the part of the mission congregations than some of them have yet shown. In more prosperous days churches were built and the debt assumed in the name of the Bishop as corporation sole. With decreased income many are no longer willing or able to pay these amounts. I have done the best I could with the aid of the Doolittle Fund to meet some of these obligations.

Parish Indebtedness

I ask furthermore, that there be a general movement towards the liquidation of all parochial debts and that each parish desiring to share in this concerted movement indicate what its objectives will be. I cannot but believe that a united attempt to meet our obligations will have added momentum and power. It will be, so to speak, a Diocesan Wide Campaign, with no high pressure methods. The question may well be asked, however, as to whether there are any special methods by which our objectives may be met.

Bishop's Pence

Since the inception of the Bishop's Pence Campaign in Chicago, I have given it careful consideration. My first impression was unfavorable. It seemed to me to be lacking in impressiveness and dignity that one should expect in church giving. My feeling has changed, however, partly because the plan has worked out so successfully in the Diocese of Chicago and partly because I have come to see that our present method of giving is on a very inadequate basis. Seventeen thousand, for instance, given to General Missions is slightly over a cent a week from each communicant. The Bishop's Pence plan, with its small contributions at each meal, certainly would put missionary giving on a much more dignified plan than that.

I am entirely open in my mind, however, as to the adoption of the plan and as to just how it should be used in case we should adopt it. My proposal, however, is that as an experiment we use it in Lent, or some other stated period, for those parishes and individuals who are willing to try to raise what is needed over and above the amount pledged for the General Church Program. As will be reported to you, we need $4,000.00 to make up the $21,250.00 which your delegates hoped might be raised and which is our legitimate share of the emergency budget of the general church. My thought is that we could use the Bishop's Pence receptacles during Lent, or at some time as a parallel for adults to the children's Mite Box Offering: then, on the basis of our experience, determine whether we shall make them a permanent feature of our work, either for parochial needs or diocesan needs or as, in the case of Chicago, a combination of the two. May I remind you that this means only a penny per meal and that the amount given in that way is so small that it could not possibly interfere with other gifts. If the Convention is willing to elect or have appointed a committee to consider this, we can at least bring before the Executive Council a simple method that may help us to carry some of the burdens, or perhaps a committee on the Bishop's address might consider this in connection with the whole program.

Missionary Giving

Another factor in our program will be a determination to get our gifts to general missions up to something approaching our former level. It is something of a shock to realize that our gifts for general missions have dropped back to our 1919 standard. Since 1919 we have had a very definite program of missionary education which resulted in the generous gifts that we made during the Golden Decade. I cannot believe that our generosity was the mere result of abundance. It came as a response to our very active educational propaganda. We are justified in assuming, therefore, that as money becomes more plentiful, a return to our former scale of giving ought to be possible without a repetition of all the costly educational processes. This year we are trying to increase 25 percent in order to meet our share of the emergency budget. I suggest as an objective that during 1936 we try for a fifteen percent increase and in 1937 another increase of 25 percent. Since by the action of the Convention the responsibility for the amount of the apportionment has been put upon the diocese, we might give careful consideration to the whole matter, and what I have suggested seems to me to be a reasonable and attainable ideal towards which to work. A part of our plan is emphasis upon education in practical matters of diocesan administration. Recently we discovered at a meeting of the Executive Council that money had been coming in so slowly from the parishes that only fifty dollars was on hand to pay salaries. This necessitated four meetings, one in each convocation. There was an immediate response from each congregation which enabled us to pay the stipends in full before Christmas. The statement was made, however, by many of the laymen at those meetings, that they knew nothing about the situation or our diocesan responsibilities. From the meetings of the Executive Council there has emerged a definite desire for schools of instruction. The Rural Dean of San Bernardino Convocation and the Suffragan Bishop have, on a number of occasions, expressed themselves as favoring such a plan. We shall have, therefore, during the season of 1935-36 a series of schools of instruction for vestries. This will include during the year about twelve sessions in the Convocation of Los Angeles; two in San Bernardino Convocation; three in San Diego Convocation and two in Santa Barbara Convocation. The need of schools will be dependent upon geographical and other factors, the hope being that every warden and vestryman would have a chance to attend at least one session. The leaders will be those versed in diocesan and general church administration and the subjects will cover such topics as these:

"What is the duty of a vestryman?"

"What is the difference between a Mission and a parish?"

"What are our diocesan and general church responsibilities?"

"For what is the money spent," and such other topics on which vestrymen should be informed. These schools of instruction should begin in October, and since their success will depend upon a full attendance, I ask the hearty co-operation of the clergy and laity.

The Pension Fund

As a feature of this educational program special attention will be given to the Church Pension Fund. The success of the Fund administration has enabled it to give a special gift of a thousand dollars to the widow of a clergyman who dies in active service. It has also enabled certain pensions to be increased beyond the minimum amount. The granting of these special privileges is predicated on a complete participation in every diocese by every parish. The Fund has recently reaffirmed in stronger form its previous decision that these advantages would not be available in any diocese where there are parishes more than six months delinquent. The situation in our own diocese has been bad. On the death of one of our Priests recently there were five parishes delinquent for a year or more. Under the conditions the widow could not receive the thousand dollar grant. After a diligent solicitation of these parishes enough was finally paid in to remove the diocese from the serious delinquent list, and after representations to the Pension Fund, the money was paid. This is not the first time this has happened. There are several reasons why it must not happen again: 1—The helpfulness of such a grant depends upon its immediacy. It is in the period of emergency that it has its greatest value. 2—It is too great a burden upon the Pension Fund Committee to try to collect large sums of money on short notice. 3—The tax on the parish is too great to have to pay out several hundred dollars at one time. Monthly payments of the premium would obviate all of these difficulties. I would like to register my appreciation of the fine work that Mr. Colin M. Gair has done in behalf of the fund. It has been a labor of love on his part done as service to the Fund and to the clergymen of the diocese. It is with no thought of criticism but merely of simple justice that I say the rectors and vestries should meet his suggestions and those of the authorities of the fund in New York with cordiality and co-operation. There is no justification for edginess or non-co-operation in a matter that is of primary concern to the clergyman himself and to the parish which he serves.

Preaching

The need of emphasis upon the prophetic ministry is apparent to us all. To meet this need I have established the Pacific Conferences on Preaching. For the first session the Conferences are primarily one and two-day sessions, especially for the younger clergy. Our thought has been that we might supplement here on the Pacific Coast the work of the College of Preachers of Washington. Bishop Rhinelander, Warden of the College of Preachers has given the plan here his cordial approval and he is serving as Advisor. Conferences will be added to those already scheduled if there is sufficient demand for them. The plan will be thoroughly tested out over a three year period, and while provincial in its appeal, it will be a part of our diocesan program.

Two of the one-day Conferences have been held with, I think, a good deal of satisfaction to those attending. Among our leaders are included: Bishop Gooden, Dean Beal, Canon Learned and Mr. Austin. Outside leaders will be invited as the opportunity offers. The only requirement for admission to the Conferences is the approval of the Bishop of the Diocese from which the man comes.

It is a fair question as to whether these things have any unity or common factor that will make them a program in the true sense of the term. I place no false emphasis on them and realize that they are only manifestations in the realm of methods, of Christian purpose and ecclesiastical need. The unity is apparent, however. Our anniversary celebration will be the seal of our gratitude towards God and the earnest of our determination to inaugurate a new era of service for Him. The elimination of debts is necessary for the removal of that stress and strain that have worried and handicapped us for five years. A new allegiance to the cause of Missions is only a determination to fulfill obligations which we have not been meeting of late. Education and preaching are to point the way to great victories for Christ. Uninformed people and dull sermons are barriers to the progress of the Army of Christ. Christ must be the vital principle of everything that makes life worth living. Nothing is worth anything except as it is related to that principle. A program of work, therefore, cannot be merely a set of directions as to how to make the ecclesiastical machinery run. It is rather a poor sort of sign post to roads that lead to activity in behalf of Christ, to the calm of the Divine presence, and to the realization that He and the Father are one.

And this is our ultimate and all embracing program, That we should believe on the name of God's Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another as He gave us commandment. "Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world, and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith."

SUFFRAGAN BISHOP'S ADDRESS

If we saw an army of over five hundred thousand young people march down one of our streets we would be amazed at the size of it and at the cause which drew them together. While this great army is scattered in different parts of our country, it marches in large part to our Church Schools each Sunday, to receive instruction in the ways of the Church and to become on closer terms with the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. According to the latest figures this mighty army of young people numbers 510,309. In this Diocese there are 10,978 young people in our Church Schools, a number which equals the population of many of our moderate sized towns in Southern California. This creates opportunity not to be despised for building and strengthening the Church of God. The smallest Church School is just as much a part of the whole as the largest and should be treated with equal earnestness, sincerity, and intelligence. A Church School should never be treated as a necessary evil, a mere conventional adjunct to greater parochial affairs, or as something of slight importance, but as the most constructive side of parish work. We have all heard of the intense use made of education of young people in Russia, to teach them atheism and to destroy, if possible, all thought of God forever. If we used the diligence and fervor to build up which they use to tear down, a new day for Christianity might dawn, because of a new generation of people who are not religiously illiterate but truly educated and trained in our Most Holy Faith.

We would suggest greater effort in at least three directions. There should be a renewed effort to increase the enrollment in our Church Schools, and to experiment with branch schools. There should be at least three times as many young people under instruction than there are now. We could accommodate them and ways could be formed of instructing them. Probably half the children in the country are not under any religious instruction whatsoever, so the reservoir from which to draw is more than ample. If we reach out for children of Church families only, our work will be little more than static. If we are to grow we must bring in the children not now under religious instruction. Through them we can often influence unchurched parents. We had the privilege recently of visiting one of the smallest missions in the Diocese and confirming a father, a mother, a twin boy and girl and two boys, all in one family. The father told us that he had lived in that vicinity several years, but that lately one of his children had become interested in the little Church School with the result that the whole family were confirmed together. We would urge upon Rectors and Vestries the use of intensive effort to treble the size of our Church Schools. Many of our efforts are for the securing of funds. Here is one that costs little or nothing. Let us not by inaction or neglect forbid the children to come to Him through the Church.

An effort should be made also to build up adult Bible Classes. This field is ripe to the harvest as is evidenced by the ready desire of groups of adults to gather together for religious purposes. We would be surprised to know what a response we could secure from our adults for the study of the Bible. We have had recent evidence of this in two places, one under lay leadership, and one under clerical leadership. Certainly no Church places the Bible in the forefront as much as we do, and almost equally certainly no Church makes so few opportunities for group adult Bible study as we do. It is an almost untouched field of religious education.

An effort should be made to revive the use of mid-week meetings for training in spiritual things and for the upbuilding of the spiritual life. We are careful and busy about many things and fail to choose the good part. Now that evening services are so largely discontinued we have many groups of parish buildings unused most of the time except for social and so-called churchwork purposes. We recall a church that had a week night prayer meeting for study in prayer, the sharing of a common experience in prayer, and the practice of prayer with a regular attendance of about a hundred people. Here again is a fruitful field of religious education. It will take only a little thought and imagination to see the possibilities of mid-week meetings. They could easily become true church group movements which would build up many in the knowledge of God.

We have used the word effort in mentioning these three ways of developing the field of religious education. Our Lord said the Kingdom of Heaven is taken by violence. That is, those who use effort and press their way capture the Kingdom. We cannot hope even to take care of our own, unless of set purpose and intelligent real effort we go out into the field with a bigger program of religious education. Our Department of Christian Education gives devoted effort and consecrated intelligence to this subject as their report will show, but the real leadership must be in the parishes. While we thank God for what we have done, we must push forward.

We hope that you will give good heed to the report of the Department of Social Service and to the report of the Episcopal City Mission Society, and to the other reports which tell of the practical social welfare work of the Church. This year an advance has been made by the formation of the Episcopal Welfare Federation which has brought together all our social welfare units into one group. In this way a united front has been created and the realization of the power of a common cause. Another advance lies in the larger organization of the Episcopal City Mission Society under the administrative genius of the Warden. This need not be described here. Suffice it to say that lost motion is at a minimum and the mobility and efficiency of the Society through a large staff of chaplains, placed at strategic points, has been increased five fold. Every dollar given to the work does a maximum amount of good. We would urge our people to become familiar with our social service institutions and to support them with gifts and prayers. If you have a special interest in one group, then help support that group through our Church institution now working in that field. The Church Home for Children or the Home for the Aged are cases in point.

We would call your attention again to the seriousness of the liquor traffic problem. A wringing wet Chicago paper in a recent editorial bitterly complains that not one promise of the repealists has been kept. The deaths through automobile accidents increased during the first year of repeal from 30,000 to 36,000 due to the liquor traffic. That is, the traffic has put into their graves 6,000 human beings in one year of legal business. A client of one of our Diocesan Social Service Institutions said that it was extremely easy to get a drink of liquor in Los Angeles, but hard to get a cup of coffee. It is not possible to control the uncontrollable. Any method is probably objectionable. There should be a kind of Monroe Doctrine of the Liquor Traffic. We should declare that such a traffic is not a fit subject for the making of private profits. The chief evils of liquor come from the profits which are so easily available. The profits should be removed from the traffic. This would in effect put the state into the liquor business, but that would be better than having it in the hands of a horde of conscienceless, irresponsible profit-mongers. It would give a measure of control and some features of dignity and decorum to the traffic. This of course must be balanced and safeguarded by sound education upon the effects of alcohol on the human body and especially on the human brain for which it has an uncanny affinity. We would urge your support to the efforts now being made in our public school system to bring the power of scientific education to bear upon this problem. There are many excellent scientific thoroughly modern books now available. It is a scientific problem in one sense, but it is a religious problem also in its bearing upon wasted human life, the lives for whom Christ died. "No drunkard shall inherit the Kingdom of Heaven," said the great Apostle. For a Church which must preach the glad tidings of the Kingdom of Heaven to neglect this problem is really unthinkable. I would here commend the Los Angeles Times which has consistently taken a magnificent stand on this problem, a stand which is beyond all praise.

As we look at the nation it is apparent that we are becoming more Christian in our attitude towards the old, the helpless, the unemployed, the children, and the destitute mothers. Necessity may be one reason for this but I think it is the constant impact of the Christian prophet upon a hard society that has brought this about. We are at last doing something about the charter of Christ which he laid down and which is recorded in the Fourth Chapter of St. Luke's Gospel. We feel greatly encouraged and we would commend sound, honest, legislative effort for human betterment and protection to your careful attention and wise support. We must feel our way by the scientific method of trial and error, but the principles we seek to establish are truly in accord with the mind of Christ. In a recent editorial the Church Times of London, England, which is the organ of the Anglo-Catholics took a survey of the present struggle in the United States. The conclusion was that we are concerned in this country not to destroy democracy, but to recondition it, so that social progress and the well-being of the poor are secured. We are, that is to say, engaged in a Christian revolution. A Christian revolution is the only kind of revolution we need. A world Christian revolution would save the world.

This leads me to my final word. The task of making disciples of all nations is the supreme privilege of the Church. There can be no Christianizing of the social order of of anything else unless the Church obeys this command of Her Master. A little reflection will show that it is a contradiction that there should be even one member of Christ's Church who does not believe in Missions. It is thinkable to criticize methods, expenditures, and missionaries themselves. The human element in the work will always make mistakes. Criticisms if genuine and sound will slowly correct mistakes. The great purpose of missions and the work as a whole are above and beyond criticism. They demand deservedly the support of every member of Christ's Church. A baptized Christian who says he does not believe in missions and by that statement lightly justifies lack of interest and lack of support, stands convicted at one end of the scale of mid-Victorianism at its worst and at the other end of flat disobedience to Our Lord. My only excuse for such people is that they have not thought the thing through honestly and that they have grown up in the Church without ever discovering that there was a missionary cause.

We are glad to tell you that the Diocese has kept faith and paid its 1934 pledge for missions, but when we tell you that the pledge was only $17,000 you can see why we take no pride at all in the pledge. If the Church is to hold the position already taken with no abandonment of missionary work, pledges to missions must be increased by twenty-five per cent over 1934. If we do our part we must pledge $21,250 for 1935. Your delegation at General Convention signed a statement that they hoped and expected that this might be our pledge, subject to the action of Convention. At present it looks as if we could not pledge more than $14,000, which means retreat for the Church as far as this Diocese is concerned. I have great confidence in the laymen. I hope the laymen at this Convention will not allow Christ to be defeated and to retreat in foreign lands. I hope they will take the stand at this Convention with enthusiasm, moved by the Spirit of God, that a pledge of $21,250 for missions must be made and secured for 1935. Men of this Convention! We cannot make this pledge unless you back it up and mean it. If you say it will be done it will be done. I hope that God will put it into the hearts of a group of men who hear me now to resolve that this pledge shall not go by default. The Bible tells us of a "band of men whose hearts God had touched." The result was that they were invincible in the cause of God for which they stood.

I pray that every parish and mission in the Diocese may become more and more on fire with missionary zeal. I pray that at least four times a year missionary services may be held with special preparation for each one. I pray that each month a gift may be sent out for missions amounting to at least one-twelfth of the pledge for the year. I pray that the missionary spirit of this Diocese may be so obvious to all that he who runs may read. Missions, the sign of a living Church, a growing Church, a progressive Church, an obedient Church, a Bible Church, an Apostolic Church, a Catholic Church, a Saving Church.

1934 REPORTS OF WORK

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE FOR 1934

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Los Angeles held eight meetings during 1934, including the one held in January of 1935 before Convention.

The following were recommended to the Bishop as Candidates for Holy Orders: Mr. Elmer Frank Gorman and Mr. William Reid Hammond.

Recommendations were made to the Bishop that the following Candidates for Holy Orders be ordered Deacons: Mr. Sturgis Lee Riddle, Mr. Thomas R. Marshall, Mr. David W. C. Graham, Mr. Reginald Heber Gooden, Mr. R. Dunham Taylor, and Mr. Lester W. Wiley.

The following were recommended to the Bishop to be advanced to the Priesthood: The Rev. George Barrett, the Rev. Henry Frank Softley, the Rev. Robert M. Key.

The Bishop reported that he had referred the case of the Rev. George Clark to his own Bishop for action.

The application of the Rev. Merl Kenneth Patrick Brannon, Roman Priest, to be received into communion with this Church by the Bishop, was approved. The Rev. Mr. Brannon was received into communion with this Church in St. John's Church on Palm Sunday, March 25, 1934, by Bishop Gooden acting for the Bishop in the presence of Dr. Davidson, the Rev. E. E. Kizer of the Diocese of Michigan, the Rev. Mr. Brannon making the promise of conformity to the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of this Church, and renouncing the authority of the Roman Communion.

The application of Miss Edith Tyler to be set apart as a Deaconess was approved.

A resolution was passed recommending to the Bishop that it is inexpedient to admit for Candidacy for Ordination men who are not prepared to pursue the normal collegiate and seminary training as canonically required.

Approval was given to the Rector and Vestry of St. Mark's Parish, Glendale to renew its mortgage with the Security First National Bank for $2,500.00.

RAY O. MILLER, Secretary

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council of the Diocese met monthly through 1934, except in July and August, with an average attendance of twelve members.

In May the Rev. S. R. Hammond became an ex-officio member following his election as Rural Dean of the Convocation of Santa Barbara. In September the Rev. Harold H. Kelley resigned as Secretary of the Council and of the Department of Diocesan Missions consequent to his acceptance of the office of Superintendent of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York City. The Rev. T. Raymond Jones was elected Secretary of the Department of Diocesan Missions by the Department and became an ex-officio member of the Council.

For a second year a special Whitsunday offering of $4,000 was authorized and urged to meet the prospective deficit for 1934 in the Diocesan and Diocesan Missionary Funds. $2,300 was raised.

Approval was given to the plan of the "Every Layman Offering" for the deficit of the National Council and to the appointment of a laymen's committee to carry out the project. The Committee's efforts resulted in offerings of more than $8,000.

At the November meeting it was resolved that $33,000 be spread as an ideal at which parishes and missions shall aim in the giving for the General Church Program for 1935.

The Council recommends to the Convention that the Diocesan Assessment for 1935 be set at $20,600 and that the Diocesan Missionary Assessment for 1935 be $33,000, which are the same amounts as last year; and further, that the Executive Council be empowered to reduce expenditures as may be found necessary.

PHILIP A. EASLEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

The Department of Missions has held ten meetings during the current year and has made the regular appropriations for thirty-two missionaries and two lay workers, together with those made for the student work at the University Religious Conference at the University of California at Los Angeles. Five missionaries are supported entirely by the pledges from their missions.

Two changes have occurred in the office of the Secretary, Rev. Philip Easley resigning in February after twelve years of most faithful service and Rev. Harold Kelley offering his resignation later in the year on account of his removal from the diocese.

A number of changes in the personnel of the missionaries and in the arrangement of the grouping of the missions has taken place. Rev. R. Dunham Taylor is now serving Beaumont, Banning and Colton; Rev. Robert Key serves the mission at Brawley, while Mr. Bailey continues the work at the other Imperial Valley stations. Rev. Harry B. Lee is now in charge of the work at Escondido and Vista, left vacant by the death of Dr. Burleson last February. This Department notes also with deep regret the death of his brother, Rev. A. L. Burleson, Missionary of our Church in Oxnard. The work at Torrance has been separated from that at Wilmington which is now served by Rev. Thomas C. Marshall. Owing to the continued illness of Rev. Mr. Stanley, St. Bartholomew's Mission, El Sereno, is ministered to by Rev. Mr. Darneille and Rev. Mr. Foote.

The work of St. Mary's Japanese Mission continues on the same high plane and the work among our colored people is not only in splendid condition but the year is marked with the establishment of a new mission, St. Martin's Watts, under the leadership of Rev. Mr. Currer. Rev. Mr. Moore assumed the charge of St. Philip's Church, Los Angeles, at the beginning of the year.

The Department feels that there are many favorable improvements to be noted in the Missionary work. The Mission at Elsinore is paying the complete stipend of the priest. At St. Michael's, Eastmont, land has been purchased and a permanent building erected. Coupled with these noteworthy facts is the remarkable spirit of the leaders of our missionary work. In very trying situations they have served valiantly and with vision. Certainly they are worthy examples to the parishes. In two instances the Vicars have remitted to their missions large amounts of their unpaid stipends in order that the members of their congregations might feel that their sharing of the burden was real and to give courage to fight on. Other cases might be given of great sacrifices and devotion.

The Department of Missions appreciates the high type of service and leadership given by the missionaries and the whole-hearted response of their congregations to their work. Many of the pledges from the missions have been increased. Indeed, we should bear in mind that the missions have made an effort on the payment of assessments equal to, if not in excess of that of parishes.

During this year of testing the Department believes that the record of our missionary work is unique among the dioceses of the Church. No missionary has been sacrificed and due to the grouping of the work the missionary enterprise of the diocese has been conducted with a minimum of expense. However, in calling attention to these commendable features of the work, the Department would also register its dissatisfaction with the smallness of the missionary stipends, due only to the lack of funds and at the same time emphasize its desire to maintain at least the minimum stipend.

At present fifteen missionaries receive a stipend of from $1,750 to $1,850; five of from $1,400 to $1,650; seven from $1,080 to $1,350, and six receive less than $1,000 a year.

In closing it is important to note that for the year 1935 only the Department has departed in some instances from the principle adopted and announced in last year's report of a percentage reduction of the appropriations, and instead, has adopted an arbitrary sum as the amount of the reduction, because the particular conditions seemed to warrant it.

T. RAYMOND JONES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

This year we adopted the same policy as we used for the past several years in dividing the work of the Department, the work being divided between the following Commissions: The Church School; Young People's Work; College Work and Adult Education, with the Summer School Committee and the Rally Day Committee.

The attendance on Educational Day in Convention week was larger than usual.

At the request of the Y. P. F., there was held on Sunday, April 8th, at the Cathedral, a meeting under the auspices of the Department, for all the young people in the Diocese.

The Annual Church School Rally was held in St. Paul's Cathedral on Sunday, April 29th, at 3 P. M. The offerings reported at this service amounted to $5,953.86.

Through the kindness of Rev. H. H. Kelley, Headmaster of Harvard School, all the facilities of the School were again offered to the Department for the use of the Summer School, which was held from Sunday, June 24th, to Friday, June 29th.

There were 344 present; 108 for the full time and 151 for part time; Clergy, Deaconesses, etc., 62; Faculty and Committee, 23.

The Department with the consent of Bishop Stevens sent letters to all the Clergy asking that all Church Schools observe the Second Sunday in Advent as Diocesan Missionary Day and to make a special offering for that object.

The work of the Commission on College Work is being extended here in the Diocese and there is now work in this connection being done at three of the local colleges.

The Young People's Fellowship has been entirely reorganized and has taken on a larger and more extended usefulness among the young people of the Diocese.

The Department wishes to call attention to the Plays and Pageants which it has secured for the use of any needing them. Also a list of books suitable for reference in connection with Church School Teaching and Administration has been compiled.

The Church Service League under the direction of Deaconess Reardon has accomplished a considerable amount of work. As in former years Christmas boxes have been sent to various Mission Stations of our Church. The Birthday Thank Offering for the year totals $255.22.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICE

The responsibilities of the Department according to the canon are two-fold:

(1) It has a certain advisory relation to the social institutions of the Diocese. It is to visit them, to study their work and their needs; and to recommend measures to promote their efficiency and their co-ordination with other agencies. The Department in the discharge of its duty in this regard has fostered the organization of the "Episcopal Welfare Federation," a delegated body representing all the social agencies of the Diocese. This Federation has met regularly throughout the year, has appointed certain committees such as a Taxation, Publicity, Purchasing, and a Speaker's Bureau. As time goes on it will make itself more and more felt in the life of the Diocese.

(2) The Department is also charged with definite responsibilities in the field of social service conceived of in the larger sense as the study of causes of social conditions and the promotion of programs for social improvement. It is to study social movements and conditions, and to report its findings to Convention, to carry out any instructions of Convention, to promote the formation of parish committees or general organizations for consideration of social questions.

The Gospel of the Kingdom which Jesus began preaching in Galilee is still the hope for the individual and for the world. We recommend that the social implications of the Gospel be given a larger place:

1. In the study and reading of the clergy and the laity;
2. In the preaching not only on Social Service Sunday, but continuously throughout the year;
3. In the parish organization, so that every church may have a social service committee or group and social service be given a place co-ordinate with missions and religious education;
4. In the services of the Church and on occasions where prayers are used, by making use of the social service prayers in the Prayer Book and prayers from other sources, e. g., the splendid litanies and prayers in the "Grey Book."

In conclusion we recommend the adoption of the following resolutions;

1. Resolved, that this Convention hereby commend the efforts being made to improve the character of motion picture films, and recommend co-operation therewith on the part of clergy and churches.
2. Resolved, that this Convention urge public support of every effort made to enforce the present laws for liquor control by the State Board of Equalization and other authorities, and further strongly urge the importance of education in church, church schools, school, and home, as to the necessity of rigid self control in the use of liquor for the sake both of the individual and of society.
3. Resolved, that this Convention endorse in principle the Program for Social Security now before Congress and our State Legislature so far as concerns: Unemployment Insurance; Provision of Public Work for the Unemployed; Old Age Pensions; Health Insurance; Aid to Dependent Mothers and Children; and commend this program to the interest and intelligent study of the people of our churches, and to the Department of Social Service for special consideration and such co-operative action as may seem wise.

THOMAS C. MARSHALL, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE GENERAL CHURCH PROGRAM

This Department organized for the year with the undersigned as Chairman, the Rev. T. Raymond Jones as Vice-Chairman, and the Rev. Wm. Ellwood Craig as Secretary. Nine meetings of the Department have been held.

We sponsored the observance of Sunday, April 29, 1934, synchronizing with the annual Church Schools rally, as "Missionary Sunday" throughout the Diocese and requested all Rectors and Vicars to emphasize the mission of the Church in their services and to preach missionary sermons.

Several members of the Department attended the regional conference in April in Fresno, held at the call of the Presiding Bishop.

We offered our services again to the Executive Council to promote the special Whitsunday offering, which offer was accepted and the work was done by this Department.

We endorsed the plan of the Everyman's Offering to the Council. We sponsored the November issue of the "Los Angeles Churchman" as the annual General Church Program number. In the closing of the year we have given thought to a plan for a Forward Movement in our Diocese.

The pledge of this Diocese to the National Council for 1934 was $17,000.00. This amount has been raised and remitted to help in the great work of our Church. The members of the Department are grateful to have had a share in assisting to meet this pledge, and we wish to commend all of our congregations who have had a loyal part in it. We believe that two things are necessary: Year-round missionary education and conviction, and then a good Every Member Canvass every Autumn.

We regret to record the loss from our number of Mr. Albert G. Stoltz, Senior Warden and Treasurer of St. Mark's Church, Pasadena, who was suddenly called to the Higher Life in October.

HARRY BEAL, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR

Confirmation reports received during the year, indicate that 1,641 persons received the rite of the Laying on of Hands. Seven parishes and missions have sent no report of confirmations.

Acting under the authority of the Bishop, the Registrar has renewed the licenses of 71 Lay Readers. Seventeen of those who acted last year have not yet sent in their licenses for renewal.

All Diocesan Journals received have been properly filed.

RAY O. MILLER, Registrar.

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER

As directed by the Canon, the Historiographer would respectfully report that he holds the records and data collected and compiled by his predecessors, the late Rev. Percival Holl Hickman and the late Rev. Dr. George Edward Swan. There have been added to these sundry pamphlets and programs of important Diocesan happenings. Also a file of the Diocesan Journals, beginning with the primary Convention in 1896. This is complete except for the year 1908. An effort has been inaugurated to secure accounts of the founding and early history of the parishes and missions of the Diocese. In this the Department of Christian Education is giving important co-operation.

There are two needs in connection with the proper development of this work: First, an adequate and safe depository for valuable documents and materials, which will some day be source-material for the future History of the Church in this Diocese; second, A small sum to purchase proper files to hold the manuscripts and other information secured from the several parishes and missions.

CHARLES THORNTON MURPHY, Historiographer.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS

The first meeting of the Board was held at the Cathedral January 30, 1934. The same officers were appointed to continue through the year.

The Board took steps to prepare papers for re-examination of Dr. Olive Austin and Miss Edith Tyler for the office of Deaconess.

The second meeting of the Board was held on February 7 and 8 at the Cathedral house when Rev. M. K. P. Brannan and Rev. George West Barrett were examined for Priest's Orders. Both fulfilled canonical requirements. A meeting of the Board was held on April 23 to examine Rev. Henry F. Softley on Office and Work of a Priest. Examination incomplete.

At the fourth meeting of June 6, Rev. Henry F. Softley, having completed examination in Office and Work of a Priest and Miss Edith Tyler, having completed examination in Religious Education, notices were sent to the Bishop. Messrs. J. P. Philips, St. Luke's Parish, Long Beach, and Richard Parker, All Saints' Parish, Pasadena, presented credentials as Postulants which were accepted with conditions of Old Testament in English for Mr. Philips and examination in Old Testament in English and General and United States History for Mr. Parker. Both petitioned the Bishop for exemption from Greek and Latin in Candidates' examinations.

The fifth meeting was held on June 27 and 28. The following examinations were given: Rev. Mr. R. M. Key, Priest's Examination, incomplete; Mr. Heber Gooden, Deacon's, complete with warning in Liturgics; D. W. C. Graham, complete; Dunham Taylor, complete, with warning in Liturgics; Lester V. Wiley, incomplete; Thomas R. Marshall, complete; Mr. J. P. Philips, Postulant, completed examination in Old Testament in English; Mr. Fred Pyman, Postulant, completed examination in American History.

The sixth meeting of August 12 accepted credentials of Mr. Reid Hammond (Canon 2, Sec. V. ii) as Candidate for Holy Orders.

The seventh meeting was held on September 5. Rev. Robert Key completed Priest's examination. Mr. Dennis Delicate, Postulant, took Literary examinations, which were incomplete. The Board suggested that Mr. John Krumm be advised to take Greek. Moved and carried that the Board accept the record of work done at Cincinnati Summer School of Sociology. Moved and carried that the Board express willingness to examine Miss Bernice Cartwright in the Canonical requirements for Deaconess for the Bishop of California. ✓

At the eighth meeting, November 28, Miss Cartwright passed the examination for Deaconess. Notice of completion of examination was sent to Rt. Rev. E. L. Parsons, D.D., Bishop of California.

The Board has $97.00 deposited in the Bank of America and needs no further funds at present.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH PENSION FUND

During 1934 the Committee collected and sent to New York $17,571.14.

The Pension Grants in force, in this Diocese, as of January 14, 1935, totaled $30,028.00, divided as follows:

Clergymen	$18,478.00
Widows	9,900.00
Orphans	1,650.00

At the present time the Fund is paying out pensions at the rate of over $1,100,000.00 a year.

The Trustees hope to renew the resolution paying the widow of a clergyman, dying in service, $1,000.00, provided every parish in the Diocese has paid at least six months of the previous year's assessments.

The Committee wishes to remind you that assessments are payable monthly in advance at the rate of 7½% of your Rector's stipend. If a rectory is provided an amount equal to one-sixth of the stipend should be added for the purpose of figuring the assessment. If your assessment is not so paid interest accrues.

During the past year the income from invested funds turned over to the Pension Fund by this Diocese, while not enough to reduce the percentage on each parish, was enough to pay the pension assessments for our Bishops. This should help to reduce the assessment for the Diocesan Fund.

Appended is a list of parishes and missions that have not paid in full for the year 1934.

C. M. GAIR, Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

I am happy to report that during the year 1934 all of the Departments of the Auxiliary have functioned splendidly, and we have been able to keep up our record of much work well done.

Being the Triennial year the United Thank Offering is especially to be congratulated that under the fine leadership of Mrs. F. W. Stockton we were able to give $17,210.00 at the great Presentation Service in Atlantic City last October. Mrs. Stockton, who for twenty years has so faithfully acted as our Diocesan Custodian, is this year resigning. We are sad to see her go; we are grateful for her unswerving devotion; we are proud of the efficient department which she has built up. Mrs. George A. Robinson, who has been appointed to carry on the U. T. O. work, will, I know, receive the same loyal interest and support from the Branches.

Mrs. Gardett, who has been our Diocesan Representative of the Church Periodical Club, has been promoted to the Provincial Representative, and so she too is resigning, and we have appointed Mrs. Livingston Porter to take her place.

Our Social Service Department has continued its much needed help, for those of our people to whom distress and misfortune have come. During the year $2,928.86 has been distributed in cash, $3,397.00 in work, food and clothing, making a total of $6,325.86.

The Supply Department sent 79 boxes and bales to four Missions in Alaska, one in China and one in New Mexico, amounting to $6,120.93 in value, besides this we sent 36 Advent checks to Diocesan Missionaries, two personal boxes outside the Diocese, two Christmas presents to women Missionaries, making a total of over $7,000.00, a slight increase over last year.

The Altar Department has given to 15 Missions in the Diocese, and on October 25, a Corporate Communion was held at St. Paul's Cathedral for members of the Altar Guilds and their friends.

During the year we gave through our Diocesan Treasurer:

During the year we have held Monthly Diocesan Meetings, and our Advent Quiet Day was this year held at All Saints' Church, Pasadena. The Rev. Douglas Stuart led the meditations and we had a most helpful and instructive day.

We were able to send our full delegation to the Triennial at Atlantic City and since the delegates have returned they have spoken at one Diocesan Meeting and at many of the Branches.

We close the year with 116 Branches, one more than last year, and with an earnest hope that we will be able to co-operate with the Churches and really help in forwarding the coming of the Kingdom of God.

ANNE W. PATTON, Diocesan President.

REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY

At the present writing your Society has a very efficient corp of Chaplains visiting the sick, the poor, and the needy. They hear the complaints of each. They listen with abundant patience to the mentally deficient. They comfort them with a word of prayer, a word of advice or a blessing. They carry Jesus to all. Pray tell me, who can give any greater comfort than Our Blessed Lord?

This past year has been an eventful one, as I said before, much water has passed under the bridge. With faith in Our Blessed Lord and a determination to follow his command of "Inasmuch," your Society with the aid of the Chaplains, the Deaconesses, Sister Grace, and the twenty-five Volunteer Workers have made a lasting contribution to the souls of many of God's poor and sick.

The Department of Religious Work begs to report as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT OF ST. BARNABAS HOUSE

Patients during 1934.....	90
Days care	3,462
Meals served	12,591

The patients during the year have been received almost exclusively from the Los Angeles General Hospital and the Federal Relief Bureau—Transient Service. The patients largely are transients who have not settled long enough in one community to establish friendships or credit to assist them over a period of illness. Lacking both friends and funds they have been forced to rely upon community agencies which have been founded to assist people of this type.

From the opening days of 1934 the problems of the House have continued to increase. The economic program established under the present administration has drawn from our community a large percentage of employable men. At one time a number of our patients came from this group. Those now, for the most part, remaining in town are men who are unable to co-operate with any work program or have never held a job, but have lived by their wits. This is the type of man we are now receiving.

When these men have completed their period of convalescence it is almost impossible to find them work or to place them in some other agency. Those who come to us from the Federal Emergency Relief Bureau are returned to them and are eventually placed in a C. C. Camp. The others must gain assistance from the Bureau of County Welfare or go out onto the road again.

REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

Five thousand nine hundred twenty-nine patients were admitted to the Hospital in comparison with 4,522 in 1933, an increase of 1,407. The daily average number of patients was 193.3, as compared with 151 in 1933, an increase of 42.3. The number of surgical operations was 4,955 as compared with 3,873, an increase of 1,082. The income from operation of the Hospital was $563,895.21, as compared with $444,686.87, an increase of $119,203.34.

The number of births in 1934 was 433; the number of deaths, 179, of which 142 were institutional deaths, or deaths occurring more than 48 hours after admission. There were no obstetrical deaths. The number of deaths to the total number discharged was 2.4 (2.9 last year).

In addition to the number given above, 2,563 out-patients were treated at the Hospital in its various departments, including X-Ray, Electrocardiographic, Laboratory, and Colonic Irrigation Departments.

Four hundred fifty-nine assisted under the free bed and discount plan; 338 assisted under the inclusive plan.

To which should be added the 637 patients hospitalized by the Good Hope Clinic in whose care the Hospital of the Good Samaritan is really a partner by reason of the fact that these patients are now taken at the rate of $6.15 per day instead of the $7.75 rate which was the rate in effect until last year. This would make a grand total of 1,434.

Estimated in dollars and cents, the amount of free work given through the Hospital and the various departments is as follows:

Given by the Hospital (room, nursing, operating room, etc.)	$22,877.76
Given by the Laboratory Department	19,730.00
Given by the X-Ray Department	17,948.20
Given by the Electrocardiograph Department	1,230.00
Given by the Colonic Irrigation Department.....	85.00
 Total.....	 $61,870.96

The amount of the contributions from the churches of the Diocese in 1934 was $375.93.

There was received from endowments as interest, $7,182.17.

Additions to the endowment funds of the Hospital have been $1,181.11.

The Director of Education reports for the Bishop Johnson College of Nursing as follows:

The size of the school has become smaller during the year because of older students graduating. The lowest ebb was during July and August when there were but nine basic students in the school. A small class was admitted in September and another will be admitted February 11th. We now have 19 basic students and 11 advanced students. During the coming year we hope to build up the size of the school to a number which is commensurate with the clinical services we have to offer. Although our numbers are small we have been able to continue the same high standing which the school has always enjoyed. Out of the few who have taken the State Board Examination, we have twice during the year carried the highest honors of the State. The Pacific Coast Journal of Nursing has just published an article written by one of our students.

The Librarian of the Hospital reports the beginning of the accumulation of a permanent library of books to supplement the existing library supplied by the Los Angeles Public Library.

"The nucleus of the library was formed by a gift of a number of books from Bishop Stevens and has been added to by further gifts from friends and patients."

The library numbers now 293 volumes.

The Librarian would welcome gifts of books in good condition, books of travel, biography, history, popular science, and especially fiction, and any such books contributed will be pretty sure to be kept in constant use until they are worn out and have to be retired.

REPORT OF THE CHURCH HOME FOR CHILDREN

The Church Home for Children—a Diocesan Institution under the advisement and supervision of the Bishop of our Diocese—closes its twenty-first year with all bills paid and a small sum in its treasury. The stringency of the times have not made it easy to finance the institution; and had it not been for an undesignated legacy received we would not have so favorable a report.

For the past four years we have made every effort to keep down the operating expenses with the result that we have arrived at a decided decrease in cost of maintenance per child each year. Nevertheless, we are keeping up a good living standard and are not cutting down in quality or quantity of food necessary for good healthy growth. Also, we are caring for the mental and physical development of every child. Wherever it seems necessary to give a child special help we endeavor to solve each particular problem, although this always involves extra expense and time.

During the past year we contacted 67 children, averaging 50 children each month.

Twenty children have been in the Home for two years or more;

Fifteen children have been in the Home one year or more;

Fourteen children have been in the Home less than one year.

The religious and moral training of the children is provided for by a required attendance at the Church School on Sundays at the Church of the Angels and also at the Childrens Lenten Services. There is also a mid-week service conducted in the Home. Five children were baptized during the past year and five children were confirmed.

The Home is under the management of a Board of Directors who meets regularly on the second Thursday of each month. Mrs. Euphrat, who is ably fitted for the work, still remains as the Superintendent. She stands every ready to respond to invitations from Guilds or Auxiliaries or organizations to present the story and the needs of the Home.

There is a Council of women, under the efficient leadership of Mrs. M. P. McMurray, comprised of representatives of interested parishes and missions. It meets regularly on the first Monday of each month at the Church Home for Children at 2:00 P. M. To its meetings all interested in our church Institution for the care of little children are cordially invited. The Council has assumed the responsibility for an Annual Party for the benefit of the Home each year. It does many helpful things for the Home and serves the Home as a Guild serves a Parish.

We acknowledge, with thanks and appreciation, the gifts and contributions from the people of the Church which constantly and continuously come to us throughout the months of the year; especially would we express our appreciation to the clergy and the people of our Diocese for the generous outpouring of food for the pantry at Ingathering Day and the needed gifts at Christmas time.

The Church Home for Children is not in any Community Chest. It is supported entirely by the free will offerings and contributions of the people of our Church, and by such sums as the Parents or Guardians of the children are able to make.

Faith built the Home and Faith will sustain it even in troublous times. Faith inspired the heart of Deaconess Wile who founded the Home and established it, and those who have taken up the work where she left it; pray for a stronger faith to carry on, that the privilege be not denied to little homeless children to receive an early training in the Christian religion—and may come to know their best Friend—Jesus Christ—who still takes them in His arms to bless them.

If you wish to help, makes your cheques payable to the Church Home for Children, and send to Miss Claribel Teller, Treasurer, 1080 North Avenue 64.

GEORGE DAVIDSON,
President of the Board of Directors.

THE HOME FOR THE AGED

Secretary-Treasurer's Annual Report for 1934

During the year the Home has cared for its full quota, 28 members. We have lost four by death: Mr. Gilbert I. Tompkins, Mr. Nathan E. Tucker, Mrs. Esther Jane Tarbox, Mrs. Hannah W. Wilson.

The Board of Directors has held two regular and one special meeting with an average attendance of eight. (The Executive and Finance Committees have had several conferences with reference to investments.)

Our income for maintenance for the year was as follows:

Contributions	$4,132.88
Chapel offerings	129.96
Interest from invested funds.....	105.31
Maintenance reserve fund, forward from 1933.....	5,099.63	$14,467.78
Our cash disbursements for the year.....		$11,541.18
Leaving a balance in the maintenance reserve fund of		$ 2,926.60

(A depreciation charge for the year has been made of $1,246.18, which makes a total depreciation charge of $12,787.36, or two percent of the original cost of the buildings.)

We have received by bequests $800.00 from the Gifford estate and $755.90 from the Houghteling estate, a total of $1,553.90 which had been added to the Endowment Fund. We now have $144,959.70 in the Endowment Fund; $19,997.46 in Trust Funds representing money belonging to members in the Home, and $1,138.14 in the General Reserve Fund.

We are happy to report all bills paid. Also, that we have been able to pay 4 percent to the members of the family on funds held in trust for them. At the present time, there is a balance in the maintenance reserve fund of $2,926.80.

CATHERYN E. DAVIS, Secretary-Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S SCHOOL

On June 12, 1934, the Bishop's School completed its twenty-fifth year of service in the field of education, graduating at that time eighteen seniors. The date was especially memorable by the evident loyalty and interest of the many alumnae who came to help us celebrate the accomplishments of the School in the first quarter of a century. Perhaps, because of frequent changes of headmistresses during the first decade of the School's life, a number of past students had seemed to have drifted away, feeling vaguely that they might not any more be remembered. The silver anniversary, however, brought forth a concerted effort on the part of all who could visit La Jolla, to renew old associations. One alumna came for the occasion from Victoria, B. C., and another appeared after almost twenty years spent in Bombay, India.

A new library building, the gift of Wheeler J. Bailey, Secretary-Treasurer, of the Board of Trustees, dedicated at Commencement, has added to the beauty of the campus and has necessitated a very helpful rearrangement of the classrooms and offices. It was a fine gift and we are grateful.

The current school year opened in September with an enrollment satisfactory, but still somewhat smaller than in days before the depression. Our first "grandchild," the daughter of a member of the class of 1914, has entered the seventh grade and we hope that the second generation will steadily increase our numbers.

The teaching staff proves its devotion by remaining almost unchanged year after year. So it is simpler to hold traditions and to high standards of work and community life. The group know and trust one another.

We are especially grateful to our Bishops and to all members of the clergy who are helping us build up the Bishop's School. Some are sending their daughters; some are telling their friends; some are speaking kindly in distant places. We in La Jolla are continually trying to hold to our motto—Simplicity, Sincerity, Serenity—in a world seemingly moving often toward other goals. Won't you come to see our School for yourselves, won't you remember us a little oftener in your prayers? for without such help no institution, however, fortunate, can carry on successfully.

CAROLINE S. CUMMINS, Headmistress.

REPORT OF THE HARVARD SCHOOL

Harvard School, upon the Emery Foundation, began its thirty-fifth year on September 18, 1934, with an enrollment of 118 pupils. This is a low enrollment compared with a few years ago, but the financial troubles of the times are the reasons for the small number in attendance. What we have lost in quantity we seem to have gained in quality. The average character and intelligence of the student body is remarkably high. Of this 118 boys, 22 are in grades 6 to 8, inclusive, and 96 in grades 9 to 12, inclusive. There are 32 resident pupils and 86 day pupils. The religious preferences of the boys are interesting. They are: Episcopal, 52; Christian Science, 12; Presbyterian, 10; Methodist, 9; Jewish, 4; Congregational, 3; Baptist, 3; Christian, 2; Roman Catholic, 4; Lutheran, 1.

There are 10 teachers, of whom 8 have been at the school a long time and 2 are new this year. One of these two is a graduate of the school and later of Yale University. While there he made a good scholastic record and a member of the football and fencing team. He is a valuable addition to our faculty. The other new teacher is an able young graduate of Occidental College. The character and ability of our teachers is such that even to be with them is true education for the boys.

The school continues to maintain a sound program of athletics for all the boys in the school and results from a physical and health standpoint are easy to see.

The heart of the school is the chapel. There are services there every evening except Saturday and Sunday, and on Sunday mornings and Thursday mornings. There is a fine response to these services and they bring obvious satisfaction to the boys.

Our only problem is a property problem. How it will be solved I do not yet see, but I know it will be solved. In this matter I do all I can and leave the rest to my Fellow-Worker, my Heavenly Father. He has never failed me yet. I know absolutely He will not fail now. We expect to see a greater Harvard School on the Westwood Campus in the not distant future.

ROBERT B. GOODEN.

REPORT OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD SETTLEMENT

The Neighborhood Settlement has now entered upon the thirty-first year of its service of deed as representing the Christian social gospel. The work is carried on without allocation from the Diocesan budget. It is, however, a real and vital expression of constructive good will between the Church and the people, different in type and in traditions from the usual parish. By the same token it is in a specific sense a piece of parish work. The financial support come almost wholly from the Community Chest. The significant exception is a monthly allowance of forty dollars from one Board member for service to young children.

The year has been marked by the results which come from continuity in personnel. We have entered into the going life of the neighborhood more fully.

Attendance in connection with the year-round activities program brought the membership during the year to over a thousand individuals. The increase over the four hundred and fifty members of five years ago has come largely from the younger age groups, one exception being the Women's Club which increased in two years from twenty to over one hundred members.

Thanks to our special donation we are able to carry the pre-school more regularly than in years past and are especially indebted to a volunteer for reinforcing the member of the staff assigned to this duty. This daily intercourse with about twenty-five of the "very young" keeps the problems of health constantly before us.

We have been fortunate in the directors of our Boys and Girls Groups in which the numbers are so large that we are at a loss for adequate leadership for the small clubs into which they should be divided. The directors do the best they can without adequate materials and equipment. The fundamental principle of these clubs is self-expression through associated action with such freedom of choice of activities as may be practicable.

Experience throughout the year has more and more fully demonstrated the 24-hour a day need for a center to which people can go to have emergencies met; to secure advice upon personal problems and assistance in making necessary contacts with the various relief and health agencies.

Two outstanding events were the 4th of July celebration and the Christmas play.

The settlement shares in the general paucity of financial resources especially as added to the necessarily increasing costs, depreciation, the taxes have been placed at the regular rate on real estate assessments, a reduction being allowed only on improvements. Any change in this situation may be secured only by co-operation with other social agencies and an organized plan to change the state law.

The Council of Social Agencies and the Co-ordinating Councils keep the Head Worker actively in touch with a resourceful group intent upon conscientious and intelligent social service for the whole city. Further reference to these movements is contained in the report of the Social Service Department.

On the physical side, housing and health should be the slogan for the next half decade and the Settlement should be in a position to take a share in the leadership for both better housing and a more intensive and comprehensive community program for the betterment of life.

ELEANOR H. WOODS, Head Worker.

REPORT OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE

During the year 1934 approximately 300,000 seamen came through the door of the Seamen's Church Institute. It has been a tremendously busy place. We have endeavored to meet the needs of the seamen to the best of our ability, and it has been a year fraught with many difficulties.

During the years from 1926 to 1933, inclusive, our Institute lodged 60,754 men; during the year 1934 we lodged 69,125. During the years from 1926 to 1933, inclusive, we served 23,804 meals; in the year 1934 we served in our own building, 192,154 meals. It was necessary for us to rent five extra lodging houses, and for half of the year there were twelve members on our staff. A financial statement of our operations is submitted herewith and will probably be published in the Journal.

You will be interested to know that the Diocese gave us during the year $1,252.50; we reduced our capital indebtedness $1,421.86, and expended for new equipment and repairs, $2,942.76. The total capital indebtedness of the Institute on January 1st, 1935, amounted to $19,345.09. During the year it was necessary for us to pay $1,153.71 in interest charges. We are greatly indebted to all of the churches, members of the Woman's Auxiliaries, and individuals who have helped us to carry on the past year, by gifts of money and the Christmas boxes. There are few seamen who receive any kind of a Christmas gift other than that which comes to them in our Christmas boxes. While the great majority of the approximately 800 boxes which came to us came from the Diocese, it is interesting to note that a number of them came all the way from Ohio. If part of the Church's work is to let men know that God cares for his children, these boxes do their part.

We would especially thank the Women's Crew, under the most able leadership of Mrs. Willoughby Rodman, for the continuous and substantial help which they bring to us.

When it is known that there are sixty-six places (the same number of books there are in the Bible) dispensing liquor within seven blocks of our Institute; and that the greatest tragedies in the lives of these men are due to liquor, there never was a time in the history of our port when the influence and work of the Institute was so badly needed as it is now. We beg for your continued support.

REPORT OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Heathcote Hall, the Girls' Friendly Lodge, has shown a decided improvement during the past year. All current bills have been paid, with the exception of the interest to the note-holders. At the present time there are only one or two vacancies. During the past year several affairs were given by the society to help with the taxes, etc. The Summer Festival which was held in the gardens of Bishop and Mrs. Stevens was not only a success financially, but was the first big undertaking of the combined branches of the Girls' Friendly of our Diocese.

We are happy to report that while conditions have been bad in some of our parishes that our membership has remained about the same for the past year.

Two new branches were organized and two inactive branches revived, making four for the year. Four branches were disbanded and two became inactive, leaving 20 active branches, with a total membership of about 400.

The receipts for the corporation for the year were $2,945.81; the disbursement, $2,835.77, leaving a balance on January 1st, 1935, of $110.04.

The valuation of the Lenten Sewing done by the branches in co-operation with the Woman's Auxiliary was $355.80.

Splendid work has been done by the Chairmen of the various standing committees, such as: Worship, Social Service, Service to the Church, including Missions and Publicity.

In these times of uncertainty and distress the Girls' Friendly Society can fill a real need in the Nation. The Society was organized for the purpose of uniting the women and girls of the Nation in one fellowship of prayer and service. The branches offer to girls and women the opportunity for wholesome fellowship, worthwhile friendship, service to the Church, prayer, worship and the chance to have a good time.

Our hope is that more girls and women will avail themselves of the opportunities of the organization and will find help and inspiration from God and from our Lord Jesus Christ.

MRS. ARTHUR E. BEAUMONT, Diocesan President.

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S GUILD

The Bishop's Guild begins its twenty-first year with a membership of 527, after having lost 13 members by death and 23 by resignation in 1934.

It has held ten regular meetings, with an average attendance of 83; eight in St. Paul's Cathedral, one in St. James', Los Angeles, and a Spring Luncheon in the Gates Hotel. Eleven Executive Board meetings, two with Parish Representatives, ten sewing meetings and has sponsored five benefits:

Luncheon Bridge, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Steven McGroarty, Tujunga, April 5;

Street Fair, in the Gardens of the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence H. Parlour, Hermosa Beach, July 27;

Theatre Party, Harlequin Studio Guild, Hollywood, November 30;

High Tea and Christmas Sale, in the Bishop's Office, December 6;

And a Program Luncheon, in the American House, Los Angeles, January 10. Supplementing these is a sale of cooked foods, held each month in conjunction with the regular meetings, the donors being arranged alphabetically from the membership, these sales averaging over sixteen dollars a month. The benefits varied in kind and in locality, have done much to stimulate interest and have added $696.22 to the Discretionary Fund.

Individual membership in the Guild is $1.00 a year; guild membership, $2.00; sustaining membership, $10.00; St. Cross Guild, Hermosa Beach, has such a membership. The Guild has an able Membership Chairman and Speaker in Mrs. John J. Tujague, who carries the message of the Guild, its aims and needs to the Guilds in the Diocese, and the Chairman of the Chairman of the Parish Representatives, Mrs. Henry Nies has an active committee, composed of representatives in thirty-five parishes, who sponsor the benefits and follow up the members.

The Episcopal City Mission Society, now operating the Episcopal Clothing Bureau, sponsored by the Guild, has made, since taking it over, in less than six months, 1,817 sales, totaling $824.75, has been able to turn over $100.00 to the Guild, besides meeting all its operating expenses for promotion, advertising, labor and materials for repairs on office and work room and the cost of hauling and administration.

The total receipts of the Guild for the year amounted to $1,880.86. $335.12 was given for the care of Worcester Bowen, the young churchman stricken with infantile paralysis, and $1,000.00 to Bishop Stevens for the discretionary Fund.

H. IVOR THOMAS,
Treasurer.

Los Angeles, January 12, 1935.

I have examined the books and records of the Treasurer of the Diocese of Los Angeles for the period from January 13, 1934, to January 12, 1935, from which the foregoing statements were correctly prepared. All of the recorded receipts were traced into the bank account and the expenditures were satisfactorily vouched.

WILFRED N. HOWARD.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMITTEE

Your Auditing Committee respectfully reports:

That the accounts, for the past year, of the treasurers of the several funds of the Diocese have been audited, under its direction, by Mr. Wilfred N. Howard, public accountant.

The accountant's report, dated January 28, 1935, is attached hereto and forms a part of this report.

The accountant's report comprises his statement addressed to the Auditing Committee, to which is attached his Exhibits I and II, respectively, covering the receipts and disbursements of the treasurer of the General Church Program, Mr. W. F. Knight; and of the treasurer of the Church Pension Fund, Mr. Colin M. Gair; and also certified copies of the financial reports of the treasurer of the Diocese and of the Corporation of the Diocese, prepared by the treasurer, Mr. H. Ivor Thomas, which will appear in their accustomed places in the Journal of the Convention.

Your Committee, with the accountant, examined the bonds and other investment securities of the Diocese, and found them as listed in the report of the Corporation of the Diocese. These securities are kept in the safe deposit vaults of the Security-First National Bank, 707 South Spring Street, Los Angeles.

In reference to the bonds of Garden Foundation, Inc., your Committee is informed that a payment of $811.50 has been made on account of the principal, and that a payment of $114.10 has been made on account of interest; also that a suit has been filed against the Mortgage Insurance Corporation, guarantor of the bonds, for the balance of principal and interest.

With reference to the bonds of Rindge Land and Navigation Co., we are informed that an offer of forty cents on a dollar has been made for these bonds, and that the offer will probably be accepted.

The bonds of Mid-State Horticultural Co. are in default of interest from July 1, 1932; also to stock of Productive Properties, Inc., and the stock of Valley Agricultural Co. are not paying dividends. We are informed that the Diocese may possibly sustain a loss with these investments.

The bonds of the treasurer of the Diocese have been kept in force.

HENRY E. BRETT, Chairman.

JOHN KEBLE BURLESON*Priest and Doctor*

John Keble Burleson, Vicar of Trinity Mission, Escondido, and All Saints' Mission, Vista, died February 15, 1934, after a short illness. He was born in Northfield, Minnesota, May 13, 1867, being the son of a Priest of the Church, and one of five brothers to enter the ministry of our Church. Graduating from Hobart College and the General Theological Seminary, he was ordained Deacon in 1895, and Priest in 1896, both by the late Bishop Grafton of Fond du Lac. His early ministry was in Wisconsin and the Dakotas, and in 1912 Fargo College gave him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. He came to California in 1929, and was for two years at St. John's Church, Porterville, in the District of San Joaquin. In the Fall of 1931, he came to the Diocese of Los Angeles, and took up the work of Escondido and Vista. Though his ministry in this Diocese was brief, he had come to be loved by all, and his kindly disposition made him a friend of everybody who knew him. Burial services were held in Trinity Church, Escondido, February 19, by Bishop Stevens, assisted by his brother, the Rev. A. L. Burleson.

GEORGE RANALD EDWARD MACDONALD*Priest and Doctor*

George Ranald Edward MacDonald, formerly rector of Holy Trinity Parish, Alhambra, died after a long and painful illness, October 6, 1934, in the Hospital of the Good Samaritan. He was born in St. Andrew's East, Quebec, July 21, 1877. Educated in the University of New Brunswick and Kings College, he was ordained Deacon in 1899 and Priest in 1901, both by the Bishop of Fredericton. In 1928 King's College, Toronto, honored him with the degree of Doctor of Divinity. The first few years of his ministry were spent in New Brunswick, but in 1906 he came to California, being first at Hanford, in the District of San Joaquin, and then for seventeen years Dean of St. James' Cathedral, Fresno. He came to Alhambra in 1929, and was building up a fine piece of work, when ill health caused his resignation a few months before his death. He was President of the Council of Advice in San Joaquin, and also an Examining Chaplain and delegate to General Convention. In this Diocese he had been a member and Chairman of the Social Service Commission. Lovable, kindly and patient, he was a wonderful witness to the power of his faith to uphold one in the midst of pain and discouragement. Burial services were held from St. Paul's Cathedral, October 9.

TIMON EVANS OWENS*Priest and Doctor*

Timon Evans Owens, a retired priest of the Diocese, died January 3, 1935. He was born in Clarksville, Ohio, May 24, 1874, and received his education at Adrian College, Yale, and Berkeley Divinity School. He was first a Minister of the Methodist Protestant Church, but in 1905 was ordained Deacon and in 1906 Priest in our Church by the late Bishop Brewster of Connecticut. He held positions in Washington, D. C.; Philadelphia, and Trenton, New Jersey, before coming West, to Seattle, Washington. In 1910, he came to this Diocese and was rector of the old Church of the Ascension, Boyle Heights. Later he was for a time Missionary of the Imperial Valley Missions. In 1918, he received the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Southern California, and since that time had been actively engaged in the practice of law, but giving his Sunday time for all sorts of calls in the Diocese. He was first of all a student, a clear thinker and gifted with powers of analysis. He was of the Anglo-Catholic school of thought, but loyal and sympathetic to all.

ALLAN LUCIEN BURLESON*Priest*

Allan Lucien Burleson, for fourteen years Vicar of All Saints' Mission, Oxnard, died January 5, 1935, at the age of 78. He was born in Milo, Illinois, September 20, 1856, son of the Rev. S. S. Burleson, and the eldest of the distinguished line of five Priest brothers. He graduated from Racine College and Kenyon, and was ordained Deacon in 1891 by Bishop Knight, and Priest in 1893 by Bishop Leonard. His early ministry was in a number of Church Schools in Wisconsin, Ohio and Texas. In 1900 he came to California and for eight years worked in the Diocese of Sacramento. In 1908 he went to Mexico, where for thirteen years he worked in this difficult missionary field. In 1921 he came to the Diocese of Los Angeles, and assumed charge of All Saints' Mission, Oxnard, where he has labored faithfully and quietly until the time of his death. He was Diocesan Secretary in Sacramento and in Mexico, and also President of the Council of Advice of the District of Mexico. A dignified, courtly gentleman of the old school, he brought to this Diocese the experience of a varied life rich in experiences. He was loyal, thoughtful and considerate, a worthy upholder of the fine traditions of the devoted Burleson family. Burial services were held by Bishop Stevens from the Mission at Oxnard.

CHARLES HENRY HIBBARD*Priest, Canon and Doctor*

Charles Henry Hibbard, Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, and Rector Emeritus of St. James' Church, South Pasadena, died at his home in Pasadena, January 31, 1935, the evening of the close of the Diocesan Convention. He was just 82 years of age, and while he had been in frail health for a number of years, the end was sudden and peaceful. Born in Elmira, New York, January 28, 1853, he graduated from Hobart College, Seabury Divinity School and the General Theological Seminary. He was ordained Deacon in 1879 and Priest in 1880, both by Bishop Coxe. In 1892 Hobart College gave him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. After serving the Church with distinction in Philadelphia and New Jersey in 1902 he came to California, and in 1905 took charge of St. James' Church, South Pasadena. In 1908 he was elected Rector Emeritus of St. James Parish, and in 1909 he was appointed the first Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, Los Angeles. He was a member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, a member of the Board of Examining Chaplains, and also of the Commission on Architecture. He was also the author of a number of pamphlets and articles. Interested especially in liturgics, he gave of his experience and interest to many in this important field. He was in a very true sense a gentleman, a scholar and a rare personality. Survived by a widow, three daughters and a son, it is of note that one daughter has been Diocesan President of the Woman's Auxiliary, Chairman of the Board of the National Woman's Auxiliary, and one of the first four women to be elected as member of the National Council of the Church. Burial services were held from St. James' Church, South Pasadena, February 2, 1935, conducted by the Bishops, the Rector and the Assistant Deacon.
